Published every weekday and Sunday morning at The Journal building. Broadway at Yam-hill street, Portland, Oregon.

Entered at the postoffice at Portland, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTA-TIVE—Senjamih & Kentnor Co., Bruns-wick building, 225 Fifth avenue, New York; 900 Mailers building, Chicago.

PACIFIC COAST REPRESENTATIVE - M. C. Morgenson Co., Inc., Examiner building, San Francisco: Title Insurance building, Los itles building. Seattle. THE OREGON JOURNAL reserves the right to reject advertising copy which ft deems objectionable. It also will not print any copy that in any way simulates reading matter or that cannot readily be recognized as advertising.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES Carrier-City and Country

SUNDAY (Only) (Without Sunday) (Only)
One year . . . $6.00 One year $3.00
Six months . . . 3.25 Six months . . . 1.75
Three months . . 1.75 Three months . . 1.00 One month WEEKLY .60 WEEKLY AND SUNDAY (Every Wednesday) SUNDAY me year$1.00 One year$3.50
ix months50

able to the Journal Publishing Company, Pertland, Oregon.

TELEPHONE-MAIN 7161. All departments reached by this number

Man is the artificer of his own happiness. Let him beware how he com-plains of the disposition of circumstances.

This was the pith of the inscription on the wall of the Swedish inn. will find at Trolhate excellent bread, meat ovided you bring them with you!"-Henry D. Thoreau.

ARRIVED

THERE seems to be no quesistration.

ilton Holt relative to the League to live before they are admitted, of Nations, Mr. Hughes virtually and to employ every effort to asadmitted that the senate is the similate them after they are here. body that is making entrance of this country into the league impossible. He says that no matter what his personal desires might be, any attempt to put this country into the league would have to be undertaken in the constitutional. way. That is to say, even if the secretary desired to make this nation a member, the senate would have to give its approval. And this country is making no attempt to enter, apparently because administrative heads believe the senate would block such an endeavor. It was a long fight. Many a good measure had to be defeated before the senate could proclaim to the world that it had a place in the sun. But the senate undertook that task and the senate seems to have accomplished its purpose. It is beginning to look as though the late Boies Penrose knew whereof he spoke when he said "it makes no difference who is secretary of state, the senate will direct this nation's foreign policy."

Disabled war veteran with fractured skull, diseased cheek bones, is that traffic men cannot always leaky lungs, shattered back, bayonet-stabbed stomach, seven masilver plate substitute for heel shot away, was recently declared 10 per cent incapacitated by United States ous man the rest of him must be!

THE FERRY ACCIDENT

his ability to guide the craft.

The engineer had a similar per- car. mit. Without it he would have been penalized for laying his hand upon the throttle.

inspection and its operation to I ment has cut down the numstringent rules and regulations. It ber of crimes in Chicago by onecould have been stopped at any half, says a bulletin of the Chicago moment that a question as to its crime commission.

which went backward off the ferry swift and effective punishment was and nine who follow the beauty slip had no evidence that his ex- reported to have reduced crime 50 trail. Tourists by train must still perience or ability to drive the ma- per cent. chine had been looked into. If he The Detroit report said that as slow and laborious connections, ulist radicals. Indeed, that is what she was obeying the law he carried a soon as the criminals found that Tourists by automobile must return driver's license which the state is- the delays and laxitles had been over the route, still imperfectly sues and which may be revoked cut out of criminal prosecutions, surfaced, by which they entered. after infraction of law has oc- they left that city for places where Tourists may endure flat tires and gests that "a test case upholding the into reverse when he should have inals. gone forward; who crowded on the Keen lawyers who help a crook a road leading from Lewiston across gasoline when his foot should have escape punishment for a crime of the canyon of the Snake by way of at considerable length, and then con been on the brake-he and a hun- which he is guilty help encourage Wallowa lake and then back to tinues: "Seriously, aren't we drifting dred thousand others in Oregon may crime. Courts that permit techni- Grande Ronde valley, either over drive a car without experience; calities and hair-splitting quibbles the mountains or, preferably, of may take the lives of others into to defeat the punishment of crooks down the valley of the Wallowa Kansas, shows this little rock, for their keeping and fail in the trust. likewise embolden criminals to go river and thence up the course of stance: Section 11. bottom of the Willamette river laughing at the law. when the automobile backed off The crime situation in Chicago wonderland of Oregon's Alps would being responsible for the abuse of such ing in the operation of motor cars the carnival of lawlessness. A trial that under our precedentothers as you would have them do unto life?

> ern traffic signals. Not only were try a wide berth. the convention hall and finally clothed.

HIS WAY

CONCETTA CORNACCIO is a beautiful Italian girl. Although only 18, she is in this country attempting to earn her living by

So MANY things have been said would not be America." But that would not be America." But that divent the public schools of the country attention to earn her living by working in an Eastern office. After she came here, she met with her and pressed his suit. Corthan Concetta, but he falsified to able to operate their own cars her about his age, and otherwise were talking. Said the first: prejudiced the girl against him. She refused to marry him.

The girl was en route to work again asked her to marry him, and and chat with my friends. I have a was refused. Enraged, the suitor chauffeur, the motorman, and a genpulled a razor from his pocket and eral manager, the conductor. If I leaped for the girl's throat. He velled that no other man should have her if he couldn't.

When she was rescued, Concethe razor deep into her flesh. It lance. was his way of gaining the girl he wanted.

Coricelli, of course, will go to European customs, disobeyed our facturer, who had said to him: law, and slashed, hacked and shot their way to a place behind prison

I tion that the senate of the scendants, recent statistics indicate United States has won its place in | And it is because of the slashings, the sun for which it has so long the hackings, the shoetings, the cost striven. At least, it appears to of trials and imprisonment, and have its place during this admin- the waves of crime, that the United States will do well to examine very In his correspondence with Ham- carefully the men who come here

> Wouldn't it be quite as economical to put municipal matchscratchers on much used building corners as to pass ordinances which are never enforced against promiscuous match scratching?

CUTTING THE ACCIDENTS

FOR the week ending Sunday night, traffic accidents in Portland fell to 214 from the 297 for the week preceding.

The result is attributed at the police station to the cleanup campaign of Lieutenant Ervin and his squad of four motorcycle men. Inbeen putting in around 16 hours a day in the effort to check the murderous list of accidents. A cut of 93 for the week is the outcome.

The campaign is to be continued. tory, we shall know that vigorous attacks on violators of traffic law can make the streets safer, and life less of a hazard.

The thing that we must expect chine gun bullets in left leg and demonstrated, possibly enough men to still further cut the accidents, charms. The traffic men deserve the full veterans' bureau. What a marvel- support of the courts and public sentiment. Take away the licenses a dozen years ago has constantly of reckless drivers whenever their wondered at the neglect shown this acts end in a tragedy or when their recklessness brings them fre- ple who ordinarily congest every THE pilot on the Willamette river quently into court. The jails and spot where beauty is reputed to ferryboat Webster last Sunday forfeiture of driver's licenses are dwell. afternoon had a permit which was a perfect cure for gentlemen who an evidence of his experience and cannot keep within the law when train running to the Wallowa valat the wheel of a high-powered ley was a "mixed" affair composed

ONE CRIME CURE

The ferry itself was subject to DROMPT and adequate punish-

But the driver of the automobile came recently out of Detroit, where mits, is still unviewed by the ninety the authorities were less prompt empty gasoline tanks with little This man who threw the gear and efficient in dealing with crim- complaint, but "backtrack"? Never!

Three little boys were left at the ahead with their burglaries while the Grand Ronde, the tales brought the ferryboat. True, had the stay- was appalling. There were more suffice to divert a multitude in that chain been higher it might have homicides in that city than in all direction.

been stopped. That is a matter to of Great Britain. Every form of be investigated. But, above all crime ran rampant. The first apother considerations, why are peo- plication of the plan of quick and ple who lack experience or train- certain punishment has checked such a privilege is allowed in no tice and procedure lasts weeks in other law-controlled function of any American state, is disposed of in as many days in Great Britain. Our very delays in such matters An annual convention recently are an inspiration to the offal of held in New York will hereafter Europe to come here to do their be held elsewhere, particularly in dirty work. The opposite condisome place where there are no in- tions in British courts are a warntersecting subway stations and mod- ing to the scum to give that coun-efforts to get about the metropolis, but two from the Far West United States? The average Amerwandered two days trying to find wandered two days trying to find ican is better fed and better The average standard of One week....$.15 One month$.65 journed sine die. The best place mental and moral standards are DAILY

One week....$.10 One week$.05 for conventions is at Portland, quite as high in America. But the journed sine die. The best place mental and moral standards are between "Henry and Me". One month ... $.00 One week $.05 for conventions is at Portland, Quite as high in America. But the both the rig Parally and Bunday where the weather is fit and all British record for crime is near question of the bottom of the list, while America stands at the top of the ghast- the subject in the s ly muster roll.

IN A STREETCAR

a word for the lumbering, rumbling old streetcar may not be conosimo Coricelli. He fell in love strued as be voice of favoritism. On an interurban car three Port-

I don't drive my car to the office downtown and leave it parked on the street it is on my mind more or less whatever. They are on the side of a few mornings ago. At a corner all day. As I come and go on the the law, and they will not tolerate any she was stopped by Coricelli. He interurban I get almost my only chance to read the papers. I meet hurt while driving my own machine the chances are I will get nothing. If I hurt somebody else I will pay heavy damages. But on the car I am responsible for the safety of no one, not ta's throat was badly mutilated. even my own, for should- I be killed this car my heirs would be paid Several times Coricelli had ripped $10,000 in the form of socident insur-

The second of the three business men lost no time agreeing with jail. He will join there scores of lived in the suburbs a long time. other men from his own and other But his testimony took the form lands who have come here with of a quotation from a paint manu-

The man who leaves his car on the a garage at home. Standing out in the sun and dust kills the paint and takes the life out of the rubber. day on the street is far more injurious than a week standing out at night.

This it was argued may show the economy of using the parking garages rather than leaving the cars dom of the press and right of on the streets, or at home. But speech. the third man offered what he considered the clinching point:

the cost of operating my car at 10 for acceptance or avoidance of all the repainting and depreciation. I live rate it costs me $1.80 a day merely to come and go. My commutation fare on the interurban, round trip, is on the streetcar.

A young engineer 100 years ago was sent by the government to locate the site of a fort on Lake Michigan. He had practically decided upon the mouth of the Calumet, when he journeyed a little farther north, found the mouth of the Chicago, a friendly chief and the chief's beautiful daughter. Now, in preparation for Chicago's pageant of progress, they are crediting an Indian flapper with the location of the city. Otherwise its name might have been Calumet A similar story is told of the loca-pent. tion of Cincinnati. But Portland's original location we are assured was based upon the strategic advantages since extensively advertised-after which they flipped a coin to decide upon the name.

REMOTE WALLOWA

NOW IT is said that if the Wallowa region were made a way do two days' work in one. But station instead of a terminus on Sage of Emporia when William Allen with the effectiveness of the plan the scenic route thousands of tourists would visit the realm of encan be kept after the lawbreakers chantment and revel in its stately

This may be the explanation. The individual who visited Wallowa center of summer delight by peo-

But in that more distant day the of freight and passenger cars. The that rule with gun squads." automobile over the mountains from the Grand Ronde to Joseph was credited with the performance of a remarkably daring feat.

Conditions have not changed greatly in a decade. Wallowa lake where there was but one before, A report of the same purport ing a massive circlet of snowy sumfollow a little exploited route with

> If the proposal should win for back by the first few from the lish their sentiments on all subjects,

FREE SPEECH IN KANSAS

That as Kansas Goes So Might Go the Union if Henry's War on William Should Win and be Carried Into the Other States, Is the Expressed Fear of Many Editors -Case Is Funny, in a Way, but Danger Lurks in Kansas' Industrial Court

Law, Just the Same, -Daily Editorial Digest-(Consolidated Press Association) Because it is accepted that there is a high constitutional question involved the majority of editors discuss the

the subject from that angle.

road shopmen's side of the controversy than it is to express one favoring the side of the railroads," urges the St. of the comment, in no way appeals to two states and in the private schools Governor Allen, whose paper, the of three. My last active service was Wichita Beacon, after declaring that during the World war as president of the sign complained of is a method of the oldest commercial college in the picketing, adds that "the real issue Northwest, celli was not only very much older land men who own and are amply has little to do with such a case as this. The real issue is whether the merchants of Kansas may help to run education bill." I believe in free press. out of town the men who are working free speech and free schools. In poll once a month. Whenever I drive it some of the towns. On this point the in the shops. This has been tried in people of Kansas have, no doubts an American. This is strictly an encouragement of the forces that are trying to deprive them of the necessities of life." And Senator Arthur Capper's Topeka Capital argues further that "the spectacular arrest of William Allen White is therefore plain warning the strike leaders how they express ympathy for him in his bout with the law and the state. They may find themselves venturing pretty the sympathetic sidelines and in an inhealthy proximity to the danger zone. Observing the strike for more than two weeks. White may have concluded that, if actual leaders could carry on their work without being molestwhat had been said. He, too, has ed by law enforcement, mere outsiders were safe. his mistake. It is a new object lesson n law enforcement."

Considering these, and all other suggested angles, the Newark News insists that the situation is not one lightly to be smiled over. "All Amerca, if not the whole world," the News says, "ought to know" that the Kansas issue is "built upon the interesting question" whether "a state of the union under the pretense of enforcing the anti-picketing provisions of a labo statute, can suppress, or even abridge, the constitutionally guaranteed free-If it can, then we are all in bad plight. It is a healthy and beneficial thing for the 48 states to function as so many laboratories in the They tell me that when I estimate testing out of governmental theories including gasoline, oil, tires, repairs, wiped out by legislative whim." That likewise is the viey of the New York nine miles from the office. At that Post, which suggests that "on its record Kansas should be the last state in greatest American Institution. free expression of opinion on matters antee of private property but likewise its guarantee of free speech. Too many Americans insist on the one but are inwilling to be governed by the other And the Socialistic New York Call points out that "if the governor wins. Kansas will have a precedent in favor of permitting free utterances of opin- school bill is to put the Bible back ions favoring capitalistic combinations and gagging speech in favor of labor organizations." Still, the humorous side of the incl-

> Kansas?" the Baltimore Sun suggests rove once more that Kansas is the Let no one be frightened, Free s Kansas going back to her old habit these days in bleeding other people, while the Brooklyn Eagle believes that Kansas. On the other hand, as Jerry Simpson's career, and Senator Peffer's, and even John J. Ingalls' prove, it's the best possible qualification for election." And the Pittsburg Leader believes that "Henry would be better engaged trying to pull out the foundations from under the Sunflower state than to start a private fight, with the Is so sure he is right, as in this case. The New York Evening World, in calling attention to the fact that "times change and men change with them, declares that "the Kansas industrial court is taking an awful chance in trying to muzzle Editor White of Em-First thing the court someone is likely to write an article, What's the Matter With Henry's Court?'-with no question mark re quired."

The Chicago Tribune insists that "n matter what view Governor Allen takes That he is grown so great? — Shakespea of the legalities as interpreted in Kansas, the denial of the right to express pinlon is despotism. It is the first privilege which despotism would like banker's wife who had driven her though the law may grant the right to unish, as the governor claims, the Springfield Republican suggests that country will soon be threatened with a new variety of political prisoner f Governor Allan sends William Allen White to jail. To enforce such a law would merely raise up 50 sympathizers with its mirrored surface reflect- last place to put William Allen White is in jail." The Rochester Herald is convinced that "it is quite as easy for Kansas to advertise herself as a crackbrained and dangerous extremist by the excesses of bourbonism as it three decades ago to acquire the same reputation through the antics of Pop is now doing." But the Grand Rapids Press thinks the construction of the law may be as displeasing to those upholding it as to its opponents, and sug editor of the Gazette and voiding the section would really relieve the industrial court of a white elephant.

Victor Murdock's Wichita Eagle as sails the Allen construction of the law toward some plainly charted rocks? A certain chart, called the bill of right the constitution of the state The liberty of the press shall be inviolate; and all per sons may freely speak, write or pubright, and in all civil and criminal actions for libel the truth may be given In evidence to the jury, and if it appears that the alleged libelous matter was published for justifiable ends, the accused party shall be acquitted.' It second clause of this septence that is interesting in the present situa-

And are not Isn't it a rock? several lighthouses of liberty erected on that rock?"

Letters From the People coming home. [Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on only one side of the paper, should not exceed 800 words in length, and must be signed by the writer, whose mail address in full must accompany the contribution.] Instead of being the snimal that easons, man is mostly the animal that

STATEMENT BY MR. RUTHERFORD Of His Reasons for Supporting the Compulsory Education Bill and Changing His Registration. controversy between William Allen arse there are some writers to whom day's Journal. It has prompted me the humor of the situation strongly ap- to an important decision. I have lived peals, and they have considerable in Portland nearly two years but have reached it just as the meeting ad- living is higher here. The average amusement in characterizing the break held my citizenship in Washington be-But most cause it had been my plan to make of the writers very frankly hold that the race as a Republican candidate in both the right of free speech and the Washington for the United States senabsolute freedom of the ate at the coming primary election. the bottom of the list, while Amer- press are involved, and they consider have been a Washington candidate for the state senate and also for congress during the past 12 years and have "It certainly is no more illegal to been defeated by the Catholic church express an opinion favoring the railin both these instances. I would be defeated for the United States senate by the same agency.

given most of my life as an educator, right.

I have decided to register in Portland, Or., and support the "compulsory am opposed to "compass. "cross" and "union label" alike. I am American measure. Vote for it. Any private school for elementary education is a protest against the American public school.

I have no use for the bigotry or mummery of the Catholic church. I have less use for a Protestant reacher than for a Catholic priest One is hopelessly ignorant and the other is ignorantly hopeless.

The dead Jew fable should have no part in public education beyond that accorded to other myths and fables. dependence are among Portland vis-I consider Masonic orders, Ku Klux Klans and Knights of Popery all as un-American.

The state of Oregon should allow no secret orders to meet at any time or ut if so, he now knows place where any officer of the law would be barred. It should have no closed institution, no untaxed lodge or church properties, and no private institutions for the teaching of subjects taught in the elementary public schools. We should not think of the "compulsory education bill" as a Masonic measure, nor yet as an anti-Catholic measure. We should think of it as pro-American measure and support it as becometh true Americans. Yours for the common good, Calvin Rutherford.

IN REPLY TO JUDGE LOWELL A Supporter of the Compulsory Education Bill Presents His Arguments for the Measure. Portland. July 29 .- To the Editor of The Journal-It seems inconsistent for cents a mile I am apt to be under rest. But all sovereignty comes from one to say he is a Protestant and a rather than over the actual amount, the people, whose liberties cannot be native-born American, and in the same breath condemn the measure, to be voted on this fall, the purpose of which is to strengthen and safeguard "our the Union to 'crib, cabin and confine' public school. The letter of Stephen A. Lowell in The Journal of July 29. states: "The Bible has been substanless than 25 cents. I can do a lot with of paramount public concern. Those that $1.55 a day that I save if I ride who truly value the constitution of the tially driven from the public schools. United States accept not only its guar- Are those institutions where the Book destroyed?"

Here Judge Lowell as good as says ur public schools have been destroyed. and thereby proves the necessity the measure he condemns. Does he realize that one of the purposes of the into the public schools? Can any Christian American vote no to that?

Judge Lowell says he is a Mason and then intimates, or implies, that the dent appeals to many papers. Under a Mason, and know nothing about their can speak for that organization on any that the quarrel between the two lead- matter, unofficially. I believe that orintended to ganization can be depended on to back up such an American institution as our nodern Garden of Eden, minus the ser- public schools. To allow sects and classes to run private schools is as da gerous to our country as to allow private courts, private police departments, bleeding. She is more interested private fire departments, er private postoffices. If this be right, then the W. W. and all other radicals must be be funny is not to be criminal in allowed the same privileges. As well allow private armies and navies. To my mind, the whole question boiled down to this: Our American public schools are good enough for all sects and classes who live in America or they are not good enough. ionest-to-God Americans believe them good enough, and if there are enough of such, this school bill will pass. not, then indeed are the public schools destroyed, as Judge Lowell laments. The bill is purely American and protects the cradle of democracy. York's 7,000,000 population, only 1,000,-000 are American born. Oregon is not quite that pad, so we hope this American public school bill will pass.

Do You Know Who I Am? From the San Francisco Chronicle -

Thinking men and women in this country realize that we as a people are engendering contempt for law through unfair discrimination and woeful laxity exercise. The soviet reds enforced in its enforcement. We are developing Even a class of citizens who make a fetish of special privilege. Under existing conditions "pull," "stand-in," "favor," "exemption," "immunity" and "influence" are the most potent words in our language.

> one hears it uttered. shamelessly. "Do you know who I am?"

> "Do you know who I am?" The reckless speeder flings the question at the "speed cop" stopped him on the highway. "De you know who I am?"

ity ordinances.

The query is thundered at the office older who seeks to correct some existing evil. "Do you know who I am?" The menace meets the investigator who would uncover graft.

fear of losing his job.

"Do you know who I am?" The salesgirl is cowed by the words. "Do you know who I am?" street car conductor is intimi dated by the speech. "Do you know who I am?" The worker is put in his place

"De you know who I am?" The hotel clerk must truckle before the portentous words. "Do you know who I am?" The judge about to pass sentence

So on down the line "Do you know who I am?" Yes, we know who you are.

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

SMALL CHANGE

How many wish-you-were-here post cards have you received this vacation season?

"Tis said the horse is coming back. But the cows, as immemorially, are not inds reasons. Consequent upon the strike, the coal consumer gets it going and coming, especially coming across.

Congress does not move in a mysterious way its blunders to perform; not at all—it's just politics, When, in army maneuvers, they get to playing the war game with poison gas, what will the "points" be? Lovely stuff for any save fiends, even in mimicry, isn't it? It is cause for congratulation that men as big as Augustus Thomas, Will Hays and Judge Landis can be trusted

It is reported. But we rejoice to be able to assure all the little readers

SIDELIGHTS

This may be an awful country, but there are people over 80 who have never missed a meal.—Albany Demo-

There is little change in politicians— a cheap one is just as cheap as the kind that fretted folks 50 years ago.— Crane American.

Inasmuch as the militia of 17 states are out to quell the strikes they might practise up a bit by trying to the junior Oregon seedsender o the junior Oregon seedsenger of Idaho sheep ranch,—Medford Mail-Tribune.

Synchronizing the Fordney tariff and ship subsidy is a problem for the president to work out on the golf course. What will the ships carry, save bal last?-Eugene Guard.

A British Columbia astronomer announces that he has discovered two new suns. Maybe they'll come handy next winter, but just now they're superfluous .- Eugene Register.

Moneyed people are generally care not to get green-eyed and go out after one another's jobs.

Orchardists of Marion and Polk counties are to make war on rabbits.

Review.

Moneyed people are generally care ful buyers. Being thrifty—that's how they became and why they remain wealthy. A man who spends as he goes gathers no interest.—Roseburg News-Review.

Science has discovered a method for defeated for the United States senate of The Journal that Peter Rabbit does not live in either of those counties; by the same agency.

Lam a member of the bar but have the dear old briar patch he'll be all properties.—Corvallis Gazette-

MORE OR LESS PERSONAL

Random Observations About Town

reall, returned yesterday to his sum- postoffice of a well known hot minmer home on the McKenzie near Blue eral springs resort, have come to Port-River. He reports that the prospects land L. F. Resing and C. P. Resing. are good for a heavy huckleberry crop. two stockmen. He also thinks the young grouse are doing well.

Prineville, recently visited by a disastrous conflagration, is rising like sioner, is in Portland for a few days Phoenix from her ashes, B. W. John- on business. son of Prineville is among recent arrivals in Portland.

among the Linn county folk visiting in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Addison of In-

C. J. Edwards, one of Tillamook's prominent citizens, is visiting Portland. Charles H. Haines of Bend is rusticating in Portland; also B. Reynolds. Thomas W. Clagett of Ontario is among out of town visitors. Lucy Robinson is registered at the Imperial, from Lone Rock. Among out of town visitors is W. S. Alleman of La Grande.

F. G. Lucas of Weston is transacting business in Portland. G. Hale of Albany is a guest in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thornton are registered from Junction City. Arthur Clarke, an attorney of Corvallis, is in town.

D. T. Gilson of Bend is an out of town visitor. L. E. George and family of Eugene are among late arrivals.

L. Jean Cochran of Medford is trans-C. A. Moore of North Powder acting business in Portland.

William G. Nesmith, who has been, From Ritter, away up on the middle visiting in Portland and on the Rick- fork of the John Day river and the W. S. Caverhill, a Grant county rancher living between Ritter and Long creek, and incidentally county commis R. A. Shaw, Lief Shaw and S. B. Carter, who raise stock in the Long Creek R. L. Brewster of Brownsville is valley of Grant county, are transacting business in Portland.

A. J. Magladry of Eugene, nomines for state senator on the Republican ticket, is in Portland viewing the political situation. Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Dorr and Ed

Baker of Richmond, in the John Day country, are visiting in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ulrich of Klamath Falls are among out of town Amond stockmen visiting in Portland is S. D. Beach of Paradise, Wallowa Among a number of visitors from Range. H. D. Graves of Roseburg is one of many visitors from the interior of the M. J. Koltz and son Charles, Mount Angel, are sojourning in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Giles of Myrtle Point are visiting Portland friends. Visiting in Portland and transacting business is L. Maxwell of Wallowa. H. P. Whitman of Pendleton is among out of town visitors.

among out of town guests OBSERVATIONS AND IMPRESSIONS OF THE JOURNAL MAN visitors.

By Fred Lockley

First attempts at founding a woolen manu- them for food on the way. facturing ladustry in Oregon are narrated by Mr. Leck'ey, whe quotes a participant in those early efforts and adia matter obtained from other sources, to form altogether a story of extendedinary interest, Among the pioneer residents of Salem whom I remember with pleasure F. J. Babcock. the heading "What's the Clatter in ways, but I don't believe any one man visited Mrs. J. H. Haas on North Front street at Salem. Mrs. Haas is a daughter of Captain Pratt. I have known Mrs. Haas and her sister, Mrs. F. J Babcock, more than 30 years. Thirty-three years or more ago as a compositor on the Salem Capital Journal. At that time it was owned by General W. H. Byars and M. L. Chamberlain. That was long before the days of linotypes. The case at which I set type was next to that of Carrie Haas. As I sat on the porch with Carrie Haas' mother we talked of the old days.

"My father, Captain Lucian E. Pratt was born at Webster, Mass., in 1824," said Mrs. Haas. My mother's maiden name was Nancy Lawrence. She was born at Pittsfield, Mass. I am the oldest of their six children. I was born October 1. 78 years ago. remember my brother Billy. He lived at Oregon City. My sister Ida married Captain F. J. Babcock and still lives in Salem.

"My father was a mechanic.

noved from Massachusetts to Peace-dale, R. I., where he was employed as superintendent of a shawl factory While he was there W. H. Rector of Oregon Territory came to see him to consult him about purchasing wool en mill machinery for a mill they were planning to build at Salem. Or. Father advised him to go to Davis & about the purchase and finally em- mill was mysteriously burned. and run the mill. He reached Ore-"Do you know who I am?" has be- gon June 7, 1857. He superintended er of the falls. My father was emcome the open sesame. Everywhere the construction of the woolen mill on Boon's island, as North Salem was He went in 1864, selected the maone hears it uttered, snamelessly, then called. The mill was ready for chinery, superintended the construction connection with special privilege. The implied threat is hurled at the the machinery and the mill was ready as superintendent for awhile he went traffic policeman by the wiolator of for operation, but no one in Oregon on the river, becoming captain of the familiar with the work. My sis- Panny Patton, ter and I had worked in father's shawl factory, so he had us teach the girls who has to do weaving and tend the machinery. I wove the first woolen blanket ever member of the first orchestra and the made in Oregon. This blanket was first brass hand in Salem. For many put up at auction. Joseph Watt, the years he was one of the leading watchman most largely responsible for the makers of Salem. I have three chilconstruction of the woolen mill, bid it dren. My son Frank is a harnessin for $250."

> the plains to Oregon in 1844. Captain married Captain F. J. Babcock, 16 head of sheep, intending to use ren-Will, Grace and Mamle," are a politician, a labor leader, an em- you have some relative or close friend ployer, a public official, a banker, a who is big business man, a prominent club *Do you were so abundant that he felt it was unnecessary to kill the sheep, so he drove them through to Oregon. gave Joseph Watt the idea of bringing sheep to Oregon. Watt went back to Ohio, procured a band of sheep and drove them across the plains to the Masons are against the bill. I am not are Captain L. E. Pratt and Captain Willamette valley. He brought with A Gay or two ago I him on this trip a carding machine.

Not long after Watt's return to Oregon gold was discovered in California, so his plans for getting into the woolen business came to Within the next 10 years his band of sheep had increased to such proportions that he conceived the idea of building a woolen mill and manu- its certificate of convenience. facturing blankets and woolen goods in the Willamette valley. The first carding machine in Oregon was put up at Albany by E. L. Perham. The following spring, 1855. Barber & Thorpe put up a mill on the La Creole, in Polk county, to card, spin and weave flannel cloth. The folowing year, 1856, Joseph Watt organized a company and erected a woolen mill at Salem. This, by the by, was the first woolen mill erected in Oregon Territory, or, for that matter, west of the Rocky mountains. William H. Redtor was employed as superinten- expected will be about August 1. dent of construction on account of his mechanical ability. He had made the stamps and dies for the Beaver coin mint at Oregon City. He had also acted as coiner and was one of the partners in the Oregon Exchange company, which made $55,900 worth of 5-dollar and 10-dollar Beaver gold coins.

"The newly organized woolen mills ompany soon became involved in financial difficulties," said Mrs. Haas. "Some of the original promoters trans-Ferber at North Andover, Mass., to ferred their interests to others, and purchase the machinery. Mr. Rector the newcomers did not approve the consulted my father several times methods of the original company. The ployed him to select the machinery, years afterwards a man who died at pack it and ship it to Oregon around Salem confessed on his deathbed that the Horn and come to Oregon by way he had burned the mill. In 1862 plans of the Isthmus of Panama, set it up were made at Oregon City to build for about a week. Coming out of and run the mill. He reached Ore- a woolen mill there, utilizing the pow- the Cascade mountains last night, he ployed to go East and buy machinery. around the Horn. Father installed chinery at Oregon City. After serving "On June 24, when I was 20 years old, I married J. H. Haas. He was a Carrie married Dr. C. maker. Beechler and lives here in Salem. My Joseph Watt is really the father of daughter Ida is a photographer and the woolen industry in Oregon. He lives in California. If you will go was born in Ohio and came across around and, see my sister Ida, who Shaw, one of the emigrants of 1844, can give you a lot of the early day had started across the pisins, driving history of Salem. She has three child-

The Oregon Country Northwest Hampenings in Brief Form for the Busy Reader.

Fifteen million pounds of prunes will, it is estimated, be handled through Salem concerns. On a basis of $40 a ton for green prunes the estimate of the value of the crop is $1,850,000 to growers. For dried prunes wers. For dried prunes the grow-will receive approximately $1,000,-

Purchase of 40 acres for a perma nent fair ground site has been decided upon by the Klamath county fair board and citizens' committee. The tract selected is owned by Asa Fordyce, two price asked is $12,000.

Because they considered the business management of the Oregon Hay Growers' Cooperative association at miston unsatisfactory during its first year of operation, 16 members of the association have announced their withdrawal. W. R. Winans of Hood River, who has just returned from the Lost Lake district, says the huckleberry harvest there will begin about August 15.

long drouth has had no effect on the Eight fine milk cows belonging to Elmer Raber of Corvallis were killed by arsenic which had been sprinkled over the grass at the side of the track by the ratiroad company. The silversides are putting in an appearance in the Columbia river this year much earlier than usual. Trollers operating outside the river are making good catches. A full time health department has been made possible in Jackson county by the liberal offer of $5580 by the state of Oregon and the Rockefeller Foundation. Plans and specifications for more han $80,000 worth of improvements on nine Linn county market roads have been approved by the state highway department. The United Contracting company of Portland has been awarded the contract for the construction of the stor reservoir at Crescent on its bid of $31,811. A forest road is being laid out on the west side of Crane prairie, Deschutes county. It will connect Lava lake with Davis lake by way of Cultus lake.

lake. The Prouty mill at Warrenton will soon begin operations. At first it will cut only 75,000 feet per day, but later this will be increased to 120,000 feet. The 18-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Frey of drowned in an irrigation ditch a shor distance from the farm home. Despite the poor condition of grass this year, the sales of Tillamook cheese in June were $223,000 compared with $181,000 in June last year. The Lumbermen's Trust company has bought $50,000 worth of Coquille water bonds, paying at the rate of $100.73 per hundred. WASHINGTON

The department of public works has received from the Chewelah Chamber of Commerce protests against the discontinuance of two Great Northern trains between Spokane and Marcys on the ground that it would deprive the town of reasonable mail service Grant county is Felix A. Johnson of and hinder the delivery of milk and cream.

An offer to furnish the cities of Tacoma and Seattle service for their light plants for a consideration to be agreed upon has been ma Tacoma Railway & Power has been made by the The offer is made as a substitute to the two cities building their own transmission line at a cost of about $150,000 An unusually large wolf has been killed on the Colville reservation by Hugh McShane, state hunter. The wolf was known to have killed more than 50 sheep this year from various bands.

The office of sanitary inspector will be abolished by the county commis-sioners of Walla Walla county, the work being taken over by the state board of health.

Contractors for the construction of he new Wallicut hill road in Pacific county have begun operations and plan to finish the work before the Construction of nine miles of rail road along the upper Sauk river. S qualmie national forest, has been on by the Sauk Lumber company of Camps have been established on up per Mill creek in Walla Walla county and 50 men are building a road from the present intake to Tiger canyon.

Records of the Walla Walla penitentiary show 1190 convicts on the roll.
Of these, however, 444 are on parole, leaving 746 in the institution. A rattler six feet in length, with 18 rattles, has been killed on the White Salmon-Husum road. The snake was as large as a man's arm. IDAHO Unless the Idaho Central railroad shows something definite in the way of constructing a line between Roger-son, Idahe, and Wells, Nevada, the public utilities commission will cancel Returns on samples of milk from 26 dairies in Boise show 27 within the seven within the state requirements on bacteria content. John B Broadbent, Idaho pioneer, it dead after a long illness. He was reputed to be one of the wealthiest men in Boise and was 87 years of age. reputed

Retail coal dealers of the state have been requested by Governor Davis to supply the threshing needs of the state Packing companies near Lewiston will open a school for packers as soor as apples can be obtained, which it is

Twenty Years Ago

From The Journal of August 1, 1902 At a meeting of the park commis sion, Rev. T. L. Elliot, a member of the commission, raised the question of the commission's authority to srant the Order of Elks the privilege of using the park blocks on Seventh street for carnival purposes. New York-According to stories in circulation here today, the coal operators have agreed upon a plan for breaking the anthracite strike by September 1.

Wenatchee-Harry Tracy, the torious Oregon outlaw, has turned up again after absence from public view held up the ferryman at Jenkins ferry and compelled him to take him across Multnomah county paid $7000 yesterday of the second half of its state taxes into the office of the state treasurer at Salem.

The scarcity of Chinese labor is a condition that is worrying the tractors who furnish several thousands of Celestials every year to the numerous canneries and to hop grow-

J. B. Yeon, a well known logger on the lower river, with headquarters at Rainier, is in town.

About 9,000,000 feet of lumber was shipped from the mouth of the Columbia during the month of July just ended. As a result of the gambling law being enforced in Portland, the steamer

George W. Elder had among her cargo

San Francisco a large num big business man, a prominent club woman, a social leader, a minister of the gospet, a policeman, a deputy shertiat whoever you are, or whatever you ford university. Now he is receiving are, you stand on an absolute equality an annual salary of $25,000. Yesterday are auto poblic owner, a rich man, a with us before the law.

Let's enforce the law without fear or way to San Francisco, where he will take passage for London.

nickel-in-the-slot machines