

AUTO CARAVAN TO TOUR OREGON FOR 1925 EXPOSITION

The Atlantic-Pacific Highways and Hydro-Electric exposition positively will be held in Portland in 1925. This unqualified statement was made Tuesday night by Mayor Baker, vice chairman of the managing committee, in announcing plans for an auto caravan which will leave Portland August 14 for a tour of the state in the interest of the fair.

Franklin T. Griffith, chairman of the managing committee has asked Mayor Baker to take full charge of the campaign to be waged in Portland and throughout the state in the interest of the exposition and the mayor has accepted the charge. As the opening gun of the campaign he has arranged for consist of 30 cars, carrying approximately 150 persons, representing all the civic organizations of the city.

ORGANIZATIONS LINE UP
Tuesday the Chamber of Commerce, Realty Board and Lions club pledged support to the movement. Today other civic organizations are being lined up by the mayor.

The route will take the fair boosters through to the central and eastern parts of the state, returning along the Columbia river highway. Included in the cities to be visited are: Salem, Albany, Corvallis, Eugene, Roseburg, Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland, Klamath Falls, Bend, Prineville, Pendleton, Echo, Stanfield, Hermiston, Arlington, Moro, Wasco, The Dalles, Moser, Hood River and Cascade Locks. Stops also will be made at Crater Lake, the Gorge hotel and many smaller towns of the state. Portland will be reached on the return trip August 28.

The state fair board has been invited to join the caravan, in the interest of this year's state fair.

ALL DOUBTS DISPELLED
The primary purpose of the caravan is to dispell all doubts concerning the holding of the exposition, Mayor Baker said. Reports from the finance committee show a generous response from Portland capital, insuring abundant backing for the enterprise, the mayor declared.

The caravan will be equipped with a radio outfit and news of the progress of the autoists and the receptions given them will be broadcast over the state. It also is planned to have an airplane act as advance guard for the caravan.

Pierce Addresses Big Audience at Open Air Meeting

Eugene, Aug. 2.—Walter M. Pierce, Democratic nominee for governor, addressed a large open air meeting here last night, held in connection with a tractor demonstration. He devoted his time largely to a discussion of national affairs and the international situation. The threatened collapse in Germany, he said, would not materially affect the United States. He touched only briefly on state affairs.

Thursday Mr. Pierce will address a mammoth gathering at the annual Lane county grocers and butchers' picnic near Forest Grove. This picnic always attracts thousands from all parts of the county.

Malin and Shasta View Projects Are To Be Developed

Klamath Falls, Aug. 2.—Irrigation and resultant development of the 1000 acres of rich land in the Malin and Shasta View districts of Klamath county is seen in the signing of a contract between the districts and the government, and the voting of bond issues of $100,000 for the Malin district and $120,000 for the Shasta View district. Funds derived from sale of the bonds will be used for installation of a pumping plant and construction of ditches.

New Magnavox Is Added to Radio Set

With the addition Monday of a new magnavox to the radio receiving set at St. Johns police station, one of the finest receiving outfits in the city is in operation there. For several months Lieutenant R. L. Crane and his men have been working with the set and adding to the equipment.

Many Tourists See Deschutes Forest

Bend, Aug. 2.—Extensive use of the Deschutes national forest by campers is shown in the fact that 60 fire permits were issued by the forest office here during the first 10 days that permits have been required, while at least as many have been sold by rangers.

Forest Road Work To Be Continued

Bend, Aug. 2.—Improvement of roads in the national forests of Oregon and construction of new ones, will continue next year, though perhaps on a slightly smaller scale than this year, according to Forest Examiner A. H. Brundage, who is here looking over the work being done in the Deschutes forest.

STATE PROVIDES EMERGENCY FUND

Salem, Aug. 2.—The state emergency board, in session here Tuesday, allowed a total of $19,138.42 for various state departments where deficiencies existed. No action was taken on the proposal which had to do with wild animal bounty payment.

For the payment of traveling expenses and hotel bills of circuit judges, $2500 was allowed by the board; $5000 was granted to reimburse circuit judges for traveling expenses in districts of more than one county; for payment of general and contingent expenses of the state board of condonation, $1500; for defraying office and traveling expenses of the board of higher curricula, $300; for payment of the state's portion of transportation of convicts sent to the state penitentiary, $2500; for payment of governor's salary, $4,905.37; for payment of expenses of public service commission recall election, $750; for general and contingent expenses of state department, $5,500; for repayment of premiums on surety bonds in treasury department, $125.65.

P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon, and Colin V. Dymont, dean of the college of liberal arts, who appeared before the board to explain the university's needs resulting from its recent $80,000 fire, were asked to place the matter before the school's board of regents and to bring it before the emergency board at a later meeting.

GERVAIS WOMAN DIES

Gervais, Aug. 2.—Mrs. Edward LaFlemme, a pioneer, aged 78 years, died Monday at her home one mile east of Gervais. She is survived by one son, Charles LaFlemme, Brooks, and two daughters, Mrs. Al. Isham, Brooks, and Mrs. Joseph Wagnier, of Gervais. The funeral will be held Wednesday.

Woman Complains Of Being Disturbed By Young Musicians

The proverbial moaning saxophone, neighborhood nuisance, has taken a back seat.

For noxious nocturnal noises there is nothing like the twang of discordant banjo strings. Mrs. F. K. Hutchinson, No. 1071 East Ninth street, complained to the police before daylight Tuesday morning. She said she couldn't sleep because boys in the neighborhood, musically inclined, but not yet really musical, plucked away persistently until the wee hours.

Patrolman G. E. Reed answered the call, but the straining had ceased when he arrived. He advised Mrs. Hutchinson to see the city attorney if the midnight melodies continue.

A new use for Lux-dishwashing

Thousands of women are washing their dishes this way—and ridding their hands for good of that three-times-a-day-in-the-dishpan-look

INTO the dishpan three times every day—washing with harsh soap—naturally your hands redden and grow coarse.

Don't let them show tell-tale traces of dishwashing.

Wash your dishes with Lux. It gets the china sparklingly clean and it preserves the softness, the delicate texture of your skin.

Women themselves discovered this use for Lux. Women who for years had been getting such satisfaction from Lux for silks and woollens tried it for washing dishes.

Thousands of letters have come in to us saying that Lux suds leave your china beautifully clean and at no cost to your hands, and asking us why we never mentioned it.

Lux contains no free alkali or any other harmful ingredient. It won't redden or roughen the hands. The Lux suds are as mild and pure as a fine toilet soap.

Start using Lux today—just one tablespoon to a pan. A single package does 44 dishwashings—all the dishes for more than two weeks. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.
