GOODING OPENS BITTER ATTACK ON FRANK MUNSEY

Washington, Aug. 4 .- (I. N. S.)-Bitterly condemning Frank A. Munsey,

New York publisher of a number of great metropolitan newspapers, Senator Gooding, Republican of Idaho, chairman of the senate tariff "bloc," today charged opposition to the Mc-Cumber tariff bill was caused principally by attempts of American inter-national bankers to liquidate the $400,-000,000 estate of Archduke Frederick of Austria.

Gooding charged the New York Her-ald, Boston Herald, Chicago Tribune, Cleveland Plain Dealer, St. Louis Globe-Democrat, New York Times, New York Post and Minneapolis Tribune were attempting to sell America to European manufacturers and merchants. He declared these papers were "interested in the defeat of a protective tariff."

RESOLUTION REJECTED

Immediately upon the conclusion of Gooding's speech, Senator Calder, chairman of the senate committee on contingent expenses, reported adversely the Gooding resolution calling for a senatorial investigation of the charges that senators are financially interested in the enactment of the pending tariff

Two attempts to obtain immediate consideration of Gooding's resolution were blocked by Senator Lodge, the Republican leader. Lodge first objected to a request for unanimous consent to take up the resolution made by Senator Harrison, Democrat of Mississippi Harrison then moved to take it up, but Lodge again objected. His objection was sustained by Senator Cummins, Republican of Iowa, the president pro

BESENTS ATTACK

Gooding charged Munsey with being back of propaganda circulated against the McCumber bill and declared it would be easy to understand why Munsey turned Democrat when the mask is torn off his foreign connection. The bloc chairman contended Democratic oposition to the bill was "fair and just" and expressed a "high regard" for the American press as a whole. "I have no quarrel with Democratic newspapers who believe protection is unconstitutional and immoral," Gooding began. "They have a right to condemn the tariff bill as long as they tell the truth.

"There are some papers who have shown a willingness to destroy a senator's good name to further their own interests. Mr. Munsey attacked me authority here and other senators in the columns of his New York Herald. CURIOSITY AROUSED

"This viciousness excited my curiosity and I propose to investigate this man Munsey who posed as a great American for years. "Mr. Munsey's attitude toward the Republican party and the present tariff and the agricultural bloc is easily understood when his great interest in foreign countries are unmasked.'

Gooding then declared the General Real Estate & Trust company had been organized in Paris last September to take over and liquidate the $400,000 .-000 estate of Archduke Frederick of Austria.

Gooding charged Munsey and the "international bankers" with having waged so desperate a propaganda that the "tariff bloc alone was able to save the McCumber bill from defeat."

A committee representing the radio radesmen of this city, appointed re-ently, met last night at the Chamber tradesmen of this city, appointed recently, met last night at the Chamber of Commerce to discuss the advisability of forming a trade organization and declared unanimously on such a policy. Short talks were made on the subject by all of the eight representative committeemen present, and all of them could see where benefit would derive from such an organization.

The committee believed that while it would be wise to affiliate with the California and Washington associations, it would be inadvisable to hook up too closely with these organizations, but it would be better to have a separate organization with a separate name. The committee will urge the election of a president not affiliated with any of the branches of the radio trades, vice presidents representing the manufacturers, jobbers, retallers and jobber manufacturers, and a secretary-treasurer.

Fight Continues Against Salmon Fishing Measure

The salmon fishing and propagation measure initiated by G. G. Greene of tive and one was spoiled. Oregon City will find its way on the GAIN AND LOSS state ballot in November only after legal means to prevent such procedure shall have been exhausted. It will be recalled that in the argument against the bill filed by Carl Shoemaker, secretary of the state fish commission, Greene's motives' in sponsoring the measure were openly attacked. It was charged that Greene, for a consideration, offered to reveal to the fish canners wherein there were enough signatures illegally on the petitions to invalidate the measure. Thus it is not expected that the fish commission will allow the measure to proceed without recourse to the courts.
