GRAIN GROWERS

The addition of the Japanese liner to the en route tonnage for grain brings the list on the board at the Merchants Exchange up to 10. This amount of tonnage is represented by three exporters, the Northern Grain & Warehouse company, Kerr, Gifford & Co. and the Northwest Wheat Growers' association. Other exporters re-fuse to give out charters, RAVNANGER WILL LOAD LUMBER ON COLUMBIA RIVER Ravnanger, a Norwegian steamship 904 tons, has been taken on a six months' time charger for lumber, op-tion three ports. It is reported that she will load on the Columbia river for Halifax. Charter calls for delivery and redelivery in the United States The vessel is now en route from th

Canadian port to the Pacific side.

Lumber trade in all directions is firmer. It is particularly heavy in the intercoastal trade. The big deliveries are now at New York. During the las month Halifax has been taking som During the past year three steam ships of the Nielsen line were operate in the lumber trade out of Portland principally to the Orient. The time ha run out and the steamships have bee taken by Kerr, Gifford & Co., for gra loading for the United Kingdom. Exporters have a number of charters lived for new crop loading, but are slow to give them out. On the board slow to give them out. On the board at the Merchants Exchange only the Kidnapers Send Northern Grain & Warehouse company and Kerr, Gifford show as having tonnage en route.

The first full cargo to load will be the Keranton, a British steamship un-der charter to Kerr, Gifford & Co. She will start loading about the middle of

Warning Note to Hubbard Woman

Oregon City, Aug. 5.—"If you knew what you are facing you would shrick what you are facing you would shrick with horror?"

This was the warning, written on a piece of note paper, that was pushed under the door of the home of Mrs. M. J. McKilop of Hubbard several weeks ago, prior to an attempt by an unidentified man to kidnap her. Details of the case became known yesterday, when the matter was presented to the authorities.

About five days ago, the sheriff was told, while Mrs. McKilop was on her way to her chicken house, she was way to her chicken house, she was way to her chicken house, she was was to her chicken house, she was the warning, written on the Blue Bird, Sunday, August 6, 1922.
