

ARREST SHERIFF, CHARGE OF AIDING BOOZE RING MADE

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 9.—Thomas Baker, sheriff of Ferry county, and three alleged associates, were arrested Tuesday afternoon by Sheriff Deputy Washburn, charged with conspiracy to defraud the United States Government by aiding rum runners. It is claimed they had a plan to assist in the possession of liquor to transport it through Ferry county. Federal officers from Spokane and Seattle made the arrests. Cline Ledgerwood, former deputy sheriff under Barker, and alleged head of the gang engineering the scheme, escaped over the hills and is sought. Roy Powers of Danvers, Ore., clerk in a Republic bank, was arrested Tuesday in company with Sheriff Barker. Ledgerwood and associates beat and robbed them in June of $500 in cash and 20 cases of whiskey after they had paid for protection.

According to the story told by Frankel and Dapper, the Ferry county sheriff and his associates entered into an agreement with them to provide protection from Grand Fork, British Columbia, to Republic, where the whiskey being smuggled into Washington was put on a Great Northern train for Spokane. They made one trip across the line and returned for a second cargo. On their second trip they were to have been set upon and beaten with clubs by Ledgerwood and associates. Leroy C. Lyle, federal prohibition director at Washington, George Ide, chief of customs intelligence with headquarters in Seattle, and deputies from the United States marshal's office participated in the raid. A dozen deputies from the several departments worked with them and the arrests came as the result of joint cooperation between the several federal officers following a conference in the federal building Saturday.

Mixed Jury Will Try Case Against Alleged Klansmen

Los Angeles, Aug. 9.—A jury of four women and eight men to try 37 alleged klansmen on charges following the fatal Ingelwood raid was completed an accepted by state and defense Wednesday. The case was adjourned until Wednesday morning, when taking of evidence will begin. The lengthy indictment against the 37 was read to them immediately following the completion of the jury. The fatal Ingelwood incident of the day was when Mrs. A. H. Ross, colored, was called to the jury box. The state's counsel asked her if she was for or against the klans. She replied: "Against."

Second Mortgage Loans Advocated; Would Alter Law

Modifications in Oregon statutes which would permit loans on second mortgage security by building and loan associations was recommended at a meeting of the Portland Realty board at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night by Samuel Stern of Philadelphia, secretary of 10 building loan associations in that city. The laws of Pennsylvania permit building and loan associations to accept second mortgage security, and the result is highly beneficial to home buyers, according to Stern.

Insane Man Causes Reign of Terror

Roseburg, Aug. 9.—Residents of Edenbower, north of Roseburg, were terrorized Monday night by the appearance of an insane man who attempted to enter a house. The sheriff was called and took the man into custody. He was pronounced insane by Roseburg doctors and admitted having been in the Stellancom asylum in Washington. He is being held pending word from that institution.

Paving Is Rushed On Pacific Highway

Roseburg, Aug. 9.—Paving work on the Pacific highway between Roseburg and Winchester is being pushed to the limit, and it is expected to complete the work by September 8, or earlier. It will be the last of the highway paving before the road is open to travel, as the concrete pavement must set 28 days. Difficulty in securing cement is responsible for some of the delay.

Sailor Falls From Schooner, Drowned

Aberdeen, Wash., Aug. 9.—Arne Ludvigson, 35, a sailor on the schooner Jewett, fell from a rope he was descending Monday night and was drowned.

GOVERNOR NOT TO GO Salem, Aug. 9.—Demands of his office will make it impossible for Governor Clatsop to accept an invitation to join the 1923 exposition caravan on its tour of the state, leaving Portland Saturday, he said.

Passengers Shaken Up When Switch Engine Hits Train

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 9.—(U. P.)—One man was hurt and a score were shaken up this morning when a switch engine ran through an open switch at Hilliard, near here, early today and crashed into the Great Northern east-bound limited.

May Condemn City Lighting System

Roseburg, Aug. 9.—The city council has authorized the city attorney to take the proper steps toward condemning the city electric light system. It also is proposed that the city connect with the high power line of the California-Oregon Power company, which parallels the city.

W. E. BROWN, VET CIRCUS MAN, IS KILLED BY AUTO

Pendleton, Aug. 9.—W. E. Brown, 76 years old, for many years an acrobat with leading shows of the country, was instantly killed here Tuesday when the automobile in which he was riding with John Beckwith skidded and pinned him under it in three feet of water near Barkhart, on the Columbia river highway, a few miles from here. Young Beckwith declared that the light car was traveling at a rate of between 25 and 30 miles an hour when it skidded and hit the rocks at the side of the road. Brown was thrown clear of the car but before he could make his escape the car had landed on him, according to Beckwith.

No Hope Held Out For Poison Victims

Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 9.—No hope is entertained for the recovery of George Barnhart and his son, Lloyd, members of a Starbuck, Wash. family, brought here last week suffering from ptomaine poisoning. Both the father and the eldest son are completely paralyzed in the throat and cannot swallow food. Neal, 15, the youngest son, is showing some improvement. The mother died Friday night. Home canned asparagus, not bologna sausage as reported, is now blamed.

SEAPLANE TURNS TURTLE, 3 ESCAPE

The Dalles, Aug. 9.—Three men in a hydroplane from Portland narrowly escaped with their lives shortly before 6 o'clock Tuesday night when the boat turned turtle in the Columbia river just after it had descended to the water. In the plane were Vernon Ayres Portland; Vernon Bookwater, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and Cecil Thomas, who recently returned from Alaska.

Daily Boat Service Up River Started

The Dalles, Aug. 9.—Daily steamboat service is again in effect between Portland and this city. The steamer, Iralda, operated by the Hosford transportation company of Portland, arrived on her schedule Monday night, running opposite the Madeline, which docked again Tuesday night. The Hosford company recently took over the line, following the chartering of the J. N. Teal by the O. W. R. & N. company for Snake river grain service.

INDIAN ACCUSED OF SLAYING STARR

The Dalles, Aug. 9.—William George, Yakima Indian, 33 years old, was bound over to the grand jury here late Tuesday without bail on a charge of murder in the first degree. The action followed a hearing in which all the details of the alleged slaying of Jim Starr at the hands of fellow tribesmen, on the beach a few hundred feet below the business district of The Dalles, were dramatically re-enacted. For the first time Tuesday, District Attorney Francis V. Galloway learned exactly when the alleged murder was committed, through the testimony of Ed Sam, a young brave residing near Underwood. Sam said Starr was slain just at sundown on the evening of June 27. The body was found floating about three weeks later by swimmers at the municipal dip.

It is said that Jim Starr's widow personally sought out the police, told them the story and asked for the punishment of the murderers of her spouse. When the body was taken from the river it was hurriedly prepared for burial, and the widow hauled it to Celilo in a wagon for burial. District Attorney Galloway said it will be necessary to exhume the body and examine it. At the time it was thought that Starr, who had been released a day or two previously from jail after serving a term for bigamy, had fallen in the river and was drowned.
