

SOCIETY

Reception for Misses Wilson Mrs. Delaplane Brilliant Affair Country Home

A NOTABLE affair of the week was the reception given at Vancouver barracks by Mrs. Richard M. Blatchford complimenting Mrs. Channing E. Delaplane, who will leave this week for Camp Benning, Ga., where Lieutenant Colonel Delaplane has been transferred. Not only members of the army set during the afternoon to bid Mrs. Delaplane goodbye but many prominent matrons and maids of Portland social set motored over to honor this charming member of the army set. The rooms were profusely decorated in greens and varied United States and presented a lovely appearance. At the attractively arranged tea table Mrs. William H. Inglis and Miss Trotter presided. Those who assisted were Mrs. Bryant E. Moore, Mrs. William F. Rhem, Mrs. Horace K. Heath, Mrs. Keith B. Wise, Miss Jeannette Dentler, Mrs. William P. Currier and Mrs. Jules L. Blachoff. Over 150 guests called during the receiving hours.

Miss Gertrude Hoebel, assisted by her brother, Mr. Ralph Hoebel, entertained a large number of friends at a delightful musical and literary evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hoebel Monday. A number of the prominent members of the literary and musical circle were present and took part in the evening's entertainment. Mr. Anthony Kuwert gave several readings of original poems. Mr. Francis Richter played a number of piano selections, among them being several of his own compositions. Miss Hoebel entertained with a group of songs written by Mr. Richter and dedicated to her. Others who gave musical selections were Mr. Lawrence Woodman, Mr. M. A. Howard and Mr. Wayland Cornish.

The Royal family held its annual reunion August 8 at the home of Mrs. Della Royal Oberg at her country home "Wyldeewood." Over 58 members of the family were in attendance. The day's program commenced with the entire family attending the morning service of Centenary Wilbur M. E. church, a yearly custom, the founder of the church being Rev. William Royal. During the afternoon a history of the Royal family was given which has been compiled by Mrs. Ella Royal of Washington, D. C. who was present. According to her researches the Royal family came to America with William Penn and were present when he made his famous treaty with the Indians. They are the founders of Camden, N. J. in 1688.

A birthday dinner was given by Mrs. Jessie Crosby, No. 1228 Burrage street, in honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband, Captain W. D. Crosby, who attained his 53d birthday August 5. The home was prettily decorated with golden glow, and the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Willis McSwan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carlson, William O. Carlson and Mrs. Marie Havermaile. Captain Crosby, who is a Civil war veteran, has resided in Portland 47 years. He received many messages of congratulations from pioneer families and friends.

Miss Vella Winner, who has been absent in California for four months, was the honor guest at an attractive luncheon given at the University club by a number of the prominent women of Portland. The affair was in the nature of a welcome home party. Miss Winner received an ornamental lamp as a token of appreciation from a number of her friends. At the tables, decorated with varied flowers, were seated 100 guests.

Miss Annie Blanch Shelby, who left Portland three weeks ago, en route to San Francisco, is at present sojourning at Medford, the guest of Mrs. Frank Gilchrist Owen. Previous to this she visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Waite, on North Deer creek, near Roseburg.

Mrs. Miriam Maryland Brase, prominent Los Angeles clubwoman, arrived by motor from the south Tuesday. She was accompanied by her little son Lawrence and her mother, Mrs. N. L. Mulren. They will be the house guests of Miss Mary Keating at her home on Tillamook street.

Mrs. C. A. Malbouef and her daughter, Miss Charlotte Malbouef, returned from San Francisco Saturday. Miss Malbouef will return to California in about two weeks to enter finishing school.

Captain and Mrs. Maylon E. Scott and son, Maylon Jr., have taken the Wierack cottage at the beach for the month of August. They have as their house guests the Misses Clara, Eva and Lucile Scott.

Miss Charlotte Baskerville of Winnipeg, Manitoba, was honored with a luncheon by Mrs. Alice Anderson of Irvington. Miss Baskerville will return soon to her home in Canada.

Mr. Clarence Reams of Seattle, and his niece, Miss Rowen Gale of Medford, are the house guests of Judge and Mrs. Walter H. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar P. Piper and Miss Helen Stover and Miss Constance Piper motored to the beach for a few days last week.

Miss Adalyn Mayer has gone to Seattle, where she is the guest of the Misses Dunne for a week.

Miss Lucile Delaplane has gone to Berkeley, where she will enter the University of California.

THE "Peacock"
Shoe Salon
287 ALDER ST.

Exquisite Footwear
for Women Only

"PEACOCK SHOES" portray Fashion's newest and most favored styles—and at prices, remarkably modest.

Loraine
BLACK SATIN,
Brocade
Quarter .... $8.50

"Fontenelle"
BLACK SATIN,
Brocade
Quarter .... $9.50

PATENT LEATHER,
Brocade
Quarter .... $9.50

Onyx Hose
in all the new shades, including rose beige, plain beige, gray, rust and camel.

Special Attention to Mail
Orders

"The Peacock"
Shoe Salon
287 Alder, near Fifth
Next to Yeon Bldg.

The Rose Baby Shop

Baby's
First Clothes

Formerly Baby's Boudoir
Complete Layette, 67 pieces, for $33.45, 51
pieces are ready for use, 16 of the little wearables are stamped or semi-made ready for you to finish. Every button and strand of thread is included, not one bit of waste materials, no paper patterns and no scraps.

388 Morrison Street—Near Tenth Street

At the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. Morton of St. Helena, tea recently by Mrs. Raymond E. W. kins. The rooms were decorated garden flowers in a most attractive manner. Mrs. C. G. Newcastle, Sr., and Mrs. J. Coulson have poured. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Richa Wellington, Mrs. C. Stewart Menel Oakland, Cal., came up to attend the wedding.

Among the affairs given for Mrs. J. A. Routledge of Los Angeles, was the Sherman Clay & Co.

DIMINUTIVE! The Strohber diminutive piano is ideal for schoolroom use because the teacher can see right over it. Yet, it is a beautifully made, thoroughly practical musical instrument, with ample knee room for adults. The price, $350. It also comes as a player for $550. Very attractive terms. Just what many schools have been seeking.

Sherman Clay & Co.

Sixth and Morrison Streets
PORTLAND
Opposite Postoffice
SEATTLE • TACOMA • SPOKANE

CLIP THIS AND MAIL to nearest Sherman, Clay & Co. Store:

Without obligation on my part, please send me your booklet describing the Strohber Diminutive Piano for schoolroom use.

Name _____
Address _____

Special Offerings

Stationery
Hurd's damask, 33c per box.
24 sheets and 24 envelopes to the box. A thoroughly satisfactory writing paper.
Valley Green, 33c per box, 2 boxes for 60c
This is a splendid box containing 48 envelopes, 24 cards, and 24 sheets of paper.
Whiting's English Vellum, 68c per box.
24 sheets of large flat paper suitable for either ladies' or gentlemen's use. 24 sheets and 24 envelopes to the box.
Hurd's Verona Vellum.
Another fine Hurd creation with 24 envelopes and 24 large sheets to the box. Very special at 68c per box.

For the Children
The newly arrived Ullman Paint Boxes are bound to prove a revelation for young artists. These fine boxes range in price from $1 up to $5, and they are the most complete, the most instructive, and generally most worth-while paint set yet put on the market. The boxes contain a variety of subjects from ordinary color books to cut paper dolls and photograveure prints which are beautiful when hand colored. An attractive range in price, $1 to $5 per set.

These are kodak days—bring your work to
PHOTO PHIL

The J.K. Gill Co.
THIRD AND ALDER STREETS

MRS. LLOYD BATES was a charming hostess at a large tea at Waverley Country club recently, honoring prominent out-of-town visitors. Miss Caroline Montague, popular bride-elect, who has set September 7 as her wedding day. The Misses Mary and Julia Wilson, who entertained at a farewell tea complimenting Miss Jean Starkweather, at the country home of their mother, Mrs. A. King Wilson, at Wilsonia.

150 Guests at Farewell Tea At Army Post

OVER 150 guests from Portland and the army post attended the large reception given for Mrs. Channing E. Delaplane by Mrs. Richard M. Blatchford at Vancouver barracks, Friday afternoon. The affair was given as a farewell to Mrs. Delaplane, who will leave soon for Camp Benning, Ga., where Lieutenant Colonel Delaplane has been transferred, and was an opportunity for her many friends, both in the army set and local society circles, to bid her von voyage. The rooms were lovely in their decoration of mid-summer flowers and greenery. At the tea table presided Mrs. William L. Inglis and Miss Trotter. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Bryant E. Moore, Mrs. William F. Rhem, Mrs. Horace K. Heath, Mrs. Keith B. Wise, Miss Jeannette Dentler, Mrs. William P. Currier and Mrs. Jules L. Blachoff. Miss Katherine Hoyt and her house guest, Miss Lorraine Goodrich are at Neah-kah-nie for the balance of August. Mrs. James Forrest Cobb entertained with an afternoon of bridge at the home of her mother, Mrs. George M. Reed, Thursday afternoon. The affair was given in honor of Miss Marvel Turnure, a popular bride-elect. Among those who enjoyed Mrs. Cobb's hospitality were Mrs. John Mortimer Bruhn, Mrs. Wilson Coffey, Mrs. Richard Ransom, Mrs. Catlin Wolfard, Miss Nancy Holt, Miss Dorothy McGuire, Mrs. Kenneth F. Reed and Mrs. Clymer Noble.

Miss Elizabeth McGau entertained at tea for Captain and Mrs. C. H. Mahlove of Manila, P. I., recently at the Sign of the Bow Bell tea shop. Other guests were Miss Elsie Gill, Miss Marie Silverthorn, Miss Gladys Nelson, Miss Margaret D. Crook, Miss Zelpha L. Dempsey and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Blohm.

Mrs. Frederick A. Nitchy entertained with an informal bridge tea at her home Tuesday afternoon honoring her house guest, Mrs. Fay Sims, of Salt Lake City, who left for her home Thursday. Three tables were in play.

Miss Lucile McCormick, whose engagement was recently announced, will leave the first of the week for a visit to Crater Lake. She has recently been the house guest of Mrs. Charles A. Fertig at her home in Warrenton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Spencer and their house guests, Major and Mrs. J. J. Phillips, enjoyed a motor trip to the beaches. Mrs. Frank E. Hart left last week for a fortnight's visit at Ecila.

Dinner Dance at Waverley Club Much Enjoyed

ANOTHER of the successful and thoroughly enjoyable dinner dances was given at Waverley Country club Saturday evening. The cool weather made dancing a most delightful pastime and many members took advantage of this affair to entertain their friends. A number of no host dinner parties proceeded the affair. Mrs. Edward Clark III entertained with a charming little dinner party. Miss Elsie Young invited a number of the members of the younger set as her guests. Among the others who entertained were Mrs. R. F. Powers and Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Biberback.

Judge and Mrs. Walter H. Evans, the Misses Mary and Alice Evans and Walter H. Evans Jr., have returned from a 10 days fishing and camping trip up the Mackenzie river.

Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood and her children will leave for a visit of some weeks at Gearhart soon. Arrangements for the highway and sightseeing trips have been made by the committee in charge so that the visitors attending the Episcopal convention may have a proper view of the city and surrounding country. A series of two-hour tours about the city have been planned, which will take in numerous points of interest. Each car will be marked with a sticker that it may be easily recognized as an official car of the convention. The committee has sent out a call to all people interested whether members of the Episcopal church or not to donate their car during this period. Mrs. Walter E. Bliss at East 55th and Mrs. J. Hunt Hendrickson at Main 1465 are in charge of listing the cars.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Williamson of Peoria, Illinois, who are passing the summer in Portland, are occupying the home of Dr. E. H. Pence in Irvington. Dr. Williamson is supplying the pulpit of Westminster Presbyterian church during the absence of Dr. Pence.

Mrs. John Forbes who has been the house guest of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gordon Forbes, will return to Santa Barbara about September 1. During her stay in Portland she has been extensively entertained.

Mrs. Frank L. Knight entertained Thursday afternoon with a small tea in honor of Miss Faye Steinmetz of New York, who is visiting relatives here, and Miss Rosina Beach of San Jose, the guest of Miss Florence Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Zan and their daughter, Miss Alice V. Zan, have returned from a motor trip to the beaches.