Arrangements For Flowers for Meeting Made

AN IMPORTANT meeting of the members of the general convention flower committee and all others willing to donate flowers for the use of the committee, has been called for 2 o'clock Monday in room A of the Central library by Mrs. John Latta, chairman.

One of the important items of business to be considered will be the working out of a plan to collect the flowers daily. Arrangements have been made for quarters at the Auditorium, where 50 women will daily receive and distribute roses and other flowers to the delegates.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett has taken charge of the decoration of the main room in the Auditorium; Mrs. Hunt Lewis, vice chairman; Mrs. J. M. Knight, secretary; Mrs. George Good, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor, Mrs. Roger W. Hastings, Mrs. K. F. Hughes, Mrs. John Greenwood, Mrs. F. S. Strickland, Mrs. M. F. Fenton, Mrs. Charles Gray, Mrs. J. Alden Lee, Mrs. St. Clara Morris, Mrs. H. E. Wood, Mrs. Wells Gilbert, Miss Ella DeHart, Miss Frances Woodward, Mrs. J. H. La Morce, Miss Percival, Mrs. F. P. Warren, Mrs. D. Z. Irwin, Mrs. George W. Hoyt, Mrs. Devereaux, Miss Ella Stevens and Miss Ella Brown.

Anyone unable to attend this meeting, but who desires to assist the committee, is requested to notify Mrs.

Latta, No. 808 Lovejoy street, telephone Automatic 524-27.

The deaconess committee is also hard at work under the direction of Mrs. J. F. McIndoe, president of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Marks parish. These women have arranged to entertain the deaconesses who come to Portland, for the first time in the history of the church. St. Marks parish house, which is already equipped with apartments, will be refitted into comfortable living quarters for about 20 deaconesses. The large parish house room on the main floor will be converted into a living room, where the deaconesses may all gather at one time with their friends, and still not be crowded. If more deaconesses arrive than can be cared for in the parish house, arrangements will be made to entertain them in private homes.

September 14 will be observed as deaconess day, when corporate communion will be celebrated at 7:30 a. m. in St. Marks church. Breakfast will be served in the parish house at 9:30 a. m., and in the afternoon an official conference will be held. One evening during the convention a large reception will be given to the visiting deaconesses, but the time and place of this event has not been determined.

Members of the deaconess committee include Mrs. James F. McIndoe, chairman; Mrs. John S. Parke, Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mrs. Edward Baumeister, Miss Janette Perkins and Deaconess Noles of Seattle.

Mrs. H. R. Albee has as her house guest her sister, Miss Marjorie Lewis, who is connected with the home economics division of the extension work of the Pennsylvania State college.

Mrs. Albee recently entertained with a delightful tea for Miss Lewis and others have given several charming functions in her honor.
