

PENINSULA WINS ANNUAL CONTEST OF PLAYGROUNDS

Bronze Plaque Awarded to Same Youngsters for Second Time; Forestry Children Are Second

Peninsula playground won for the second time the bronze plaque of the Spaulding company, at the annual track meet of the city playground youngsters, held Saturday. Presentation was made by C. F. Keyser, superintendent of parks. Should Peninsula win the cup for a third year, it would pass into its ownership.

Forestry children scored second with 49 points to their credit, while Columbia park came third.

Almost 1400 children participated in the track meet, held under ideal weather conditions. The girls' events took place in the morning and the boys' in the afternoon.

700 GIRLS PARTICIPATE

Peninsula park scored first in the girls' meet in the morning when 700 girls of all ages participated in the seven events, with a total of 1071 points. Mount Tabor came second with 38 points and Laurelhurst third with a score of 27. Other playgrounds made the following scores: Columbia, 24; Kenilworth, 25; Sellwood, 23; Mount Scott, 20; Vernon, 15; Irving, 15; Forestry, 11; Johnson creek, 11; Lents, 11; Irvington, 4; Brooklyn, 2; North Park, 1. Dunfiway, Terwilliger and Washington also participated.

Among the individual records made was that of Gladys Estaman of group 5, consisting of girls more than 18 years of age, who won two firsts for Peninsula. Gladys Quaring and Vivian Lamoreaux, both in group 4, also won two firsts for Peninsula. In group 3, Olive Tallman made two firsts for Sellwood. LaVern Carr in group 2, made two firsts for Peninsula, and in group 1, composed of girls under 8 years of age, little Louisa Perry won two firsts for Columbia.

LEONA SWINGS IN GROUP 3

Laurelhurst, made a high jump of feet 4 inches, and LaVern Carr of Peninsula jumped 4 feet 2 inches.

MANY EVENTS INCLUDED

Included in the events were a 50-yard dash, a 60-yard hurdle, target throw, baseball throw for distance, 50-yard relay, high jump and broad jump. A slightly smaller number of boys participated in the meet. Peninsula scored first with the boys as with the girls, but it was the boys who brought Forestry playground to the front with a score of 78 to stack upon the 11 made by the girls.

Officials in charge of the meet included Mrs. Elsie Centro, supervisor of playgrounds; Hugh Boyd of Washington high school; George McCreedy, Vern Cooley, George McCrew, Mrs. Grace DuBois, swimming instructor at Multnomah club; Mrs. Jack Cody, Miss Eleanor Spall, scorer; Vera Wind-nagle, track coach; E. Herrigan, judge of the finish, and John Murphy, 1920 national high jump champion and member of the 1920 Olympic team, who had charge of the high jump.

39,000 PUPILS WILL REGISTER FOR TERM

(Continued From Page One)

position of attendance officer, and the history vacancy will be filled by Helen M. Manny, one of the newly elected teachers.

All the special activities will be resumed this fall. Miss Edna Waples will have charge of boys' science, science and domestic art courses, under the head of supervisor of domestic economy.

NEW BOOKS

Elementary school children starting out in language or grammar work will purchase new books, the McFadden texts, instead of the Aldine books now in use, although those who have the old books will continue to use them until the completion of the course. Other elementary texts will remain the same. High school students will have more new books to buy, although they, too will use their old books until they have finished them. The new high school text books are as follows: Business Speller, High School Word Book, Sandwich & Bacon, D. C. Heath & Co., 64 cents; Business Arithmetic, Sutton & Lorne, Allyn & Bacon, publishers, $1.20; Business Correspondence, Commercial Letters, Opdycke & Drew, Henry Holt & Co., $1.75; Dictation Exercises, Gregg Publishing company, $1.50; Spanish Grammar, First Spanish Course, Hills & Ford, D. C. Heath & Co., $1.50; History of the United States, Beard and Beard, Macmillan company, $1.95; English Literature, Long, Ginn & Co., $1.65; Public Speaking, Lockwood & Thorpe, Benjamin H. Sanborn company, $1.40; Latin, Cicero's Oration, Gunnison, Hartley, Silver, Burdett & Co., $1.54; Latin, Virgil, Fairclough & Brown, Benjamin H. Sanborn company, $2.08; Latin Grammar, Bennett, Allyn & Bacon, $1.40; Advanced Algebra, Hawkes, Ginn & Co., $1.88; Plane Geometry, Durrell-Arnold, Charles E. Merrill company, $1.40; Solid Geometry, Durrell-Arnold, Charles E. Merrill company, $1.24; General Science, Van Buskirk & Smith, Houghton-Mifflin company, $1.50; Botany, Bergen & Caldwell, Ginn & Co., $1.77; Writing, Wesco.

NEW BUCKMAN SCHOOL

The new Buckman school at East 17th and Pine streets will open with 16 rooms for use. These will house the first four grades from the old Buckman and Hawthorne schools. The higher grades will attend classes in

Automatic Refrigeration

Capacity machines, 200 lbs., 500 lbs., 1000 lbs., 2000 lbs., 5000 lbs. These machines excel any machine manufactured in workmanship, economy of operation and services rendered. Requires no attention. No belts. No visible flywheel. No fouling of gas. Occupy very small space. Perfect automatic control. Particularly adapted for homes, hotel markets, etc. Consultation free.

Bell Ice Machine and Refrigerator Co.

63 East 8th St. Near Oak
PORTLAND, OREGON
Phone East 5912

GLEEFUL KIDDIES DISPLAY PROWESS

Man 108, Wife 106, Keep Up Hard Work

Abrams, Wis., Aug. 19.—(I. N. S.)—Mrs. James Bell, 106 years old, milks seven cows daily for exercise and her husband, 99 years old, ploughs for the same reason. It became known today when the young couple celebrated their 89th wedding anniversary.

the old Hawthorne building and in eight portables on the new Buckman site.

NEW ROOMS BUILT

Two new rooms are being built in the basement of the old Girls Polytechnic school, since Miss Anna Arnold, principal, announced that she had two teachers for whom there were no class rooms. Jefferson high school will have six or eight new class rooms in its basement, through the removal of the heating plant to the yard and the remodeling of the cafeteria. James John high school students will be cared for in the old building until the February term, when the new Roosevelt high school will be ready for occupancy.

High school enrollment is estimated at about 10,000. Last June there were 175 eighth grade graduates, and according to precedent, about 90 per cent of these will enter high school.

Extensive Tests of New Phone System Made by Operators

Elaborate tests of all new telephone equipment, which will be placed in service late this fall with the inauguration of the "six-digit method," have been started by special test crews of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, and will continue for more than three months.

With a total of 7100 manual and automatic telephone instruments to be changed in the Irvington and Rose City Park districts, together with other operating changes, the special test work is being carried upon so that the Portland exchange will be in the best possible condition. Western Union installers will make the first phone company workers will make the second and the third will be made by the telephone workers alone. Routine tests will follow on all equipment.

All of the tests will be made within the telephone offices, with the exception of a final test which will be made at the subscriber's station at the time of the cut-over.

Marion Educational Expense Is $772,298

Salem, Aug. 19.—Marion county spent $772,298 for educational purposes during the fiscal year, according to the annual report of Mrs. Mary L. Fulker, county superintendent of schools. The average salary paid men teachers was $122.90, while women teachers received an average of $98.81. The report shows a total enrollment in the schools of the county of 8327 in the grades and 2129 in the high school.

MRS. MARY LOUISA COOPER

Corvallis, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Mary Louisa Cooper, wife of Thomas H. Cooper, died at her home here Thursday, following a long illness on Thursday. She was born in Benton county October 9, 1855, and was the daughter of Prier Scott, a pioneer of 1845, who opened the first blacksmith shop in Corvallis and Benton county. During Mrs. Cooper's girlhood days the family resided near Goose lake, Central Oregon, where they were living at the time of the famous Modoc war. Mrs. Cooper is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Emory J. Newton of Corvallis, and two sons, Fred R. Cooper of Corvallis and George E. Cooper of Eugene.

BRIDGES TO BE BUILT

Eugene, Aug. 19.—A bridge is soon to be built over Rattlesnake creek on the new road just completed west of Trent. Another is going in east of the Coast fork covered bridge on the Cloverdale road.

DON H. MOORE NAMED

Salem, Aug. 19.—Don H. Moore of Portland has been named by the public service commission as an engineer. He will be assigned to work in connection with railroad utilities, succeeding Clyde H. Packer, resigned.

SCHOOLS OPEN SEPTEMBER 18

Lebanon, Aug. 19.—The local schools will open September 18. Professor Omer Bennett, recently school superintendent at Sumpter, will have charge.

TRAINMAN'S WIFE SUES

Roseburg, Aug. 19.—Josephine E. Burnett, wife of a local Southern Pacific trainman, has filed suit for divorce here against George F. Burnett.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Eugene, Aug. 19.—Donald W. Gillett and Arletta Houston, Eugene, secured a marriage license here.

Youthful contestants for athletic honors not only spent an energetic day at Peninsula park Saturday, but they had a mighty fine time of it, as well. Above—Group of girls representing various municipal playgrounds, stepping lively toward the goal whose winner will add points for her own playground. Below—High and mighty! This miss steps in competition with other girls who jump high.

Roseburg Planning 'Bang-up' Labor Day

Roseburg, Aug. 19.—If plans now formulated are carried out, Roseburg is to have a "bang-up" Labor day, fostered by local post of the American Legion and the Douglas County Concert band. Nearly every organization in the city will enter floats in the parade. Three bands will furnish music. A sham battle between cow boys and Indians on Jackson street, the main thoroughfare, a barbecue of beef and venison, and dancing in a large open air pavilion under construction, are features.

HORNETS COMMANDEER PRESS

Ridgefield, Wash., Aug. 19.—The orchard of J. Leslie Packard, pioneer of this section, contains trees bearing elder apples, which, despite the threat of Packard and his neighbor, Hobbs, remain unpicked. A big swarm of yellow hornets has taken charge of the elder press.

WOMAN WHO AIDED VETERANS IS DEAD

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 o'clock from Kenworthy's parlors for Mrs. Julia M. Stevens, 70, who died of heart failure Thursday at her home, No. 5355 4th street southeast. She was well known in veterans' circles, having been a member of the Relief Corps for 20 years. She belonged to the auxiliaries of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. A son, Lieutenant Orville A. Stevens, was killed in action during the late days of the war.

Mrs. Stevens was born in Wisconsin and came to Oregon from her native state 20 years ago. Surviving her are her husband, E. M. Stevens; two sons and three daughters—Charles R. Eugene E. Mrs. Alice Dignity of Wisconsin, Mrs. Ida Butler, Mrs. Louise Jones and Mrs. A. Wells of Portland. There are 29 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Ex-Mayor of Salem Is Hero of Holdup

Salem, Aug. 19.—Evans Tomavich, a Serbian, is held in the city jail here on a charge of assault with intent to commit robbery. Entering the Crown drug store Friday night he is said to have demanded money of Amy Hughes, clerk and only one in the store. Tomavich is said to have renewed his demand for money as C. E. Albin, former mayor, entered the store and came to the rescue of Miss Hughes. Albin grappled with the Serbian and turned him over to the police.

SCHOOL OPENING NEAR

Winlock, Wash., Aug. 19.—The Winlock school will open September 5 with the following teachers: S. O. Olstad, superintendent; high school, Mildred Catton, Talitha Ensley, Jeannette Van Dusee, Elizabeth Howitt, Lester H. Moyer; grades, Esther Baker, principal, Marcia Fitzaley, Anne M. Johnson, Noraine Schuett, Nina H. Minton, Edith R. Woody, Salma Blum and Hazel Martin; Smith school, Julia Murray; Martalia school, Marjorie Duaben; Torgerson school, Clara Nelson.

WORK NEARLY FINISHED

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 19.—Double tracking on the Great Northern, between Hilyard and four years ago, between Lamona and Bluestem will be completed by September 1, according to W. W. Poylefield, engineer in charge for A. Guthrie & Co., Portland, and engineers of Grant Smith & Co., Spokane, contractors.

TOUTLE ROAD IMPROVED

Kootenai, Wash., Aug. 19.—Road district No. 3 has a crew grading the highway into the Upper Toutle and Spirit Lake country. Commissioner P. J. Parker expects to complete about two miles this fall. Several miles more will be built in the spring.

QUITS SCHOOL BOARD

Centralia, Wash., Aug. 19.—T. C. Torgerson, for four years a member of the Winlock school board, resigned and Miss S. May Meighen, Lewis county school superintendent, appointed Emil Katterman to fill out the unexpired term. Max Townsend has resigned from the Vader school board, but no successor has been named.

HORSES DAMAGE CARS

Corvallis, Aug. 19.—Horses on a rampage in Corvallis Thursday caused considerable damage. One team of big horses from Oregon Agricultural college ran into an automobile owned by A. J. Johnson, being a team hauling dirt was frightened by a cave-in and collided with a motor truck which was jammed into a taxi cab.

YOUTH BREAKS JAIL

Marshfield, Aug. 19.—J. C. Chandler, young man held on a charge of passing forged checks last June, escaped from the county jail at Coquille. He knocked down Jailer Karn when the latter had the jail door open and got away. He was still at large tonight.

DISTRICT SPLIT ASKED

Eugene, Aug. 19.—School district No. 181 may be divided as the result of a petition filed with the county superintendent by the east half, which objects to the location of the school building in the west end of the district.

INJURIES ARE FATAL

Hoquiam, Wash., Aug. 19.—Joseph Elwell, brakeman on the logging railroad of the Aloah Lumber company, died Saturday as result of being caught between a log car and a platform.

NEW CABLE RECEIVED

Lebanon, Aug. 19.—The Lebanon telephone company has received from Chicago 2000 feet of cable to be installed underground.

Principles Voiced By Voters' League In Jackson County

Medford, Aug. 19.—The American Voters' league of Jackson county at a recent meeting here adopted the following declaration of principles:

"We stand for efficiency and economy in public office; for a full, impartial enforcement of all laws by the properly constituted authorities, and for the suppression of group control by any secret or religious organization, and to that end favor the election to office of those men and women, who by their fearless outspoken adherence to these principles have commended themselves to our support irrespective of their politics."

Candidates endorsed by the league were: For governor, Ben W. Olcott; state senate, George Dunn; representative, John C. Kin; circuit judge of Jackson and Josephine counties, E. E. Kelly; county commissioner, George Alford; mayor of Medford, B. F. Lindaa.

The executive committee comprises Herman Offenbacher, R. G. Barwell, R. H. McCurdy, Miles Cantrill, Johnny Reed, William Coivig, J. G. Love, Dr. Jarvis, George H. Collins, Frank Bybee, H. W. Walther, J. Bell, G. Frey, W. Ashpole, E. Neff, J. Wold, E. Schrer, E. Brown, V. J. Emerick, G. Voornhis, J. J. Conroy, W. Gore, A. E. Reames, Joe Rader, W. B. Biddle, Dr. Sweeney, J. R. Tomlin, Dr. Salade, Dr. Emmens, G. M. Roberts, B. E. Watson, C. Hall, J. Pernoil, C. M. English, Earl Fehl, Dr. Keene, William Schebie, James Edmonston.

KIWANIS PRESIDENT DUE HERE TUESDAY

George H. Ross, international president of Kiwanis clubs, will arrive in Portland, Tuesday morning at 7:30, and will be the guest of the local club throughout the day and evening.

He and Mrs. Ross will be greeted at the Union station by a reception committee headed by Past President George A. Lovejoy of Portland. There will be an informal breakfast at the Multnomah hotel, a "hot cake party," which Kiwanians of the city will attend. Vice President John R. Tomlinson will preside.

Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Ross will be taken over the Columbia river highway. George Lovejoy has charge of this. Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock a banquet of Oregon products will be served in the ballroom of the Multnomah hotel, to which the Kiwanis will bring their wives and friends. Kiwanis from Baker, The Dalles, Astoria, Eugene and Salem have all been invited to attend the delegations. Past President J. Howard Rankin has been appointed by President Leland to take charge of the meeting. John Kiefaber will do the decorating and arranging.

Ross will come here from Olympia, where the Pacific Northwest district convention opens in the legislative chamber of the state capitol Monday morning. The session will continue until Wednesday morning, but Ross is to leave early.

Kiwanis club members of Portland who are to drive to Olympia will form in line at the Forestry building on Linton road at 6 o'clock this morning. The caravan will move away promptly, officials say.

Mother of Four Children in Jail on Forgery Charge

Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 19.—Arrested Friday under the name of "Annie Goftan," to be held for investigation, a woman who later stated that her name was Mrs. Grace Tuggle, was charged with grand larceny and forgery and bound over to the superior court for trial by Prosecuting Attorney Earl Benson, Saturday afternoon.

McInroe has in his possession alleged "no fund" checks amounting to $134, passed at local stores by her during the last month. Information filed in the superior court recently shows that Mrs. Tuggle is the mother of four children and is seeking a divorce from her husband on grounds of cruelty.

WOMEN JURIES ATTACKED

Salem, Aug. 19.—The constitutionality of the women's jury law, enacted by the last legislature, is attacked by attorneys for J. J. Chase in an appeal to the supreme court from the decree of Lane county circuit court sentencing Chase to a term in the state prison upon conviction on a statutory charge.

FALEY CASE DISMISSED

Vancouver, Wash., Aug. 19.—Charges against William Faley, tried before Justice of the Peace Wilson of Minnehaha, Saturday, on a charge of selling intoxicants, were dismissed. The trial came before Justice Wilson on a change of venue from the court of Judge Vaughan.

Marshfield Paper Is In Receiver's Hands

Marshfield, Aug. 19.—On petition of Earl W. Murphy, manager, a receiver was appointed for the Southwestern Oregon Daily News of Marshfield. William Carver of Salem was named receiver. It is said the paper will continue to publish. Three of some creditors to attach is given as reason for asking the receiver.

JENNING'S

NINE FLOORS—Washington at Fifth—NINE FLOORS

August Furniture Sale

We Will Continue to Offer Throughout This Month

Deeply Important Reductions

On Thousands of Dollars' Worth of

New Furnishings for the Home!

Save From 20% to 50%

Success is for those who wisely choose—successful homes are for those who take advantage of real opportunities in buying home furnishings. Making your home successful is made timely now by the August Sale at Jennings—bringing better home furnishings at the lowest possible prices. Throughout the Northwest's largest house of home furnishings you will find them—hundreds of rare values too varied to list!

Fine Pieces and Suites for the Living-Room
Boudoir and Sleeping-Room Suites and Pieces
Breakfast-Room and Dining-Room Suites
Furnishings for the Kitchen
Room Rugs, Carpets, Linoleums, Hangings and Draperies.
Blankets, Robes, Comforters

View Our Fifth Street Exhibits of New Scranton Nets and Panels, New American and English Breakfast and Dinner China, New Aluminum Kitchen Ware

