Vernon Shortens Gap in Coast Pennant Race.: Major Leaguers Suffer for Delaying Game

Tigers Take Both Games Off Beavers

L OS ANGELE, Cal., Aug. 28.—Timely hitting by the Tigers, coupled with ineffective pitching, gave Bill Essick's Bengals a double victory over the Port-land Beavers Sunday. The scores were 9 to 3 and 6 to 1.

Manager Jimmy Middleton started on the mound in the first game. He lost his game in the first inning when "Ping" Bodie crashed out a home run, scoring H. High and Chadbourne, who had walked, ahead of him. "Ham" Hyatt scored a home run in the fourth

Middleton was touched up for two more runs in the fifth inning and then retired in favor of Walberg, who was touched up for three runs during the remaining three innings.

In the second game the Tigers bunched hits on Crumpler in three innings for their sixth run. Portland's lone run was scored in the fifth inning when three hits were

The double victory gave the Tigers six victories out of eight games played. The series will close this afternoon with the playing of a postponed game. Vernon is but two and a half games behind the San Francisco club, which lost last week's series to Salt Lake.

Yankees and Sox Fined by Ban Johnson

"HICAGO, Aug. 28 .- (U. P.)-Miller U Huggins, manager of the New York Yankees, was fined $100 and seven other New York and Chicago players each fined $25 for a "disgraceful exhibition of stalling," during the game with the White Sox here August it was announced today by Ban ohnson, president of the American

The game was called in New York's half of the fifth inning because of a heavy downpour of rain with the score to 1 in favor of the White Sox. Manager Gleason of the Sox alleged the New Yorkers stalled in an effort to prolong the game until the rain forced the umpires to end the con-

Others fined were Bob Meusel, Everett Scott, Waite Hoyt, Wally Schang of the Yanks and Ray Schalk, Bib Falk and Urban Faber of the Sox. Johnson also announced that a repetition of the occurrence would carry an automatic suspension of 10 days.

Independent Ball Title Is Won by Arleta A. C. Team

THE Arleta Athletic club baseball team cinched its claim to the 1922 ndependent championship Sunday afternoon on the Vaughn street grounds when it handed the Woodstock firemen a 10 to 0 beating. Arleta has not lost a game in Portland this season, having defeated every formidable opponent with the exception of Standard Oil. The two squads are scheduled to clash on September 10, according to present plans.

Arleta started out in the first inning, scoring two runs, and had things its own way during the entire contest, Johnny Harkins, Arleta's star twirler, was practically the whole show. He held the firemen to 1 hit and struck out 15 men. In the last three games Harkins has pitched he has allowed but The Woodstock firemen looked good at times and have a hard-hitting team, but could not solve the slow curves of Harkins, Lawrence, the Woodstock catcher, was the only player able to connect safely, and that was a single to right in the eighth inning. Rathjen was Arleta's star fielder.

Another double-header featuring the four strongest semi-pro teams in Portland is scheduled for next Sunday afternoon on the Vaughn street rounds. The score

Phil Douglas Case May Go Into Courts

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The case of "Shufflin' Phil" Douglas will not be permitted to rest with his permanent suspension, but will be fought in the state or federal courts if Judge Landis does not mitigate the punishment meted out to the former Giant pitcher. John Louterbach, attorney for Douglas, told the United News that the next step was being delayed because of Phil's mental condition, for which a nerve specialist now has Phil under observation.

The shock of his dismissal from the rne snock of his dismissal from the game, following upon the alleged doping of the pitcher, has left Phil's nerves in a deplorable condition, the specialist told Louterbach. Therefore Douglas is advised to wait until he is able to give a better account of himself under close questioning before he at-tempts to push his case, Louterbach hinted at an attack on the legality of Landis' action, pointing out that Landis acted the dual role of prosecutor and judge in the Pittsburg hearing. He is dissatisfied, also, with the denial by Leslie Mann of the Cardinals that it was he who received the Douglas "fishing" letter.

Louterbach has traced the letter, which was sent by special delivery, and ascertained, he says, that Mann did receive it. He has traced the tele-phone call from New York to Boston, he declares, proving that Mann discussed the letter with phil. "We have not yet decided to go into details regarding other incidents con-cerning which Douglas could make statements." said Louterbach. are hesitating because the public might regard Phil's word as the complaint of a sorehead and therefore disbelieve

Cave-Man to Face H. Wills Tuesday Eve

By Davis J. Walsh International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Harry Wills may know too much for "Tut" Jackson in the battle of the brunettes at Ebbets Field tomorrow night, he may out-smart him and again he may out-game him, but he will not outstrangle him. Wills' fistic endeavors to date have operated along the accepted ethics of a boa constrictor. His theory is to choke them first and explain afterwards. His qualifications may be said to be one part speed and hitting ability and two parts strength. It is claimed that while working as a stevedore along the waterfront it was his custom to pick up a side of beef in either hand as the ordinary man would lift a couple of lunch boxes. It is no more of a trick for Harry Wills to do this than it is for him to pull such men as Norfold, Fulton and others of this persuasion toward him with his left hand and then sock them with his right, in direct contravention with the rules of boxing. This is cave-man stuff and it takes a cave man to stop it. Jackson is a physical cave man, whatever his mental tendencies may be. He is, or should be, stronger in the arms and legs that? Wills. His thighs measure 23 inches in circumference against 22 inches for Wills; his calf 15%, against 14%; his ankle 10%, against 8; his biceps 17, against 16%; his forearm 16%, against Jackson enjoys one other advantage. He has a reach of 80% inches, against 76 inches for Wills. In that connection however, one cannot overlook the fact that Fulton and Willard had this ad-vantage and more over Dempsey and all they used it for was to reach for the floor Wills is 10 pounds heavier than Jackson and also is much bigger around the chest and waist, but in all other
