Seals Juggle Victory Away From Beavers

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 31.—Founding on 13 hits did not prevent the Beavers from slipping into a tie for the cellar position in the Coast league standings. Portland lost to the Seals Wednesday, 3 to 1, despite the fact that Walter Levern, veteran southpaw, allowed the Seals but five hits.

The Seals' first run was scored in the second inning. O'Connell drew a walk, stole second, advanced to third on King's error and scored on a wild pitch.

King's error gave the Seals an opening to score two runs in the fourth inning. With one down, Ellison singled and O'Connell walked. Rhyme sacrificed. Ellison scored when King threw a ball through the hands of Beavers' catcher and scored on Gressett's single.

McCann scored Portland's lone run in the seventh when he reached first on Rhyme's error. O'Connell scored on Beavers' single and scored on Gressett's hit.

Twice during the game Portland made two hits in an inning but failed to count.

The victory increased the Seals' lead in the pennant race, as the Tigers dropped a contest to Sacramento.

Play in Davis Cup Tennis Finals to Begin on Friday

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—On Friday afternoon Captain Gerald Patterson of the Australians will face William T. Tilden II, champion of the American courts, in the first singles match in the challenge round for the Davis cup at the West Side Tennis club, Forest Hill.

At the conclusion of this match, James Anderson of Australia will meet William M. Johnston of this country in the other singles engagement of the day. Both players rank next to their countrymen in the first match on the present rating.

It was also announced that on Monday Patterson will meet Johnston in that day's first match and that Anderson will play Tilden later.

The captain reserve right to name their teams for the doubles match, which will take place Saturday. Announcement will be made by Captain Patterson and Captain Williams at Forest Hill.

In view of the victory of Tilden and Vincent Richards over Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood in the national doubles at Boston, it is generally conceded that the United States defenders will be this pair. O'Hara Wood, a star in doubles play, is sure to get into action in this match, but whether he will be paired with Anderson or Patterson is a question.

Peace Is Assured Between Hunters and the Farmers

La Grande, Aug. 31.—Peace negotiations are now under way between the local sportsmen's association and farmers surrounding La Grande. A few days ago every farmer in an area of 10 miles square joined a association forbidding anyone to hunt on their premises. This happens to be splendid hunting ground for ducks and Chinese pheasants. The Wing, Fin and Fleetfoot club answered the claim that hunters killed live stock by offering peace proposals.

The plan is to furnish the hunters who are members of the club with credentials that will be presented to the farmers with a request to hunt on their property. With the knowledge that the Wing, Fin and Fleetfoot club will pay for any damage perpetrated, the farmers are willing to let the members use their grounds for hunting purposes.

Only those sportsmen who are true hunters, not hoggish or irresponsible, will be given credentials, and every precaution will be taken to refrain from damaging or injuring any of the farmer's stock or fixtures.

Sharkey as his manager, Joe Wagner, were suspended for a year for the same reason.

Jabez White, Marty O'Brien, Joe Carter and Johnny Paake were indefinitely suspended for the "good of the sport."

Batters in The Pink for Ring Bouts

PLENTY of flaccid action is promised when fans Friday night at the Armory witness the battles of all weights under the middleweight limit representing various nationalities lock horns in the five scheduled contests.

The big event of the evening is a 10-round affair in a bout scheduled to go 10 rounds—between Jimmy Sacco and Jack Josephs. This is the second meeting between the pair, Josephs having been awarded a decision over Sacco in a bout at Vancouver, B. C., several weeks ago.

Sacco is confident of his ability to hang "sleepers" on Josephs' jaw, while the Minnesota boxer is just as hopeful of beating the Boston wop. Sacco will enter the ring weighing nearly as much as Josephs, which will be something in his favor.

Both boys have trained hard for the contest. They ended their workouts Thursday afternoon with light sessions of shadow boxing and bag punching.

"Bat" Ortega and Joe Egan will swap punches in the semi-windup attraction. This is a scheduled six-round bout and one that the fans have been anxious to see to determine whether Ortega's series of victories have been set-ups.

Three other four-round events complete the card.

Stars of Tourney To Receive Prizes For Their Efforts

THE stars of the various departments in the annual fall Wright & Ditson baseball tournament which opens with a doubleheader on the 24th and Vaughn street grounds Sunday afternoon, starting at 3:30 o'clock, will be awarded prizes other than the gold medals for the winning combination, according to the latest announcement of the committee in charge.

Merchants of Portland will donate prizes to be given to the leading hitter, base stealer, long distance clouter, etc., and the Honeyman Hardware company will award the medals to the members of the team finishing with the highest percentage at the end of the tournament. Second place will be given a trophy.

The Arleta Athletic club, Fulton Athletic club, William C. Stepp's Fenwick's All Stars and the Nicolai Lumber company make up the bushers' tournament and all are anxious to perform before Portland followers of the big game.

Harry Furman, 1259 E. Morrison street, has formed the committee that he will present a pedigreed Alredale dog to the winning team as a mascot.

The four teams in the tournament are considered the fastest in bush circles in Portland and Sunday's schedule calls for Nicolai to meet Fulton in the first game while the Arleta independent champions will take on the All-Stars. Another doubleheader is scheduled for Monday afternoon (Labor Day) on the Vaughn street grounds. The teams taking on Nicolai followed by Fulton and Arleta settling a grudge. Arleta won from Fulton but since then Manager Simon hasn't slept well nights thinking of the fight with his protégés.

He figures that Arleta was not to get away with the victory and he's not a bit backward in saying it while Manager Brooks sits back and smiles at the Arleta is going to do to Fulton again.

Deny Tilton Will Enter Washington

Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 31.—Reports that Earl Tilton, star halfback of the Whitman College football team for the last two years, will enter the University of Washington this fall are branded as false by fraternity brothers of Tilton as well as other Whitman College students. Tilton would not be eligible to play varsity ball at Washington this fall in any case, a conference ruling requiring that players coming from another college where they have participated in athletics must have attended the new institution one year before they can be permitted to take part in its athletic contests.

Alleged Operators of Still Are Fined

Montesano, Wash., Aug. 31.—J. A. McBride, former deputy sheriff of Grays Harbor county, and Gilbert Grant, found guilty of operating a still, were sentenced to serve six months and pay fines of $1000 each. They have appealed. They were represented by an attorney employed by the county. He had an order to issue. No testimony was offered in their behalf. Cross-examination indicated a defense that they were employed either by federal officers or the league and had no part in the still just before county officers arrived. McBride was arrested after the trial on another warrant charging second degree burglary, sworn to by Leo Hodder of Aberdeen, who charges that McBride entered his quarters August 16 and stole several articles.

Hoppickers Adept At Picking Peaches

Harrisburg, Or., Aug. 31.—Harry Reine, Harrisburg farmer, sold most of his peach crop at $1.50 a bushel though other growers were paid but a bushel. When he contracted the crop, however, he failed to reckon with hippickers, who relieved him of much of the trouble of harvesting his crop and stole so much of the fruit that he was unable to fill the orders he had taken.

Harold J. Quigley, Jefferson; Dr. W. A. Fenstermacher, Washington; W. W. Williams, Commerce, and Gene Hyatt, James John, are expected to be fixtures at their respective institutions during the coming campaign, although Hyatt may not be able to find time to coach the Saints.

Overloading of Ship Cause of Sea Disaster

Serenis, Chile, Aug. 31.—(U. P.)—Four survivors of the Chilean steamer Itata, which sunk off the Choros islands with loss of nearly 300 lives, were brought here Wednesday and told harrowing tales of the disaster.

Five minutes after the crash that tore part of the bottom from the overloaded steamer, the Itata went down, carrying most of the passengers and crew to their watery graves and a boat, the latter filled with women, for whom the men heroically stood back, were launched. The small boat later went down, and some of the women would not be eligible to play varsity ball at Washington this fall in any case, a conference ruling requiring that players coming from another college where they have participated in athletics must have attended the new institution one year before they can be permitted to take part in its athletic contests.
