LEGION VETS OF Argonaut Mine Fire Scenes, Jackson, Cal. MINERS' RESCUE WASHINGTON MEE

Wenatchee, Wash., Aug. 31 .-- Wenstchee Wednesday night housed sons and daughters of citles, villages and hamlets from all parts of Washington, coming in smiling, cheering contingents on every train for the three day state ecovention of the American Legion and suxiliary, which opened teday. Hotel obbies are filled with a noisy, happy erowd. The streets are ablaze unting, flags and pictures of the World war leaders. A resolution will be presented to the delegates calling upon all states to favor the enactment of an amendment to the United States constitution de-fining cltizenship and requiring allens to register and become naturalized within a certain prescribed time. The passage of an immigration law by congress along the lines of the present temporary law, but with total restriction of Asiatics and others ineligible to citizenship, will be asked.

Legislation designed to improve the onditions of disabled veterans and to btain advantages for the returned solfiers will be urged, besides an amendment to the compensation act, prefer-ance to veterans in public, county and municipal jobs, and legislation defining the status of the national guard. The narcotics question also will be taken
