for Best Letters Telling of Experiences With Journal Dime-a-Lines!

Hanson.

Gentlemen: July 4, 1920, under classified "Help Wanted," you ran the following ad: "Sailors wanted for Australia. No prohibition in the Land of the Kangaroo. Also ship carpenter wanted. Apply Barkentine Katherine Mackall, Captain

Having followed the sea for many years, I answered the ad and soon became a member of the crew of one of our war tubs-steamer Hull, rigged up for wind. One month later we spread our white wings and started out across the Pacific. We had only one-third of the seamen that had any experience. The remainder were high school boys. After 65 days we sighted Sydney Heads and entered what is considered one of the most beautiful harbors in the world. October 29 I had the experience of the voyage in finding my baby brother whom I had not seen in 26 years. I found him through the repatriation committee at Victoria barracks. We sure had a jubilee. And this is not one-tenth of the experience I had through that one little Journal Want Ad. Respectfully,

> The Oregon Journal: I send you my letter. I really got satisfactory result from advertising in your paper, and I try if my letter is good for prize. My ad was something like this: "New, unfurnished bungalow for rent, 808 Vancouver avenue." (Signed) MISS IDA KARI, 825 Thompson St. Thanking you.

About week ago people moved out of my house and I was worried how would I get it rented, so I just called The Oregon Journal through telephone It's Easy and just two-line ad and 20c and I was surprised to see how many people came over to see my house. Simply Write and so was my house rented that evening. It is very easy to ad in Journal and get quick Us of Your Success IDA KARI. With Journal Classified Ads. Next Week's Check
