

Society

Miss Youngson Tea Hostess On Thursday

MISS HONOR YOUNGSON, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Youngson, who will leave the city soon to enter a French school in New York, was hostess for a delightful tea Thursday at her home in honor of Miss Dorothy Lyon, bride-elect of Mr. Blaine R. Smith and Miss Frances Cook whose marriage to Dr. John A. Sarratt will take place in September. At the tea table which was made unusually attractive with an arrangement of summer flowers Miss Marian Farrell and Miss Helms Fitzgerald presided at the tea and the less. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Bertha Peterson, Miss Mildred Moreland, Miss Jeanette White and Miss Gertrude Johnson. About 75 maids and matrons called during the afternoon.

Among the visitors during the last week at the Sign of the Bow-Bell tea shop on Columbia river highway were Mrs. Ludwig Hirsch, who entertained Monday for Mrs. H. J. Ottenheimer, Mrs. Julius Louison and Miss Newberger of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerling of Astoria, Mrs. Donald Spenser Saturday entertained Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, Mrs. Abe Tichner entertained for tea Monday for Mrs. F. E. Moore. Those calling for supper Monday were Mrs. Helen Hirsch, Mrs. Herrensoph and Miss Ann Herrensoph.

Mrs. George F. Fuller was hostess Thursday for a bridge tea at her home in East 58th street, honoring Mrs. William Reginald Jackson of Kansas City, who is a visitor here for the summer months. Two tables were placed for bridge, and at the tea hour Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt and Mrs. Frederick Alva Jacobson presided at the tables. Miss Lavelle Florence, Miss Dorothy Church and Mrs. Howard Comstock Chariton.

Miss Anna M. Grau of Cincinnati, Ohio, left Portland for her home Saturday evening, after a pleasant vacation spent here. Her departure was regretted by many friends, who are hoping to learn of her early return to the coast. Miss Grau proved a charming inspiration for many social functions and science of Harvard, Mrs. Cabot is a member of the board of education of Massachusetts.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cabot were guests during last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lovich. Dr. Cabot is one of the leading physicians of Boston and is head of the department of physics and science of Harvard. Mrs. Cabot is a member of the board of education of Massachusetts.

Miss Harriet Broughton, bride-elect of Mr. Clarence M. Bishop, arrived from Dayton, Wash., the middle of last week, and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Spenser, now visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Asheim and children are registered at the Benson en route from Seaside to their home in Spokane, Wash. They visited Mrs. Asheim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wise, at Astoria.

St. Charles parish will hold its annual picnic on Council Crest on Labor day. An attractive program of athletic events with prizes for the winners has been arranged.

Mrs. John Cabean Beatty was hostess Wednesday for a tea in honor of Mrs. Samuel Thompson Halsted. At the tea hour Mrs. Thomas Kerr and Mrs. John C. Ainsworth presided at the table.

Judge and Mrs. W. N. Gatens and daughter Helengray and Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Hedlund and son Billie have returned from a fortnight's motor trip through Eastern and Southern Oregon.

Mrs. Helen Page left Thursday to spend the month of September at Riverside, Saybrook, Connecticut.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Chamberlain are spending a short time at Hood River.

Miss Nadine Caswell entertained at a luncheon at her home for Mrs. William Reginald Jackson Saturday.

Mrs. Dan Martin has returned to her home in the city, after having spent most of the summer in Washington.

Two teas given for the pleasure of a number of interesting out of town visitors were arranged by Mrs. Thomas G. Halley, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. Several of Mrs. Halley's friends presided at the tea tables and during the serving hours for both afternoons who assisted about the rooms were Miss Isabella Gault, Mrs. Henry Clay Judd, Miss Margaret Biddle, Miss Louise Litchcomb, Miss Virginia Mears and Miss Katherine Kerr.

Miss Youngson Tea Hostess On Thursday

Miss Helen Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman of Irvington, is being extensively entertained prior to her departure September 11 for New York, where she plans to enter Columbia university. During the week several informal luncheons and teas have been given for her, and others are planned before she leaves the city. Mrs. Morris Chisholm was hostess Saturday at luncheon for Miss Zimmerman. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ludlum and Mrs. John Gordon Bowers will be hostesses for a bridge luncheon Thursday, at the home of the former in Waddell street. Guests to make up five tables of bridge have been invited. Mrs. Arthur Rudeen and Mrs. Thomas H. Banfill will entertain on Thursday afternoon. Guests of the latter in Prospect Drive, next Saturday, and Mrs. Cole Barnard will entertain at tea for Miss Zimmerman next Sunday.

Mr. F. W. Watson was host at a dinner of eight covers at the Portland hotel Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Moreback, on the occasion of their wedding anniversary. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George Moreback, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Keen, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Oliver and Mrs. Barbara B. Brink.

Miss Alice Doane entertained a group of friends at her home in East 45th street, Thursday evening in honor of Miss A. Hazel Durkin, who is leaving soon for California, where she will study fashion, art and designing. Little Marcia Cecile Doane presented the honor guest with a charming gift.

Mrs. Harold E. Sanford was hostess for a bridge tea Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Harry L. Kuchins (Ivelon Shea) of St. Louis, who is leaving the city September 10 for her home in the East. Mrs. Kuchins has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Shea, in Portland, during the summer months.

Miss Jocelyn Foulkes and her mother, Mrs. A. B. Elmer, who have been the guests of Miss Locke, principal of Castella school at Palo Alto, Cal., since the middle of July, are returning to Portland after a delightful journey in the south, and will arrive in Portland Monday night.

Waverley Country club will have a dinner dance at the clubhouse next Saturday evening as the first function of the season. A baseball game between members of the University club and Waverley Country club will be a feature of the afternoon, preceding the dinner dance.

Miss Caroline Everding and Miss Leona Prag, who will attend school in California this winter, shared honor at a delightful party given by Mrs. Richard Everding at the Hotel Portland Friday night. Covers were placed for eight members of the younger set and the hostess.

Miss Lillian Bennett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. V. Bennett, entertained at a party given by Mrs. Richard Everding at the Hotel Portland Friday night. Covers were placed for eight members of the younger set and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon H. Peters and the latter's sister, Mrs. Iva Henry, have returned from a 10 days' visit at Rockaway beach. Mrs. Henry left Thursday night for California, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. W. Dennison Clark entertained a number of guests Tuesday evening at her home at Riverwood at an informal supper party on the occasion of her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Vance Thomas Ferguson entertained a few guests at luncheon Thursday for Mrs. Norris E. Gregg of New York city, and Mrs. Harry E. Hall of Bozeman, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Mason entertained a few guests informally at dinner at their home in Hancock street Friday evening.

More than 150 guests called at the home of Mrs. Coleman H. Wheeler during the tea hours Wednesday when she entertained with her daughter, Miss Margaret Wheeler, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Coleman H. Wheeler Jr., at their home in Montrose Drive. Late summer flowers were used as decorations for the tea table at which during the early part of the afternoon those who presided were Mrs. John Shull, Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield, Mrs. Thomas Nordby and Mrs. George F. Fuller. Later at the tea Mrs. Alfred Jerome Sullivan, Mrs. Harold Dekam Gill, Mrs. Arthur Truman Bull Brown and Miss Helen Page. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Lee Teyla, Miss Elsie Bristol, Miss Janet Hesse, Miss Jane Talbot, Miss Marion Farwell and Miss Barbara Stanfield.

Miss Marion Farrell will leave the city next week for San Francisco, where she will visit the relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Walter D. Heller, for a short time.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Miss Dittendorfer of New York have returned from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Bend and Hood lodge.

Miss Herington Is Hostess at Tea Saturday

An interesting group of young girls were guests at the tea for which Miss Ed Herington, daughter of Major and Mrs. G. G. Herington, was hostess Saturday afternoon at her home in Flinders street. Asters in shades of lavender combined with other early fall flowers formed an attractive centerpiece for the tea table at which Miss Mary Louise Wight, Miss Anna Warren, Miss Anne Adams and Miss Georgiana Gerling presided at the tea table. Assisting in serving about the rooms were Miss Mildred Marsh, Miss Betty Kerr, Miss Nancy Nicolai, Miss Rhoda Burpee. The company included a number of girls who are leaving the city within the next fortnight for schools in the South and East for the winter months.

Mrs. Charles T. Deworth of Seattle, who has been spending part of the summer with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Charles H. Carey, returned to her home Tuesday.

Mrs. Everett Babcock invited a few guests to luncheon at her home Monday afternoon for Mrs. Samuel Perkins of Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson are enjoying an outing at Seaside.

Miss Jeanette Meier left the city last week for San Francisco, where she will visit the relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Walter D. Heller, for a short time.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Miss Dittendorfer of New York have returned from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Bend and Hood lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson are enjoying an outing at Seaside.

Miss Jeanette Meier left the city last week for San Francisco, where she will visit the relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Walter D. Heller, for a short time.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Miss Dittendorfer of New York have returned from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Bend and Hood lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson are enjoying an outing at Seaside.

Miss Jeanette Meier left the city last week for San Francisco, where she will visit the relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Walter D. Heller, for a short time.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Miss Dittendorfer of New York have returned from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Bend and Hood lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson are enjoying an outing at Seaside.

Miss Jeanette Meier left the city last week for San Francisco, where she will visit the relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Walter D. Heller, for a short time.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Miss Dittendorfer of New York have returned from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Bend and Hood lodge.

Miss Herington Is Hostess at Tea Saturday

An interesting group of young girls were guests at the tea for which Miss Ed Herington, daughter of Major and Mrs. G. G. Herington, was hostess Saturday afternoon at her home in Flinders street. Asters in shades of lavender combined with other early fall flowers formed an attractive centerpiece for the tea table at which Miss Mary Louise Wight, Miss Anna Warren, Miss Anne Adams and Miss Georgiana Gerling presided at the tea table. Assisting in serving about the rooms were Miss Mildred Marsh, Miss Betty Kerr, Miss Nancy Nicolai, Miss Rhoda Burpee. The company included a number of girls who are leaving the city within the next fortnight for schools in the South and East for the winter months.

Mrs. Charles T. Deworth of Seattle, who has been spending part of the summer with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Charles H. Carey, returned to her home Tuesday.

Mrs. Everett Babcock invited a few guests to luncheon at her home Monday afternoon for Mrs. Samuel Perkins of Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson are enjoying an outing at Seaside.

Miss Jeanette Meier left the city last week for San Francisco, where she will visit the relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Walter D. Heller, for a short time.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Miss Dittendorfer of New York have returned from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Bend and Hood lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson are enjoying an outing at Seaside.

Miss Jeanette Meier left the city last week for San Francisco, where she will visit the relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Walter D. Heller, for a short time.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Miss Dittendorfer of New York have returned from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Bend and Hood lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson are enjoying an outing at Seaside.

Miss Jeanette Meier left the city last week for San Francisco, where she will visit the relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Walter D. Heller, for a short time.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Miss Dittendorfer of New York have returned from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Bend and Hood lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson are enjoying an outing at Seaside.

Miss Jeanette Meier left the city last week for San Francisco, where she will visit the relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Walter D. Heller, for a short time.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Hirsch and Miss Dittendorfer of New York have returned from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Bend and Hood lodge.

Miss Resing Becomes Bride Next Tuesday

MISS J. LUCILLE RESING will become the bride of W. Elmer Ramsey Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Resing, Dr. J. J. Staub officiating in the presence of a company of friends and relatives. Miss Helen Kline will sing and Miss Mary Holmes will be bridesmaid and six classmates and sorority sisters of the bride will form an aisle for the bridal party. Their number includes Miss Helen Dahlgren, Miss Beas Walsh, Miss Nancy Gavin, Miss Mildred Wright, Miss Naomi Beckwith and Miss Riederer Carnes. Wayne Williams will attend the bridegroom. Miss Helen Kline will sing and Miss Hazel Cole will play the wedding march.

Miss Resing has been much entertained since the announcement of her wedding date. Miss Beas Ford entertained about 15 of her girl friends Monday evening in her honor when a trousseau shower was a feature of the occasion. Late summer flowers were used about the rooms for the evening and dainty favors were given the bride-elect.

Miss Nancy Gavin entertained the members of the bridal party at her home at Eastmoreland for Miss Resing and Saturday Mrs. Waldo Hirschberger was hostess for a tea in her honor. At the tea table were Miss Naomi Beckwith and Mrs. Floyd Allen and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Marion Ide Gorman, Miss Phina Crawford and Miss Lois Pettinger. About 50 guests called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Harry E. Hall of Bozeman, Mont., who has been spending part of the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrison, is leaving the city Monday for her home. Mrs. Hall has been entertained on several occasions during her sojourn in Portland. Last week Mrs. Latourette gave a luncheon for her at the University club and Mrs. Norris B. Gregg of New York city entertained the visitor at tea at Waverley Country club.

Mrs. Robert O. Morrison will be hostess for a tea next Saturday afternoon at Trinity rectory, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrison for the entertainment of the young women who are visitors in the city with their parents, who are attending the general convention of the Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell M. Page of No. 685 Irving street have returned to the city following a delightful motor trip through southern Oregon and northern California. They spent some time at a mountain resort in the Sierras.

Mrs. Harry W. Sharp left the city Thursday for San Francisco, where she will visit her mother, Mrs. Henry K. Field, for a short time. On her return she will spend some time with her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. W. Howard, who was a visitor here this summer for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Thomas Ferguson are now domiciled in their new home at No. 744 East 22nd street, Irvington.

Bishop Frederick B. Howden of New Mexico is at the Ambassador. He is in Portland attending the General Convention of the Episcopal church.

Seattle Girl Is Guest of Honor Of Mrs. Sturm

MISS RUTH STREYSELLER of Seattle who has been a visitor in the city for a short time at the home of her sister, Mrs. John C. Sturm, at No. 1184 East Nineteenth street, has been the guest of honor at several affairs during the week. Mrs. Sturm entertained her sister at a bridge tea of four tables Thursday afternoon and several informal luncheons occupied the earlier part of the week. Friday Mrs. Leon H. Peters was hostess for a bridge luncheon at her home in Irvington for the visitor. Guests included Miss Streyseller, Mrs. J. Raymond Martin, Mrs. Robert Chamberland, Mrs. Harry C. Vorse, Mrs. Jean Campbell, Mrs. M. Daly, Mrs. Joseph Halley, Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and Mrs. Stinson Gannett of The Dalles and Mrs. Sturm. Miss Streyseller left Portland Friday evening for her home.

Mrs. Thomas Foster Metcalf was hostess Saturday for a tea at her home in honor of Miss Madeline Garland, daughter of Ex-Senator and Mrs. Samuel Garland of Lebanon, whose marriage to Mr. Walter Dunn Lampert will take place the latter part of this month. At the tea table Mrs. Hollis Johnston and Mrs. Fred Howard Young presided and were assisted in serving by Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and Mrs. Stinson Gannett of The Dalles and Mrs. Sturm. Miss Streyseller left Portland Friday evening for her home.

Miss Hazel Hall has returned to Portland after a delightful visit as the guest of Mr. Samuel C. Lancaster at his camp in Columbia river gorge near Eagle creek. Miss Hall, who is a writer by vocation and who has met with unusual success in her work, found the camp a beauty spot which would find favor in the eyes of many writers and others who are seeking a quiet resort for vacation days.

Miss Dorothy Lyon was hostess for a bridge tea Tuesday in honor of Miss Dorothy Metcalf, bride-elect of Mr. Willard P. Hawley. The guests included Mrs. Walter Metcalf, Mrs. M. Daly, Mrs. Joseph Halley, Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and Mrs. Stinson Gannett of The Dalles and Mrs. Sturm. Miss Streyseller left Portland Friday evening for her home.

Clyde Beale, son of E. A. Beale, formerly of Portland but now of San Francisco, is foreign correspondent for the New York Herald, with headquarters in Dublin. Mr. Beale, who was a Reed college student and later a member of the news writing staff of The Journal, won a scholarship from Columbia university and has been traveling abroad more than two years.

Miss Caroline Schott was hostess Friday for a tea in honor of Miss Harriette Walters, whose marriage to Mr. Nathan Boynton Thomas took place Saturday, and Miss Dorothy Lyon, bride-elect of Mr. Blaine R. Smith. Miss Evelyn Thatcher and Miss Dorothy Thatcher presided at the tea table, and assisting about the rooms were Miss Charlotte Malbouet, Miss Louise Odel, Miss Thyra St. Clair and Miss Virginia Thatcher.

Miss Fay King, known all over the country as a cartoonist and special feature writer, is a visitor in Portland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack King, in Raleigh street. Miss King is a member of the staff of the New York Evening Journal.

Mrs. Jordan V. Zan has returned to Portland from Victoria, B. C., where she has been spending a part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Chaney have returned to the city from Gearhart, where they spent the last week-end.

Miss Ruth Streyseller of Seattle is Guest of Honor of Mrs. Sturm

Miss Ruth Streyseller of Seattle who has been a visitor in the city for a short time at the home of her sister, Mrs. John C. Sturm, at No. 1184 East Nineteenth street, has been the guest of honor at several affairs during the week. Mrs. Sturm entertained her sister at a bridge tea of four tables Thursday afternoon and several informal luncheons occupied the earlier part of the week. Friday Mrs. Leon H. Peters was hostess for a bridge luncheon at her home in Irvington for the visitor. Guests included Miss Streyseller, Mrs. J. Raymond Martin, Mrs. Robert Chamberland, Mrs. Harry C. Vorse, Mrs. Jean Campbell, Mrs. M. Daly, Mrs. Joseph Halley, Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and Mrs. Stinson Gannett of The Dalles and Mrs. Sturm. Miss Streyseller left Portland Friday evening for her home.

Mrs. Thomas Foster Metcalf was hostess Saturday for a tea at her home in honor of Miss Madeline Garland, daughter of Ex-Senator and Mrs. Samuel Garland of Lebanon, whose marriage to Mr. Walter Dunn Lampert will take place the latter part of this month. At the tea table Mrs. Hollis Johnston and Mrs. Fred Howard Young presided and were assisted in serving by Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and Mrs. Stinson Gannett of The Dalles and Mrs. Sturm. Miss Streyseller left Portland Friday evening for her home.

Miss Hazel Hall has returned to Portland after a delightful visit as the guest of Mr. Samuel C. Lancaster at his camp in Columbia river gorge near Eagle creek. Miss Hall, who is a writer by vocation and who has met with unusual success in her work, found the camp a beauty spot which would find favor in the eyes of many writers and others who are seeking a quiet resort for vacation days.

Miss Dorothy Lyon was hostess for a bridge tea Tuesday in honor of Miss Dorothy Metcalf, bride-elect of Mr. Willard P. Hawley. The guests included Mrs. Walter Metcalf, Mrs. M. Daly, Mrs. Joseph Halley, Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and Mrs. Stinson Gannett of The Dalles and Mrs. Sturm. Miss Streyseller left Portland Friday evening for her home.

Clyde Beale, son of E. A. Beale, formerly of Portland but now of San Francisco, is foreign correspondent for the New York Herald, with headquarters in Dublin. Mr. Beale, who was a Reed college student and later a member of the news writing staff of The Journal, won a scholarship from Columbia university and has been traveling abroad more than two years.

Miss Caroline Schott was hostess Friday for a tea in honor of Miss Harriette Walters, whose marriage to Mr. Nathan Boynton Thomas took place Saturday, and Miss Dorothy Lyon, bride-elect of Mr. Blaine R. Smith. Miss Evelyn Thatcher and Miss Dorothy Thatcher presided at the tea table, and assisting about the rooms were Miss Charlotte Malbouet, Miss Louise Odel, Miss Thyra St. Clair and Miss Virginia Thatcher.

Miss Fay King, known all over the country as a cartoonist and special feature writer, is a visitor in Portland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack King, in Raleigh street. Miss King is a member of the staff of the New York Evening Journal.

Mrs. Jordan V. Zan has returned to Portland from Victoria, B. C., where she has been spending a part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Chaney have returned to the city from Gearhart, where they spent the last week-end.

Miss Lucile McKay of Tacoma, Wash., was an interesting visitor in the city with Miss Inez Fairchild. Miss Ruthmary Burroughs is a former Portland girl now living in Wisconsin and is the guest of Mrs. L. R. Bailey. Miss Marguerite Weber of Helena, Mont., is the guest of Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Lucile McKay of Tacoma, Wash., was an interesting visitor in the city with Miss Inez Fairchild. Miss Ruthmary Burroughs is a former Portland girl now living in Wisconsin and is the guest of Mrs. L. R. Bailey. Miss Marguerite Weber of Helena, Mont., is the guest of Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Ruthmary Burroughs is a former Portland girl now living in Wisconsin and is the guest of Mrs. L. R. Bailey. Miss Marguerite Weber of Helena, Mont., is the guest of Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Marguerite Weber of Helena, Mont., is the guest of Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Alice Flanagan in Irvington.

Miss Ruth Streyseller of Seattle is Guest of Honor of Mrs. Sturm

Miss Ruth Streyseller of Seattle who has been a visitor in the city for a short time at the home of her sister, Mrs. John C. Sturm, at No. 1184 East Nineteenth street, has been the guest of honor at several affairs during the week. Mrs. Sturm entertained her sister at a bridge tea of four tables Thursday afternoon and several informal luncheons occupied the earlier part of the week. Friday Mrs. Leon H. Peters was hostess for a bridge luncheon at her home in Irvington for the visitor. Guests included Miss Streyseller, Mrs. J. Raymond Martin, Mrs. Robert Chamberland, Mrs. Harry C. Vorse, Mrs. Jean Campbell, Mrs. M. Daly, Mrs. Joseph Halley, Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and Mrs. Stinson Gannett of The Dalles and Mrs. Sturm. Miss Streyseller left Portland Friday evening for her home.

Mrs. Thomas Foster Metcalf was hostess Saturday for a tea at her home in honor of Miss Madeline Garland, daughter of Ex-Senator and Mrs. Samuel Garland of Lebanon, whose marriage to Mr. Walter Dunn Lampert will take place the latter part of this month. At the tea table Mrs. Hollis Johnston and Mrs. Fred Howard Young presided and were assisted in serving by Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and Mrs. Stinson Gannett of The Dalles and Mrs. Sturm. Miss Streyseller left Portland Friday evening for her home.

Miss Hazel Hall has returned to Portland after a delightful visit as the guest of Mr. Samuel C. Lancaster at his camp in Columbia river gorge near Eagle creek. Miss Hall, who is a writer by vocation and who has met with unusual success in her work, found the camp a beauty spot which would find favor in the eyes of many writers and others who are seeking a quiet resort for vacation days.

Miss Dorothy Lyon was hostess for a bridge tea Tuesday in honor of Miss Dorothy Metcalf, bride-elect of Mr. Willard P. Hawley. The guests included Mrs. Walter Metcalf, Mrs. M. Daly, Mrs. Joseph Halley, Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and Mrs. Stinson Gannett of The Dalles and Mrs. Sturm. Miss Streyseller left Portland Friday evening for her home.

Clyde Beale, son of E. A. Beale, formerly of Portland but now of San Francisco, is foreign correspondent for the New York Herald, with headquarters in Dublin. Mr. Beale, who was a Reed college student and later a member of the news writing staff of The Journal, won a scholarship from Columbia university and has been traveling abroad more than two years.

Miss Caroline Schott was hostess Friday for a tea in honor of Miss Harriette Walters, whose marriage to Mr. Nathan Boynton Thomas took place Saturday, and Miss Dorothy Lyon, bride-elect of Mr. Blaine R. Smith. Miss Evelyn Thatcher and Miss Dorothy Thatcher presided at the tea table, and assisting about the rooms were Miss Charlotte Malbouet, Miss Louise Odel, Miss Thyra St. Clair and Miss Virginia Thatcher.

Miss Fay King, known all over the country as a cartoonist and special feature writer, is a visitor in Portland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack King, in Raleigh street. Miss King is a member of the staff of the New York Evening Journal.

Mrs. Jordan V. Zan has returned to Portland from Victoria, B. C., where she has been spending a part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Chaney have returned to the city from Gearhart, where they spent the last week-end.

Miss Youngson Tea Hostess On Thursday

Miss Honor Youngson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Youngson, who will leave the city soon to enter a French school in New York, was hostess for a delightful tea Thursday at her home in honor of Miss Dorothy Lyon, bride-elect of Mr. Blaine R. Smith and Miss Frances Cook whose marriage to Dr. John A. Sarratt will take place in September. At the tea table which was made unusually attractive with an arrangement of summer flowers Miss Marian Farrell and Miss Helms Fitzgerald presided at the tea and the less. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Bertha Peterson, Miss Mildred Moreland, Miss Jeanette White and Miss Gertrude Johnson. About 75 maids and matrons called during the afternoon.

Among the visitors during the last week at the Sign of the Bow-Bell tea shop on Columbia river highway were Mrs. Ludwig Hirsch, who entertained Monday for Mrs. H. J. Ottenheimer, Mrs. Julius Louison and Miss Newberger of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerling of Astoria, Mrs. Donald Spenser Saturday entertained Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, Mrs. Abe Tichner entertained for tea Monday for Mrs. F. E. Moore. Those calling for supper Monday were Mrs. Helen Hirsch, Mrs. Herrensoph and Miss Ann Herrensoph.

Mrs. George F. Fuller was hostess Thursday for a bridge tea at her home in East 58th street, honoring Mrs. William Reginald Jackson of Kansas City, who is a visitor here for the summer months. Two tables were placed for bridge, and at the tea hour Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt and Mrs. Frederick Alva Jacobson presided at the tables. Miss Lavelle Florence, Miss Dorothy Church and Mrs. Howard Comstock Chariton.

Miss Anna M. Grau of Cincinnati, Ohio, left Portland for her home Saturday evening, after a pleasant vacation spent here. Her departure was regretted by many friends, who are hoping to learn of her early return to the coast. Miss Grau proved a charming inspiration for many social functions and science of Harvard, Mrs. Cabot is a member of the board of education of Massachusetts.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cabot were guests during last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lovich. Dr. Cabot is one of the leading physicians of Boston and is head of the department of physics and science of Harvard. Mrs. Cabot is a member of the board of education of Massachusetts.

Miss Harriet Broughton, bride-elect of Mr. Clarence M. Bishop, arrived from Dayton, Wash., the middle of last week, and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Spenser, now visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Asheim and children are registered at the Benson en route from Seaside to their home in Spokane, Wash. They visited Mrs. Asheim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wise, at Astoria.

St. Charles parish will hold its annual picnic on Council Crest on Labor day. An attractive program of athletic events with prizes for the winners has been arranged.

Mrs. John Cabean Beatty was hostess Wednesday for a tea in honor of Mrs. Samuel Thompson Halsted. At the tea hour Mrs. Thomas Kerr and Mrs. John C. Ainsworth presided at the table.

Judge and Mrs. W. N. Gatens and daughter Helengray and Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Hedlund and son Billie have returned from a fortnight's motor trip through Eastern and Southern Oregon.

Mrs. Helen Page left Thursday to spend the month of September at Riverside, Saybrook, Connecticut.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Chamberlain are spending a short time at Hood River.

Miss Nadine Caswell entertained at a luncheon at her home for Mrs. William Reginald Jackson Saturday.

Mrs. Dan Martin has returned to her home in the city, after having spent most of the summer in Washington.

Two teas given for the pleasure of a number of interesting out of town visitors were arranged by Mrs. Thomas G. Halley, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. Several of Mrs. Halley's friends presided at the tea tables and during the serving hours for both afternoons who assisted about the rooms were Miss Isabella Gault, Mrs. Henry Clay Judd, Mrs. Margaret Biddle, Miss Louise Litchcomb, Miss Virginia Mears and Miss Katherine Kerr.

Miss Youngson Tea Hostess On Thursday

Miss Honor Youngson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Youngson, who will leave the city soon to enter a French school in New York, was hostess for a delightful tea Thursday at her home in honor of Miss Dorothy Lyon, bride-elect of Mr. Blaine R. Smith and Miss Frances Cook whose marriage to Dr. John A. Sarratt will take place in September. At the tea table which was made unusually attractive with an arrangement of summer flowers Miss Marian Farrell and Miss Helms Fitzgerald presided at the tea and the less. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Bertha Peterson, Miss Mildred Moreland, Miss Jeanette White and Miss Gertrude Johnson. About 75 maids and matrons called during the afternoon.

Among the visitors during the last week at the Sign of the Bow-Bell tea shop on Columbia river highway were Mrs. Ludwig Hirsch, who entertained Monday for Mrs. H. J. Ottenheimer, Mrs. Julius Louison and Miss Newberger of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerling of Astoria, Mrs. Donald Spenser Saturday entertained Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis, Mrs. Abe Tichner entertained for tea Monday for Mrs. F. E. Moore. Those calling for supper Monday were Mrs. Helen Hirsch, Mrs. Herrensoph and Miss Ann Herrensoph.

Mrs. George F. Fuller was hostess Thursday for a bridge tea at her home in East 58th street, honoring Mrs. William Reginald Jackson of Kansas City, who is a visitor here for the summer months. Two tables were placed for bridge, and at the tea hour Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt and Mrs. Frederick Alva Jacob