

TOURISTS TO JOIN LOCAL CROWD IN TRIP TO ROUND-UP

Reservations on Journal Special Half Gone—Biggest Show on Record Is Now Assured.

Visitors from the Atlantic Coast and California will join Portlanders this year in their annual excursion aboard the Journal special train to the Pendleton Round-Up.

This recognition by tourists from distant points that The Journal offers the best way to attend the "Let 'Er Buck" celebration is one reason why half of the reservations aboard the special train already have been taken.

With 10 days remaining until the special train pulls out of the Union station for the annual frolic in Eastern Oregon, Dorsey B. Smith, manager of The Journal travel bureau, believes that he will have trouble accommodating some of the late requests.

PENDELTON'S BIGGEST SHOW

From the committee in charge of the Round-Up celebration has come advice that the show this year will excel anything Pendleton ever attempted before. A greater appropriation has been made for the show and several members of the committee were in Portland last week signing up some additional talent.

Because of the extra funds the Pendleton committee has been able to reach far out in to the cow country of the West and obtain the most expert riders and wilddest horses to be found on the range. This combination of the worst horses and the best riders will add to the enjoyment of the afternoon shows.

Enlargement of the night show program has been arranged by the committee. Some unique features likewise have been added to Happy Canyon.

COMMITTEE ON TOURS

Everybody in Pendleton is cooperating in the plan for the show this year. The promise of some special parties from the East and a group of distinguished writers to attend the show, has placed the show committee on its toes.

The Journal special will leave the Union station at 11 p. m. September 21, and arrive in Pendleton the following morning. Smith will be personal director of the tour. The return trip will be made following the night show Saturday.

Under the fare of $42.50 will be included the transportation, Pullman reservation, meals and grandstand tickets to the Round-Up features and for Happy Canyon. The special will be parked in the main street at Pendleton so that the visitors will be given opportunity to remain in the center of activities during the week.

Judge Bloomfield Dies at Seaview At Age of 73 Years

Judge Nathaniel H. Bloomfield, prominent in legal circles in Oregon and Washington for many years, and formerly an attorney in Portland, died Friday at Seaview, Wash., at the age of 73 years. The body was brought to Portland and is at Finley's undertaking establishment. Funeral services will be held probably Friday.

Judge Bloomfield came to the Northwest from St. Louis in the early '70s. He was district attorney in Washington in territorial days, and when it became a state, he was elected judge of five river counties, including Klickitat, Clark and Skamania. He lived first at Kalama and later at Vancouver.

Twelve years later he entered partnership with the late W. Byron Daniels in Portland, where he practiced law for several years. Ten years ago he removed to Seaview. He had been in ill health for several years. He is survived by his wife, who was the daughter of former Judge Petrain of Vancouver.

Judge Bloomfield was a life-long Republican and a practical lawyer and had a reputation for absolute fairness in all his decisions. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and of the Red Men.
