

Lincoln

By George Watkins Story
LINCOLN High school opened the fall term of 1922 last Tuesday morning and more than 1000 students registered on the first day.

Several changes in the personnel of the faculty were noted following the summer vacation just completed, among them being the return of Miss Elizabeth McLaw who replaces Mrs. L. C. Hill of the English department.

Last term it was Miss Grace Lilly and Miss Cecile Sawyer but since the spring term each has changed her name. Miss Lilly is now Mrs. Patton and is a science instructor at Lincoln, while Miss Sawyer now must be addressed as Mrs. Oliver.

The first call for football practice at Lincoln high brought out 35 candidates last Thursday and on Friday the boys were given their first workout under the direction of Coach H. J. Campbell who coached the Halapitters two years ago.

During the final week of school last term, the Toglianos elected officers for the fall term and the newly elected students are: Raymond H. Sutherland, president; Walter Kehrill, vice president; Herbert Kuykendall, secretary; Fred Templeton, treasurer; Robert Birch, sergeant-at-arms, and Robert Gilley, editor.

President May Agle Barr called a meeting of the Philoleles, the only girls' literary society at Lincoln high, last Thursday afternoon at their regular meeting.

A large number of Lincoln graduates are planning on entering the University of Oregon the latter part of this month. Among them are: Phyllis Olin, Helen Crisp, Eleanor Goldman, Margaret Hughes, Ninou Trenkman, Jean Starweather, Eleanor Wright, Wesley McWhorter, Francis Mickey, Joe Lipschutz, Paul R. Krause, president of the January '22 class; Robert Gardner, Jack Wells, Otto Maurer Jr. and Jimmie Taylor.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Benson Tech

By Bill Tennent
BENSON registered the largest freshman class in its history on Wednesday when 450 new students were registered. This is the largest class of boys ever registered.

Benson's library has received a number of new books during the past summer months. Several of the books were of a technical nature and were needed badly.

The "Tech Pep" staff being anxious to get down to real business as soon as possible has appointed a temporary staff. The acting editor is William Klien, who is being assisted by A. C. Seidigkeit.

The "Tech Pep" staff being anxious to get down to real business as soon as possible has appointed a temporary staff. The acting editor is William Klien, who is being assisted by A. C. Seidigkeit.

The "Tech Pep" staff being anxious to get down to real business as soon as possible has appointed a temporary staff. The acting editor is William Klien, who is being assisted by A. C. Seidigkeit.

The "Tech Pep" staff being anxious to get down to real business as soon as possible has appointed a temporary staff. The acting editor is William Klien, who is being assisted by A. C. Seidigkeit.

The "Tech Pep" staff being anxious to get down to real business as soon as possible has appointed a temporary staff. The acting editor is William Klien, who is being assisted by A. C. Seidigkeit.

The "Tech Pep" staff being anxious to get down to real business as soon as possible has appointed a temporary staff. The acting editor is William Klien, who is being assisted by A. C. Seidigkeit.

Washington

By Alice Sumner
THE students as well as the teachers of Washington High school welcomed six new teachers this year. Miss Cadie, Miss Doble and Mr. Major are the English teachers.

Miss Lansfield was very glad to get back to the library with her new assistant, Miss Helen Zinsmeister. The library has an addition of about 200 books this year.

The Hi-Y club has a very live set of officers this year with Jim Winston, president; Chet Ireland, vice president; Bob Warner, secretary-treasurer and Bob Lursen, editor.

Special examinations were held Thursday at 8:30 for those who attended summer school or failed to take the examinations last term.

The majority of last term's faculty are in charge again. In addition to these there are the following: Miss Fields, English; Miss MacKenzie, history; Miss Gage, mathematics; Miss Hammer, history; Miss Smith, English; Mr. Harrington, English; and Mr. Heist, science.

A new gymnasium floor that is a big improvement over the old one has been laid during the summer at a cost of $4000 and the building has been entirely repainted both inside and out.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Jefferson

By John Leboe
WITH an enrollment of 2039 pupils on opening day and 100 more expected to enroll before the week is out, Jefferson high opened for the fall term with the largest attendance on record since it was organized 15 years ago.

Under Head Coach Quigley, preliminary football practice has been going on for two weeks. At the end of this period 60 men were answering roll call and from this aggregation the coach expects to pick the team that will try to bring Jefferson her fifth consecutive championship.

A new gymnasium floor that is a big improvement over the old one has been laid during the summer at a cost of $4000 and the building has been entirely repainted both inside and out.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Franklin

By Jane Frampton
FRANKLIN is busily engaged in its regular work after spending Tuesday and Wednesday in registering.

Special examinations were held Thursday at 8:30 for those who attended summer school or failed to take the examinations last term.

The majority of last term's faculty are in charge again. In addition to these there are the following: Miss Fields, English; Miss MacKenzie, history; Miss Gage, mathematics; Miss Hammer, history; Miss Smith, English; Mr. Harrington, English; and Mr. Heist, science.

A new gymnasium floor that is a big improvement over the old one has been laid during the summer at a cost of $4000 and the building has been entirely repainted both inside and out.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

A letter received by Portland friends conveys the information that Wallie Bowles, captain of the Lincoln high football team last year, is traveling in Europe and he plans on going to college in Switzerland before returning to the United States.

Janice Damon, January '22, and Hortense Bieker, June '22, will leave shortly for Cambridge, Mass., where they will enter the Sargent School for Physical Education, Endicott Newton, also June '22, is in Europe where she will remain for two years studying music in Paris.

During the summer vacation, Herman Nentze, June '22, was in Chicago preparing to enter the University of Chicago Medical school.

Members of the faculty of the Ellison-White Conservatory of Music have returned from various points for the opening of the school on September 11.

The first of a series of recitals was held at the Modern Conservatory of Music last Tuesday evening. Carolyn King, June '22, has left for Moro, Or., where she has accepted a position in one of the grammar schools of that district.

Dictionary of Baby Terms

"C" Continued
COW'S MILK. When it is necessary to resort to artificial food for your baby, cow's milk is the best food to employ.

Simple mixtures of cow's milk usually agree with babies better than any fancy feeding or prepared foods. Most babies even at a few weeks of age can take a food made of one part milk and two parts water.

For feeding your baby, it is well to follow the modified milk directions prepared by the American Medical Association. These directions have been tried and found very satisfactory.

CRACKERS. Crackers are a very much abused article of food in the diet of babies and young children. They are entirely for the convenience of the mother to give rather than they are eaten in excess.

CREeping. A baby usually begins to creep at seven to nine months of age. Some babies never creep, however, but learn to walk as soon as they are strong enough.

CROSS-EYES. During early babyhood a condition that is known as squint-eye or cross-eye is common. Usually this adjusts itself and need cause the mother no great anxiety.

CROUP. Croup is one of the common ills of babyhood. It is very distressing but practically never fatal. The onset is usually very sudden.

CURDS. Curds may be present in the movements. Fine soft curds which can be flattened out mean too much cream in the diet.

CUTS. In the case of cuts, first stop the hemorrhage, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

DIARRHOEA. In the case of diarrhoea, where it is excessive, by holding a piece of sterile gauze held firmly over the bleeding spot or bound tightly over the cut with a bandage.

Overstuffed Furniture in the New Fall Patterns

For many years this great store has been headquarters for fine living room furniture because we only place on display the work of the finest builders of good furniture in America today.

Every Overstuffed Parlor Suite or Odd Dayenport Is Reduced 10% to 20%

Tapestry Dayenports 3 Loose Cushions $63.50 and $72.50
3-Pc. Suite in Tapestry Loose Comfy Cushions $149.50

RUGS

9x12 Ft. Perfect Axminster Rugs $39.75

Liberty Range On Sale This Week. Illustration of a large, ornate piano.

Six-Piece William and Mary Dining Set $64.75. Illustration of a round dining table with six chairs.

Sale of Dining Chairs $4.50. Complete Home Outfits $495. Illustration of a dining chair and a bedroom outfit.

Bedroom Furniture of Striking Beauty Now Priced at Lower Levels. Illustration of a bedroom furniture set including a bed, dresser, and chest.

DRESSER SPECIAL $19.75. COMBINATION RANGES. Illustration of a dresser and a kitchen range.

Table with columns for 'No Interest Charged at Gadsbys', 'WORTH OF FURNITURE', and 'CASH' with various price points.

Wm. GADSBY & SONS CORNER SECOND AND MORRISON STREETS