GIRLS FRIENDLY SOCIETY WORTHY CHURCH WORKERS

Duties of Auxiliary Organization of Episcopal Church Are Divited Into Seven Phases.

One of the many interesting consti-tu-Jonal organizations of the Woman's Auxfliary of the Episcopal church is epresented at the General Convention low in session is the Girls Friendly Society which includes in its world membership more than 450,000 girls and women between the ages of five years and mature womanhood. At the auditorium and at their headquarters at the Portland hotel are unique models and many posters explaining in a practical way the work of the organization which is non-sectarian and inludes all paces and creeds and every type of girl from the debutante to the ndustrial worker. The leaders of the society are called associates and are communicants of the Episcopal church. Among the officers of the organizaion who are in Portland are Miss Frances W. Sibley president of the Girls Friendly society in America, whose home is in Detroit, Mich. Due o the effects of an accident. Miss Sibley was uncertain until the last moment as to whether she would be able to attend the convention in Port-land so that Miss Sarah B. Hopkins

SERVICES VOLUNTARY

Miss Sibley is a member of a pioneer family of Detroit and has traveled all over the world in the interests of the organization and her service is en-tirely voluntary. Miss Allee Simrail of Cincinnoti, O., is also a visitor here. Miss Simrall is branch secretary of Christ Church, Cincinnati and is an authority on girl's work because in her own branch there are more, than 750 young women of all classes. Miss Mary Jacobs of Los Angeles, Cal., vice-president of the 8th Province of the church, Miss Florence Newbold, national extension secretary from New York headquarters and Miss May Case. secretary for the western province are also with the department here during the period of the convention.

The work of the Giris Friendly So ciety is divided into seven departments including the candidates' work which has to do with the junior program of work, play and worship; the Commendation department which cares for time girl traveling alone and works in cooperation with the National Travelers' Aid society and also introduces a girl from one branch to another in dif-ferent localities.

The department of Holiday Houses maintains summer camps and places of recreation for its members and their friends. There is also a department of literature to develop the girl intellectually in which drama clubs are rent event and other instructive courses are arranged.

The department of missions seeks to Friendly society for missions. In the to a halt. social service department the value of service to others is demonstrated. Rest rooms, dormitories, settlement and hosclasses for leaders are maintained. PROGRAM FLEXIBLE

The society's program is sufficiently flexible to suit the rural as well as the city district. It cooperates with organizations in the church and has adapted its program to the Church School Service league. It is nationally affiliated with the Girl Scouts and has its own troops, its working being a vital part of the 'teen age program of the society, which also cooperates with the boys' organizations of the

The convention program of the Girls Friendly society will include a cor-porate communion at St. Davids church Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock; a mass meeting at 8 p. m. at the Church of Our Father (Unitarian) Monday evening, Rt. Rev. Theodore Irving Reese, bishop coadjutor of Souhtern Ohio presiding. At this time Miss Florence L. Newbold, extension secretary of the organization will speak on the national organization. The Rt. Rev. James Wise, bishop of Kansas, will speak of the society in the diocase. The Girls Friendly society as a force in the life of a parish will be liscussed by the Rev. Frank H. Nelson, Christ Church, Cincinnati, Ohio. BECEPTION PLANNED

A reception will be held at the se lety's headquarters at the Portland hotel the afternoon of September 13. Miss Alice Simrail will lead a con ference on the affairs of the society at the Portland hotel, Tuesday, September 12 when the history and the national organization will be discussed. "Principles and Ideals of the Girls Friendly Society" will be the subject of the discussion Friday, September 15. # STAGE CEREMONY OF NAMING ROSE Impressive Affair to Be Held at The Auditorium; Episcopal Guests to Be Present.

The most impressive rose ceremony ever staged in Portland will take place next Saturday evening at The Auditorium, when the Royal Rosarians will have charge of the evening.

It will be the only occasion throughout the Episcopal convention when the city and state and the delegates will unite. All other meetings of the convention are given over to church work, but on that evening the meeting will be of a civic character. Governor Olcott will welcome the delegates on behalf of the state, and Mayor Baker will greet them in the name of the city of Portland, after which will come the ceremony of formally naming the new rose, which last year won the gold medals in the International Rose Gardens in Washington park.

NAMING OF ROSE

This rose was produced by Captain George C. Thomas of Philadelphia and will be named for his mother, Mrs. George C. Thomas Sr. For more than 20 years the father of Captain Thomas, who was a partner of the late J. Pierpont Morgan and the head of Drexel & Co., the bankers, was treasurer of the Episcopal church and his mother has been a most liberal contributor to church work.

Captain Thomas selected his mother's name for the new rose, be-cause while he was in the war in command of the first bombing expedition against the Germans, his mother gave his rose productions care and attention and it was during that time that this rose which has won the gold medal of the American Rose society flowered. Following the naming of the rose the trophies will be presented to Captain Thomas by City Commissioner S. C. Pier, and following this, honorary knighthood in the Royal Rosarians will be conferred upon a group of the distinguished delegates to the convention. TO HONOR GUESTS

The object of this and the assigning of a rose to the care of those knighted will be to give the visitors some reminder of their journey in Portland and at the same time the roses as-signed to them will be planted in the Royal Rosarian Garden to be plated this fall in Washington park, and Portland will have a permanent re-minder of the big convention.

Following this, the address of the evening will be made by Bishop Nathaniel B. Thomas of Wyoming. During the evening there will be an organ recital by Lucien Becker and musical program by the Royal Rosarian band. Admission to The Auditorium on Saturday evening will be by ticket.

DESCENDANTS OF PIONEER Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers will hold an "At Home" picni meeting next Saturday afternoon and evening in the Penisula park commu-Mary Barlow Wilkins, and Judge
