BISHOP'S VOTE TO DROP OBEY IN MARRIAGE

Executive Session on Record as Favoring Identical Vow for Man and Woman; Another Resolution Hits at Birth Control.

Bishops of the Episcopal church, assembled in informal executive session at the Auditorium about 10 days ago, voted to drop the words "obey and serve" from the woman's marriage vow; took a slap at birth control and opposed elimination of the man's vow to endow his wife with "all my worldly goods," it developed in this morning's session of the General Convention, when printed reports of the action of the secret sessions were distributed.

Interesting revelations contained in the report of the pre-convention meeting include:

(1) Recommendation to make the promise of the man and woman in the marriage service identical, thus omitting the words "obey" and "serve" in the woman's promise.

(2) The inclusion of the phrase "with all my worldly goods I thee endow," in opposition to the recommendation of the commission on prayer book revision, which omitted it.

(3) A blow at birth control in the adoption of an additional prayer in the marriage service which reads as follows: "Bless, O God, we pray thee, the union of these thy servants, that it may be fruitful according to thy purpose, and enable them to train in health of body and of soul the children whom thou givest them; through Jesus Christ thy Son and our Lord Amen."

(4) Adoption of a prayer for a blessing on the home of newly-weds: "That it may be a haven of blessing and of peace."

(5) Favored omission from the prayer of all reference to the wedded life of Isaac and Rebecca.

(6) Favored elimination of the words "in the time of man's innocence," which refer to the lines of the office stating that marriage was "instituted of God in the time of man's innocence."

(7) Opposed elimination of the following sentences: "Which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence and first miracle, that he wrought in Cana of Galilee, and is commended of St. Paul to be honorable among all men."

(8) Opposed substitution of the following: "If any persons are joined among all men."

NORTHERN GREEK ARMY ALSO RETIRES; ALLIED FLEET MAY HALT TURK MOVE

London, Sept. 11.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek army, which was massed in Thrace to menace Constantinople from the north, is withdrawing, according to advices received today from Constantinople. Newspapers predict that the allies will concentrate a fleet of British airships along the Dardanelles and Sea of Marmora to prevent the Turks from trying to cross into Thrace.

Athens, Sept. 11.—(I. N. S.)—The new Greek cabinet, headed by M. Triantafyllakos, who holds the post of premier, minister of war and minister of marine, began to function today after taking the oath to support the crown. It will attempt to avert a domestic catastrophe. As the new ministers are moderate, sensational reports are current. One is that former Premier Venizelos will attempt to return if King Constantine will abdicate. Greek military headquarters have been removed to the island of Chios in the Aegean sea.

Typus 'is reported to have broken out among the Greek refugees at Smyrna.

Near East relief workers at Smyrna report that their supplies have become exhausted. Thousands of fugitives are blocking the roads leading to Smyrna. The misery is acute. Many are dying of starvation.

TURKS ENTER SMYRNA; OCCUPATION IS ORDERLY

Smyrna, Asia Minor, Sept. 11.—Two regiments of Turkish cavalry, commanded by Col. Saliheddin Bey, entered the city at 11 a. m. Saturday, followed by a number of irregulars. The discipline of the troops was excellent and even the irregulars seemed to obey smartly the orders of the officers in command. The colonel, after having established his headquarters, received the officers of the allies and the American naval officers. He issued orders in the name of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, warning his troops that any attempts on the lives of Christians or destruction of their property would be punished with immediate death.

These orders were not in vain. In the morning a Greek civilian threw a bomb at the officers leading the advanced guard, wounding two of them, but the Turks did not retaliate. Greek law enforcement officers, including the British and American consuls, were also present.

MRS. HARDING HALT EFFORT TO IMPEACH DAUGHERTY AS IMPROVED

Bulletin Gives Temperature as 99.5, Pulse 96, Respiration 30; Night Is Less Restless; Proposed Operation Postponed

Washington, Sept. 11.—(U. P.)—Continued improvement in the condition of Mrs. Harding has led attending physicians to postpone any operation, an official bulletin issued today stated. The bulletin, issued by Brigadier General Sawyer at 10.15 a. m. stated:

"Temperature 99.5 degrees. "Pulse 96. "Respiration 30. "Night less restless. Elimination increased. Complications subsiding. General appearances indicate improvement. Operation procedure deferred. (Signed) "C. E. Sawyer."

The phrase "elimination increased" referred to Mrs. Harding's increased ability to throw off effects of the poison and prevent further auto-intoxication.

President Harding and those constantly in attendance on Mrs. Harding since she became critically ill were greatly cheered by the encouraging reports coming from the sick room during the day.

Although elimination from the kidneys continued to increase, efforts are still being made by hot application to hasten the flow of waste matter. The surgeons fear that an operation might prove fatal in Mrs. Harding's present weakened condition.

Secretary of the Navy Denby left the White House at 3.30 p. m. with the news that Mr. Harding was still maintaining the improvement she had made last night and today and that there was a general feeling among the physicians and surgeons at the bedside that an operation might not be necessary to save her life.

Washington, Sept. 11.—(I. N. S.)—After lingering between life and death for three days, Mrs. Warren G. Harding, wife of the president, is improving today and the contemplated operation upon her kidneys has been deferred pending further developments, according to an official bulletin issued from the White House shortly after 10 o'clock.

He called at the White House shortly before 6 o'clock inquiring concerning Mrs. Harding's condition. (Concluded on Page Three, Column Five)

HALL'S SILENT AS TO NOMINATION

Senator Charles Hall of Marshfield, after being named as a possible candidate for governor by "an assembly of electors," which met at the Pythian hall Saturday night, "has nothing to say" until after he has conferred with the leaders of that meeting today, he said.

Senator Hall, who came to Portland from Marshfield last night, is registered at the Benson. He insists that he knows nothing about the meeting Saturday night, and he did not know it was held, until his leadership it was staged, or who is behind it.

He came to Portland, he says, to attend to private business, and with no inkling of the Saturday meeting. He has been busy all morning, and at noon was at a busy assembly with the personal matters which brought him to the city. He had a meeting scheduled, however, for the early afternoon, he said, with the leaders of the Saturday night assembly, at which time he intended to go over the action of that gathering and determine whether he will accept the nomination or decline it.

Under the law tomorrow, September 12, at the last day which nominations made by an assembly of electors can be filed with the secretary of state. It is also the last day upon which the names of candidates for governor, that nomination, so it will be necessary not only for the certificate of Saturday's meeting to be forwarded to Salem by tomorrow evening, but the acceptance of Hall will have to be placed in the hands of Secretary of State.

Complete Revision Of Income Tax Law Proposed by King

Washington, Sept. 11.—(I. N. S.)—A complete revision of the present income tax law applying to individuals and corporations was proposed in the senate this afternoon by Senator King, Democrat of Utah.

The proposed revision would substitute a single graduated tax for the present normal and surtaxes and wipe out the dividend exemption. He also proposed a new graduated direct profits tax on corporations, which, he said, would force big monopolies to disintegrate in order to escape the higher rates.

Hot Wave To Remain Two Days

Record breaking high temperatures, which moved into Western Oregon, Sunday, will continue for at least two days, according to forecast of the district weather office today.

While the climb of the mercury Sunday stopped at 91 degrees, the elements have today and Tuesday to try for a higher record. The weather office was of the opinion that temperatures would remain close around the 90 mark or a little higher.

South of Portland the highest late season temperatures on record were reported. Medford had a temperature of 104 degrees. Roseburg 100, Red Bluff 108 and Sacramento 104.

A rise of only 2 degrees in the maximum temperature of Sunday would set a mark equal with the record high marks of September in last year's. These three record high marks were recorded in 1909, 1905 and 1886.

Humidity was high in Portland Sunday and made the heat seem more oppressive. At 5 p. m. a humidity report of 23 was taken by the weather office. Humidity was high again today with 80 reported at 5 a. m.

Northeasterly winds will continue in Portland tonight and Tuesday, and will bring more hot weather.

MARSHFIELD "OVER TOP"

Marshfield, Sept. 11.—When the mercury went up to 94 Sunday it reached the highest point on record at this place. In September, 1919, it went up to that point but recent records do not show it has ever been higher here. The temperature was going upward today at the noon hour.

AIRPLANES GUARD FORESTS

Duane, Sept. 11.—Sunday was the second hottest day of the year here. The mercury went to 84. Local predictions are 86 or 87 before today is done. The bulb stood at 84 this morning at 10 o'clock, with no relief in sight. Because of the resumption of the hot wave, five airplanes took flight here today from the squadron headquarters to guard Oregon forests from fire. This is the first time in almost a month that so many planes

LEAGUE IS ONLY WAY, SAYS BISHOP

America must either propose an association of nations superior to that proposed by the League of Nations or go into the league, said Rev. Charles H. Brent, bishop of New York and head of chaplains of the American Expeditionary Forces, in an address before the members of the Chamber of Commerce at noon today.

"When the Harding administration came into office, it came on the promise that some commonwealth of nations would be proposed and joined in by the United States," said Bishop Brent. "It is true the limitation of armaments caused an international agreement, but that must not be taken as a substitute for a League of Nations."

Bishop Brent was followed by Cyrus Pierce of Cyrus Pierce & Sons, finance house, who recently returned from Europe. Pierce echoed the sentiment of Bishop Brent, saying America has two courses to pursue—isolation or participation in world problems and the former he said could have but one result, and that would be 10 years of famine, wars and bolshevism.

Pierce branded as rot the thought that America could live isolated with a bankrupt Europe.

"America as a commercial nation cannot make entire reparations of Europe's debt, but it can at least do the decent thing and cut the debt in half," added Pierce. "Even $10,000,000,000 would be cheap for world peace and if we refuse to consider the matter from a political standpoint any longer and not get into foreign affairs on a humanitarian basis we might just as well kiss good bye to our prosperity."

ROBBERY OF COBB'S HOME NETS $3000

Portland Heights Residence Is Looted of Furs and Silver as Family Sleeps; $6000 Sedan Stolen to Haul Loot Is Found.

Systematic burglars, who Sunday night ransacked the home of F. J. Cobbs, No. 588 Montgomery drive, stole furs and silverware valued at $3000, loaded the articles into a $6000 sedan belonging to Cobbs, and escaped without attracting the attention of eight occupants of the house.

The loss was discovered by servants early this morning. Cobbs has as yet been unable to furnish a detailed list of all the missing articles.

The burglars ransacked every corner of the 22-room house, except the bedrooms occupied by the sleepers. They took two large suitcases full of loot, in addition to a sealink coat worth more than $1000 and a fur cape valued at half that amount.

Entrance was gained by jimmying a basement window. Police found clues in the way of fingerprints on glass doorknobs, a black silk cloth doubtless used as a mask, and a piece of orange peeling which was dropped in the house by the intruders. Police say the orange peeling may indicate the job was the work of drug addicts, as such men are known to have a craving for fruits.

The burglars took advantage of the big sedan parked in a driveway to make their getaway. The automobile had been left outside because the garage had been freshly painted.

Silverware stolen was worth about $1000, according to Mrs. Cobbs. After making ready to leave, the burglars helped themselves to Cobbs' cigars.

CLEMENCEAU TO SPEAK IN U. S.

(Copyright, 1922, by the United Press.) Paris, Sept. 11.—Georges Clemenceau is going to the United States to tell Americans they should attempt to help to shoulder with France and England the task of establishing world peace.

The old Tiger of France, who has been in virtual seclusion since his retirement from politics two years ago, made this decision in a telegram to the United Press.

He will make four speeches in America this year, according to present plans.

Clemenceau's telegram follows: "I consider that America magnificently accomplished all her duties of solidarity during the war, but in peace which is the goal of war, the duties of solidarity of each party are not exhausted by an arrangement of conditions whereby one of the parties may stand aside. I believe that if the solidarity had been maintained between America, France and England, then the present crisis would have been avoided. It cannot be solved without a recognition of that solidarity. I am disposed to go and express myself publicly on this in America before the end of the year."

(Signed) "CLEMENCEAU." Announcement of Clemenceau's opinion of the attitude of the United States was made by the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at the Y. M. C. A. building in New York.
