DEPOSED BISHOP TALKED OF FOR EASTERN OREGON

Paul Jones, D. D., deposed Socialist bishop, in charge of the diocese of Eastern Oregon, provided the resignation of the Rt. Rev. Robert L. Paddock is accepted, was started Monday by friends of Bishop Jones.

Bishop Jones was asked to resign his position as head of the missionary district of Utah during the late World war, when he is said to have declared that every American'soldier in France was a "murderer."

The campaign to date has consisted in the erection of a large number of posters on telephone poles, woodpiles and buildings near The Auditorium, and also in several windows and in the lobby of the Labor temple, where the Socialist headquarters are located. POSTERS A MYSTERY

No one, as yet, will admit having part in the printing and erection of the posters, the men at the Socialist office declaring the more "radical" of the Socialist party are to blame. The posters were torn down later in the day by city policemen or churchmen opposed to the work of the Socialist branch of the church.

One of the friends of Bishop Jones, who refused to be quoted, stated that he thought the move would do the bishop more harm than good. He compared the people responsible for it with Nicodemus and indicated that he would much rather have had them come out in the open and take their stand, than to have acted under cover. He also estimated that there were about 25 people here working in behalf

Although his resignation as bishop of Utah was accepted. Bishop Jones still retains his seat in the house of bishops and is allowed to administer confirmation at any church to which he is invited.

FIGHTS FOR PLACE

Bishop Jones is known to have several friends in the House of Bishops. whom it is said will fight hard for him if any opening presents itself for the election of a new missionary bishop. If the resignation of Bishop Paddock s not accepted, the house will probably have to appoint a suffragan There is no United States bishop to take care of the work, in which event Bishop Jones might be given that position temporarily.

given that position temporarily.

If supporters of Bishop Jones fail to get him the Eastern Oregon post, they plan to launch a campaign to have him elected the first bishop of the new diocese, which the convention plans to form in Haiti. plans to form in Haiti.

The posters read at the top, "An resenting the liberal element of the appeal to the Christian conscience of party. Sweet is indorsed by labor.
The bishops, rather than their states—
The fight between Lieutenant Govermanship." Under those lines was a large picture of the bishop and then the following words: "The Right Rev. Paul Jones, D. D., socialist bishop. "Hand-Troubles" Are Unheard of

Because the hand is always free. Foot troubles are common because in ordinary shoes the feet are hampered in their movements. Their freedom is restricted by the unyielding sole of the shoe. The muscles are cramped by a last that does not fit. But your feet are as free as Nature intended in the Cantilever Shoe. The shank is flexible. There is no steel "shank piece" in Canti-levers as in most shoes to check the play of the muscles. With every step the shoe bends as the foot bends. The muscles grow strong, enduring, healthy, from the exer-cise of walking. Thus Cantilevers strengthen weak arches and prevent and correct flat foot.
