Middleton's Work Helps Beavers Win

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 21. — Twice overcoming a lead, the Portland Beavers defeated Sacramento Wednesday, 10 to 8. The Beavers jumped back into seventh place as the result of the victory.

The Beavers scored a run in the first inning, but Sacramento came back strong and knocked Yarrison off the mound. Manager Middleton replaced Yarrison and, although the first man to face him crashed out a double, the Beaver boss kept the Solons from scoring runs in bunches during the rest of the game.

Portland came back with four runs in the second inning and tied the count in the third.

Sacramento scored in the fourth and sixth innings, which gave the Solons a lead of one run. The Beavers counted three times in the eighth, and Sacramento came back with one run. Portland scored again in the ninth.

Both clubs made 13 hits. The game was loosely played, Portland making five errors and Sacramento four. Score:

Notre Dame Grid Coach Faces Task

By Lawrence Perry

(By Special Leased Wire to The Journal) (Copyright, 1922).

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The football genius of Knute Rockne, coach at Notre Dame, will be tested this year as never before.

A letter received today from Rockne states that not a few subs, however, are available as a necleus—such players as Catner in the backfield, Colton and Lieb, tackles, and Carberry an end.

In addition there seems to be an abundance of fine former freshman material. Thus, by the end of the season, Rockne's hopes to have a team that comes pretty well up to standard will be determined in the Georgia Tech contest, October 28, which will be the first rigorous test. It will also give a line-up on Notre Dame's chances against Army, Nebraska and Indiana.

NEBRASKA POINTS

Meanwhile Nebraska is pointing to the Notre Dame struggle. The Cornhuskers should drool along pretty easily until they run against Syracuse in the Salt City, November 4. They will get more than a fair test in that game. These play Kansas at Lawrence, Kan., Armistice day. The Jayhawkers are loaded for bear this year. Army is interested in this information because she entertains Kansas at the Point on October 7. Well, if Nebraska gets by all these games victoriously, she should certainly tackle Notre Dame at Lincoln on Thanksgiving day in a spirit of optimism.

Speaking of coaching systems being tested, Yale mentors this season will be tried with acid. This chiefly because of all the big three institutions the Ely material is the best by all odds. Yale adherents justifiably will expect much of Tad Jones and his assistants this season.

PRINCETON HAS NUCLEUS

While Princeton enthusiasts are mourning the loss of many veterans, it does seem that Alford, center; Dickinson and Baker, guards; Treat and Wills, tackles; Smively, end, and Smith, Wingate, Cleaves, Stinson, Von Gerbig and Gorman available for the backfield, comprise a fat nucleus that would delight any coach.

One of those unfortunate hitches in schedules has just come up. Catholic university, which was to meet Lehigh at South Bethlehem, October 7, has asked to be released from the date because of the late opening of college and consequent unprepared condition of her men. And Lehigh, unable to secure a suitable opponent at this late date, seems minded to hold Catholic university to her engagement.

PENNANT DOPE

By International News Service

WHILE the Yanks increased their advantage in the pennant race the Giants lost ground yesterday. The Yanks have a lead of 3½ games, while the Giants' margin is 4½ games.

While the Browns were losing their third straight game yesterday the Yanks won from Detroit and increased their lead. The Giants lost to the Pirates and had their lead reduced.

The Yanks have eight more games to play and the Browns seven. The Yanks need five victories out of the eight games to clinch the pennant, even though the Browns win all their games. The standing then would be:

	Won.	Lost.
New York	95	58
St. Louis	94	60

If the Yanks lose half of their games St. Louis can only tie them by winning all their seven games.

The Giants need seven victories out of their remaining 12 games to win out even if the Pirates win all their nine games. The standing then would be:

	Won.	Lost.
New York	93	61
Pittsburg	92	62

If the Giants lose half of their 12 games Pittsburg can tie them by winning the remaining games they have to play.

BOXING

(By United News)

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The first "mixed" fight in New York under the present boxing law on the cards for next Tuesday night, probably will be used as a precedent to justify the Dempsey-Wills affair, if and when the promotion of the heavyweight championship battle reaches that advanced stage.

Irish Johnny Curtin of New Jersey is to battle Danny Edwards, Oakland negro boy, who came east with a screaming reputation which has been subdued hereabouts, however, to a timid murmur. Curtin, who is accounted just one of the lads among Eastern bantams, already holds one victory over Edwards, who likewise has a win over Johnny.

Good Twirling Faced Must Do Unexpected

By Davis J. Walsh

International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(I. N. S.)—George Mogridge today, Rommell tomorrow, Hasty or Harris the next day, and so on; then "Red" Faber, Nohit Robertson and Ted Blankenship, the St. Louis Browns have seven ball games to play before they reach the wire and the pitchers mentioned above are the men they will face, barring the unforeseen.

Are they first class pitchers? You answer that one by asking this: "Can Paddock run; do wheat contracts sink; can Bryan talk?"

The Browns are now 3½ to the rear of the Yanks. The latter need only get an even break on their remaining eight games to force the Browns to win seven straight to beat them and six out of seven to tie. However, the proof of the matter lies not with the Yanks but with the Browns.

Suppose, for example, they can win only three games in seven starts. The Yanks then could lose all of their remaining games and yet get a tie.

The promise concerning the Browns is not an improbable one. Rommell, who has won 26 games with a seventh place club, is almost certain to beat them. Faber and Blankenship are in top form, having held the Athletics to a pair of runs in a doubleheader yesterday; Mogridge is moving along fine, and both Hasty and Harris have turned in fine performances in recent games. Indeed it is not at all inconceivable that the Browns will drop the majority of their remaining games, even against less opposition than the schedule has arranged.

Only Three Veterans Return at Chehalis

Chehalis, Wash., Sept. 21.—At the meeting of the Rotarians Wednesday noon Coach Keats Huntorn and Assistant Moore revealed the prospects for the Chehalis high school football team. In spite of the fact that only three of last year's championship team are in school this year, the coaches are not downhearted. They are developing a new team around these three veterans. The first game is Friday afternoon before a bunch of alumni football stars, when the local fans will get their first sight of the 1922 team.

FOOTBALL

ANNAPOLIS, Sept. 21. — Football coaches at the Naval academy are working hard to develop a good kicker. Barchet, Cullen and McKee, backs from last year's team, and Carney, a lineman, are being used.

Cambridge, Mass.—After the hardest workout of the season the Harvard line was stentatively chosen to start in the Middlebury game next week as follows: Hartley and Crosby, ends; Kunhardt and Eastman, tackles; Grew and Hubbard, guards; Clark, center.

Princeton—Punting by Bruno Hills, captain of the freshman track team last year, whose boots averaged 65 yards, probably will win a place for him on the Tiger varsity eleven.

Albany High Grid Prospects Bright

Albany, Sept. 21.—Albany high school is confident of winning the football championship of the Central Willamette valley, and will make a serious attempt to gain the state gridiron championship. This attitude followed the appearance of nearly the whole of last year's team at the first practices, held this week. In addition to the veterans there is a great deal of promising material in the freshman class from which Coach Brumbaugh can draw.

This is believed to be the largest amount for which a baseball player was ever insured.

James John Meets Vancouver Friday

Vancouver, Wash., Sept. 21. — The first football game of the 1922 season for the local high school team will be played Friday afternoon against James John high school of Portland. The outlook for a strong football team this year is gloomy, according to Coach Cedric (Hap) Miller, as the available material is light, ranging but litle over 100 pounds each.

Chinese Boxer to Meet Sam Gordon In Milwaukie Ring

AH FONG, who claims the honors of being the Chinese featherweight champion of the world, is going to get a chance to display his wares before Portland's fistic followers. Fong was signed Wednesday to do battle against Sammy Gordon in the semi-windup attraction of the Milwaukie boxing commission smoker Tuesday night, September 26.

Fong recently came to Portland from California where he had a number of fistic engagements.

Jack Josephs, who meets Bobby Wallace in the main event, returned Wednesday morning from Seattle and immediately started to train. Rumors were heard that Josephs broke his thumb in the contest against Bobby Harper, but the Minnesotan declares that he just sprained it. The thumb was giving Josephs a little bother before he went to Seattle.

Josephs was the victim of a regular Seattle decision, or rather, a hometown verdict, in his bout against Harper. The fans and critics of the ringside took exception to the awarding of the bout to Harper and voiced their disapproval by their actions following the bout.

Wallace, on account of delay in making train connections out of Chicago, will not reach Portland until Friday morning. This will give Wallace but four days to prepare for the contest. The Milwaukee battler, however, is to be in good condition and the fans can look forward to an interesting contest between the two scrappers.

WHERE IS HE?

There is a letter for Charles Olson, the wrestler, at the sporting editor's desk of The Journal.
