

40 NEW LAKES DISCOVERED IN NATIONAL FOREST

Forest Examiner Lage Wernstedt, in the intensive survey of the Cascade and a part of the Deschutes National, has discovered 40 or 50 new lakes in the region between Diamond peak and the Sisters, reports A. H. Hodson, in charge of maps and surveys for the U. S. forest service, who has just returned from a field trip in the Cascade region.

"In other places," said Hodson, "Wernstedt has found the location of known lakes to be as far as a mile out of place on the old map. This is also true of many prominent mountains."

Wernstedt and his assistants are now working in the vicinity of Davis lake. From all the high points in the country, they are triangulating by transit to other points, with the idea of locating them precisely on a map. They are supplementing this work with photographs taken by a photographic camera. With the aid of these photographs, Hodson said, it will be possible to prepare a topographic map of the region observed and to correct the location of drainage as well as other topographic features on maps now in use.

"With the aid of the photographs that Wernstedt is taking," said Hodson, "it will be possible to work up a new map of the region, which will show quite correctly the location of all the glaciers and other features of interest. Such a map has never been prepared before, and will no doubt be of interest to mountaineers."

Wernstedt will have covered 1,000,000 acres this summer in his intensive survey. We expect eventually to have correct maps of every national forest in the district, but at the present appropriation we have for this purpose it will require 15 years to complete the task.

Moonshiner Swings Axe on Liquor as Deputy Draws Pistol

The Dalles, Sept. 21.—It was a double false alarm, but to Sheriff Chrisman for a few minutes yesterday it looked as though he was going to have on his hands the murder of his deputy sheriff or bootlegger, or both.

Getting a tip about a liquor dispensing agency on Alford street, Sheriff Chrisman and G. L. Coleman, deputy and jailer, went to the scene just before noon. Chrisman went to the front and Coleman to the side door, which was ajar. Coleman stepped inside.

"What do you want?" asked a man who was inside.

"You'll never get me," replied the prisoner-to-be, as he grabbed an axe and brandished it above his head. Coleman pulled the trigger of his revolver. It snapped on a defective cartridge. Then the axe landed, but instead of on the deputy, it crashed into a lineup of full bottles of moonshining whiskey.

Sheriff Chrisman then shoved his pistol into the man's face and forced him to surrender.

The prisoner gave his name as Jack Campbell. He had not succeeded in destroying all the evidence. A quart of whiskey was found up and Campbell was taken before Justice of the Peace Allen, who heard his plea of guilty to a charge of having intoxicants in his possession, and was fined $150.

LAGRANDE GREET'S FAIR BOOSTERS

La Grande, Sept. 21.—"Onward, and Ever Onward." This new mottoeth was engrossed deeply on the hearts of every member of the fair special last night. Free dispatches read to the visitors, telling of the Salem proceedings alleging fraud in the fair petitions, did not smother the jazz spirit, and then and there was coined the new watchword, "Onward."

The train arrived at 4:30 o'clock, and after greetings by the city and county officials and Ad club, an automobile ride was staged by the reality board. While the visitors dined the La Grande band serenaded the train. The meeting in the L. D. S. tabernacle was overflowed. After the meeting, a jolly dance was arranged for the visitors by the Ad club.

The train had visited Elgin and Imbler en route from Wallowa county. Grouse was served last night as a special honor from Wallowa county.

WALLOWA GIVES CARAVAN ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME

Wallowa, Sept. 21.—The 1925 fair caravan arrived in Wallowa at 11:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mayor Baker was met by the local junk flivver labeled "Mayor Baker's Car." The back part of the limousine was occupied by an animal which prompted the mayor to remark, "Well, you've got my goat."

A large and enthusiastic audience gathered at the Masonic hall. A. E. Tulley introduced Alfred Aya, who was followed by E. J. Jaeger, Otto Hartwig and Mayor Baker, who explained the needs and plans of the fair.

The musical numbers and community singing were greatly enjoyed. The mayor was impressed by the scenery

ENTERPRISE SPORTSMEN FILL BOOSTERS' DINER WITH GROUSE

Enterprise, Sept. 21.—As an act of hospitality and to give the Portland visitors a taste of Wallowa county game, Enterprise sportsmen loaded the dining car of the 1925 Special with grouse Wednesday morning. Mayor Baker, in his address, thanked the crowd for the courtesy, assuring the local hunters that the game would be heartily appreciated.

Speakers at Enterprise were Rev. Charles MacCaughy and Mayor Baker, with E. J. Jaeger acting as chairman. Songs were given by the quartet. The minister told of his experiences 20 years ago when he was pastor of a church in the county. He and Mayor Baker

S. P. & S. BACKS 'COMPANY UNION'

Formation of a "company union" by the shop employees of the S. P. & S. railway system will receive the cooperation of the management, according to an announcement posted in the system shops Tuesday night over the signature of W. F. Turner, president. The announcement was addressed to employees of the mechanical department and carried the information that the railroad company has no intention of entering into any agreement or adjustment with the federated shop crafts and that the formation of the new association is in accordance with the apparent intention of the labor board's resolution of July 3.

The announcement was made because some of the employees of the mechanical department have hesitated to join the new organization because they were under the impression that the management would not welcome such action. A part of the notice reads as follows:

"Prior to the engaging of new employees, those who left our service July

I were given ample notice and full opportunity to return to their duties. Our efforts in that direction, however, did not meet with success and it became necessary to hire new men to take the places of the striking employees. To better fulfill the obligations of the company toward those loyal employees who remained in service and those who have been employed since July 1, we would be glad to see the organization referred to perfected at an early date."

Reed College to Stage Community Program Friday

A varied program is planned for the first community gathering of Reed college students and faculty Friday night. Dr. Samuel L. Josh of the Baroda university, India, will speak on problems of India, immediately following a dinner in the college commons. A free-for-all discussion will follow upon the questions raised by the speaker's talk.

At 9 o'clock, students, faculty and guests will be guests of the women's organization at a luncheon on the shores of Crystal Spring lake. Stunts prepared by a committee of students will be put on, while no member of the faculty will be asked to make speeches which would students are accustomed to make upon such occasions. Arrangements are in the hands of Miss Florence Fwiler.

PHONE COMPANIES ASK HIGHER RATE

Olympia, Wash., Sept. 21.—The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company and the Home Telephone & Telegraph company of Spokane, through their attorney, James T. Shaw, Wednesday filed new tariffs increasing all telephone rates except toll rates in Washington.

The increase shows an average of 31 per cent, according to Shaw's figures. The increase was considered necessary, Shaw said, in order that the company could earn a reasonable return upon its investment in Washington. The new tariffs are effective November 1.

The department recently filed a complaint against the company, charging unreasonable rates in the present rates. As all the commissioners are out of the city on a hearing, no statement could be obtained as to what action would be taken.

Increases in the following cities are shown: Vancouver, one party line business phone from $4 a month to $8; one party residence phone, $2.75 to $3.25; Tacoma, business $7 to $10, residence $3 to $4; Seattle, business $8.50 to $12, residence $3.75 to $4.75; Bellingham, $4.50 to $7, residence $3.50; Spokane, $7.50 to $10, $3.25 to $4; Aberdeen, Hoquiam, Walla Walla and Yakima show increases for one party lines of from $4.50 to $7, and residence phones $3.75 to $4.25.

Ban on Suit Clubs To Be Proposed by New City Ordinance

City Attorney Grant is to formulate an ordinance for consideration of the city council at an early session which will prohibit the operation in Portland of suit clubs and the disposal of hosiery and silversware through house-to-house canvases, the sales being based on plans similar to those used by the suit clubs. This was decided upon after a conference held Wednesday between Grant, Acting Mayor Bigelow, Joseph Hutchinson, license inspector, and representatives of the Merchant Tailors' association and the Better Business bureau of the Ad club.

It was asserted that one suit club is said to have taken contracts for payment on 1200 suits with the prospect that it would be unable to fulfill promises made.

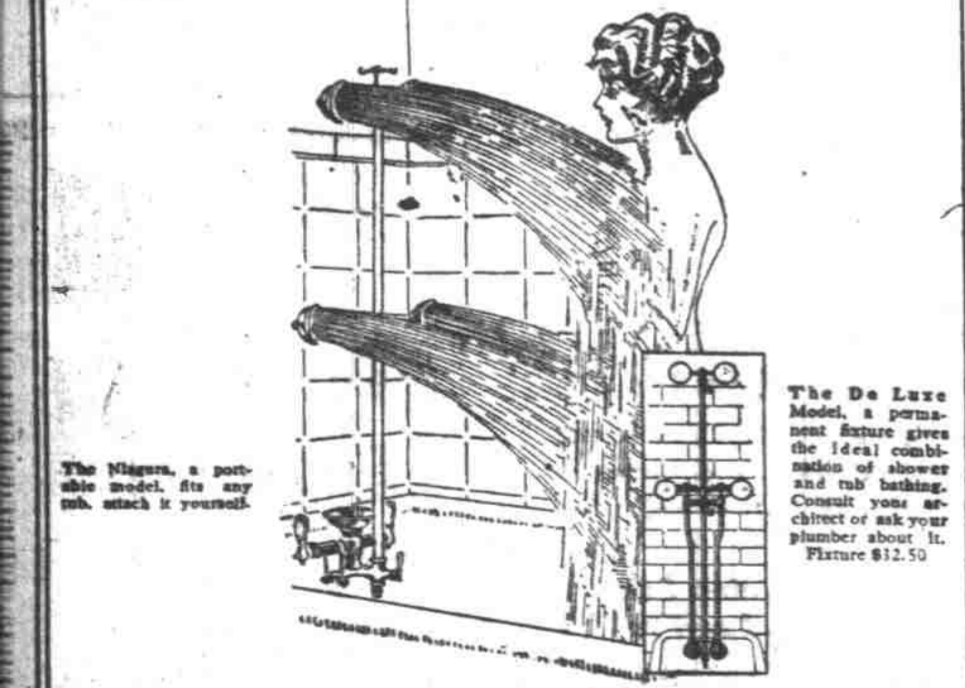

Reed Bound Over On Shooting Charge

T. E. Reed, former patrolman of the uniform division of police, charged with shooting and injuring Jeff Sambrano, driver for the American bakery, No. 483 Williams avenue, was bound over to the state grand jury after a hearing in municipal court late Wednesday afternoon. The shooting took place in front of the bakery August 21. The shooting is said to have followed trouble involving Reed's former wife.
