SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14

Multnomah club annual "open house."
Mrs. Leonard Raymond Shaver's tea for Miss Geisler.Joint Wedding
Is Pretty
Affair

IN A SETTING of autumn with great masses of brilliant leaves adorning the pillars and tall standards of gold chrysanthemums lining the aisles the double wedding of Miss Jane Seller to Mr. Allen E. Meier, and Miss Katherine Seller to Mr. Lawrence Dickson, was solemnized at Temple Beth Israel Thursday evening. The church was filled with a brilliant throng of relatives and friends to witness this joining of two prominent Portland and San Francisco families.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal procession slowly advanced down the aisle. Immediately following the ushers, Little Sally Ann Lowengart, a dainty flower girl in a fitted, frock colored with small basket and Master Sanford P. Lowengart Jr., the ring-bearer in suit of white serge preceded the four bridesmaids. Miss Ruth Lowengart, Miss Judith Lippitt, Miss Edith Ottenheimer and Miss Flora Marx were gowned alike in chrysanthemum colored satin crepe, made on long lines and carried arm bouquets of chrysanthemums in the same tone.

Miss Suzanne Seller, maid of honor to Miss Katherine Seller, wore a fetching frock of orange chiffon with silver girdle. In a stunning gown in orange tone embroidered in silver, Miss Jeanette Meier attended Miss Seller. Both carried arm bouquets of deep rust toned chrysanthemums.

Miss Katherine Seller, on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Philip Lowengart, preceded her sister, Miss Jane Seller, who advanced with her father, Frederick M. Seller. Very lovely were the brides in their robes of white velvet fashioned on draped lines, their long court trains falling from the shoulders, and adorned with girdles of pearls. Their veils of tulle lace bordered, were arranged with headresses of rare old lace and each wore the short face veil. Each carried a showy bouquet of white orchids, gardenias and lily of the valley.

At the altar steps Mr. Seller escorted both brides to the altar where he gave them in marriage. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise performed the most impressive double service. Mr. Meier was attended by Mr. Aaron M. Frank and Mr. Samuel Dickson acted as best man for his brother. The ushers were Mr. Frank Jeddiss, Mr. Wallace Heller, Mr. Milton Meyer and Mr. Leo Baruh.

Following the church service a dinner dance was held at the Multnomah hotel. Covers were placed for 180 guests. The same scheme of autumn decoration was used in the ball room and mezzanine floor where the dinner was held and dancing continued to a late hour.

After a wedding trip lasting several weeks Mr. and Mrs. Meier will reside in Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Dickson in San Francisco.

Society is much interested in the plan recital to be given tomorrow evening at the Little Theatre by Dorothea Nash. Miss Nash is popular both in social and musical circles and is entertaining the plan for the event. Among those who will be in the audience will be Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Miss Lois Schaefer, Miss Frances Gill, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. W. B. Ayers, Mrs. William C. Alvord, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. E. Frank, Mrs. David Campbell, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. William Spencer, Mrs. Folger Johnson and many others.

A party of five cadets from the Hill Military academy attended the Farrar concert. They were Fred Haines of Seattle, Joseph Crane of Arlington, Wash., Clark Huntley of Spokane, Kenneth Flynn of Bellingham, Wash., and Arthur Polachek of Yakima, Wash.

Another line party of cadets was notified at the Mattenauer concert. The following boys attended: Eben Smith and Gerald Smith, Donald Carter, Henry Folt, Joseph Gibbs, William Upcraft, Floyd Deitch, Ralph Newman, Marion Wright, Ross Winans and R. McRae.

One of the social features of the week will be the co-ed ball to be held in the gymnasium Saturday evening by the women of Reed college. It will be a formal affair, the girls coming in couples, the demand for the roles of "gentlemen" being great. Miss Frances Barbey is in charge of arrangements. Various committees who will assist are: Decorations, Miss Anna Lee Smyth of Portland; music, Miss Alice Johnson; invitations, Miss Beattie Steelmith; and stunts, Miss Beatrice Olsen.

Members of the Portland Hunt club will indulge in a senior chase, Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, starting from the clubhouse at Garden Home. This will be the first event on the winter calendar.

There has been a noticeable lull in social activities this past week due to so many of the social devotees taking such an active part in the campaign for members to support the Portland

LITTLE HELEN WALTER, who will entertain with solo dances at
Multnomah club open house
Saturday evening.

AUNE

Multnomah club will hold its annual "open house" Saturday evening, when its doors will be thrown open to all its friends. Beginning at 8 p. m. a musical program will be given in the main lobby followed by a vaudeville performance in the gymnasium. Among those who will entertain the visitors is Miss Harriet Leach, whose concert at the Auditorium October 13, is causing a wide stir of interest in musical circles. Dancing will immediately follow the evening's program and, judging by other years and the word of the able committee, an evening of unusual enjoyment is anticipated. The following program will be given:

Weight lifting exhibition, by pupil of Mr. Maute; tumbling exhibition, by pupils of Mr. Maute; Miss Helen Walter, jazz dance; trio, Alexander Skavenna, violinist, Madam Mathilda Jensen, pianist, Christian Pool, cellist; violin solo, Alexander Skavenna, Mendelssohn's "On the Wings of Morning"; solo, George Natanson, baritone, "Glorious Song," by Gilbert, "Madonnina," by Leon Cavalla; cello solo, Christian Pool, "Scherzo"; Miss Helen Walter, Tschalkowsky; piano solo, Madam Jensen, "Fantasia Impromptu," by F. Chopin; solo, Miss Henriette Leach, grand trio, Alexander Skavenna, Madam Jensen, Christian Pool, "On Themes from Italian Operas," by Charles Vollweiler; telephone quartet.

Symphony orchestra. Early and late have found the teams under the able captaincy working for the cause with promising results. No time limit has been set, the many teams have pledged themselves to work until the quota of 1000 members has been raised.

This evening about eighty of the younger set will enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Leonard Shaver Saturday afternoon when she will entertain in honor of Miss Georgine Geisler. One hundred and fifty invitations have been issued.

Miss Alta Chamberlain of Gold Beach, Ore., is a Portland visitor, who is being delightfully entertained by her many friends here. She will remain a fortnight.

The meeting of the Wellesley club, which was to have been held Saturday afternoon, is postponed until next month, account of the death of Mr. Vincent Cook.

Members of the Portland Hunt club will indulge in a senior chase, Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, starting from the clubhouse at Garden Home. This will be the first event on the winter calendar.
