

MAN'S COURAGE SAVES HER FROM ATTACK OF BRUTE

Sheer nerve and cool-headed fighting saved Mrs. V. V. Jenkins, No. 43 North 10th street, from an attack by a fiend Thursday afternoon while on Barnes road at the head of Washington street.

The man grabbed her arm, made insulting remarks and started to drag her away. She broke loose and started to run, the man closely following her. He drew a long-bladed pruning knife from his pocket and threatened to kill her if she did not go with him.

Johnson to Offer Cut in Immigration

Ridgefield, Wash., Oct. 12.—An enthusiastic audience greeted Congressman Albert Johnson here Wednesday night. He discussed the Underwood tariff bill and the immigration law.

Redmond Legion Against Dismissal Of Two Appraisers

Redmond, Oct. 12.—Rev. Johnson Post No. 44 of the American Legion has adopted resolutions disapproving of the dismissal of O. F. Hardy and H. J. Owsen on charges of rendering false appraisals to the World War Veterans' State Aid commission without their being given an opportunity to defend their good names against this accusation.

That the action of the state aid commission was eminently unfair in publicly dismissing these men without first giving them an opportunity to vindicate their judgment and their good name.
