finance; Erskine, ritual; Wisbur, constitution; Goodwin, press and publicity Dudley, voiture activities: Dorris, lia-ison, Edward J. Elvers, Portland legionnaire, is national commander of the Forty Eighters and it is rumored that his name is being considered for reelection because of the great work he has done in organizing voitures throughout the country. MEETING IS OPENED

The 40-8 meeting opened this afterin Jerusalem temple, Mystic Shrine, of New Orleans. The sessions of the "Sunshine" order of the American Legion are scheduled for each afternoon and they conflict with the gigantic athletic program.

Oregon athletes who have entered the competition this week are Ward Eulrich of Portland and former Multnomah Amateur Athletic club Pacific coast wrestling champion in the 127 pound mat class, and A. R. Dorris of Scappoose in the rifle and pistol con-Dorris holds several medals for his marksmanship and although he did not bring his own arms with him he is confident that the range will be satisfactory for him to be up in the running.

WITHDRAW FROM GOLF

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Allen of Portland have found it necessary to scratch their names from the golf entries because Pat has more things to do with the convention than four ordinary men could do and besides this the finals are not due until Sunday. The Allens don't want to take any chance of getting that far and then being forced to default because they have to catch a train for Detroit. They enjoyed sever-al rounds with Nick Jahn of Seattle last Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday afternoon several of the Oregon football enthusiasts journeyed to the Tulane university stadium to see the annual Tulane-Springhill game. They were informed that it was a typical southern style centest, all of which did not seem to come up to expectations as far as western play is concerned. One handican under which the athletes labored was the weather. A hot sun and plenty of it beamed forth.

SAN FRANCISCO BIDS

San Francisco is making a great bid for next year's American Legion convention, and late last night it was divulged that opposition in the form of Baltimore, Md., was in the field. Native Sons and Daughters, 120 them, all dressed in the "story book" miner style of red shirts, sombreros, boots and overalls, took the city by storm on their arrival early last night. and they immediately began pinning the famous golden poppy on everyone. The Oregon delegates voted to support the Californians. BRILLIANT DECORATIONS

An idea of what New Orleans business men have done in the way elaborate street degorations can be gained in the statement that more than 50,000 incandescent electric lights are strung along Canal street, the widest street in sprica, and for blocks along cross streets in the heart of the old and New Orleans.

Sixty bands are on hand to compete for the $1000 cash prize for the best affair in the gigantic parade listed for Wednesday afternoon, and as a result impromptu concerts are being staged on the streets and in hotel lobbies. TO REBUILD PLANT

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 16 .- (f. N. S.) Plans were made today to rebuild the plant of the False Creek Lumber company, which was wiped out last night
