

TAX BOARD URGES FULL SUPPORT OF THREE-MILL LEVY

"The members of this commission are of the opinion that the city cannot be satisfactorily operated if it is entirely deprived of this extra revenue, and they therefore urge a favorable vote by the people on the measure when submitted."

"This is the crux of a statement by the tax conservation commission pertaining to the 3-mill special tax levy for general municipal purposes on which the people of Portland must vote November 7. It is contained in a letter signed by all members of the commission and sent to Mayor Baker in reply to a request for an expression of the commission's opinion on the proposed levy."

"This is the same sort of levy that the people of Portland have twice before approved by their votes, and it was counted upon as a resource when the 1923 budget was made by the city council. Then, at the last moment, technical questions were raised as to the validity of making the special levy this year without again securing the approval of the people at the ballot box. For this reason it again goes on the ballot."

Peninsula People Enjoy 1927 Fair Rally and Feast

One of the largest affairs yet held in Peninsula park community house was the 1927 exposition rally and harvest home feast Wednesday evening. Decorations vividly characteristic of the season and stunts arranged by park directors added to the interest of the evening. A barrel of sweet apple cider and unlimited pumpkin pie added to the old-fashioned savor of the event. E. Jones presided at the table of St. Johns district, George Mahoney for Portland, Samuel Woodward for Kenton, Dr. I. N. Palmer for Piedmont, William Killingsworth for the Liberty district, and George S. Shepherd for Woodlawn. Captain Crane of the police bureau sang. Mrs. F. W. Miller was general chairman of arrangements. Assistance was rendered by Mrs. J. C. Otte, Mrs. J. W. Sevier and many others. Henri Thiele served the dinner.

150 Speakers Will Boost Fair; Drive Will Be Thorough

One hundred and fifty rapid-fire speakers will be turned loose in Portland within the next few days to tell the people all about the 1927 exposition, and to explain why it is to the interest of this city and the entire state that the exposition measures on the November ballot should carry. Fred L. Carlton and his assistant, N. W. O'Grady, at the head of the exposition speakers' bureau, have their plans about completed, and will be ready to start operations the latter part of the week. Speakers to visit gatherings of any kind will be held in readiness, day or night, to respond to such appeals. Call at Greater 518, or address 518 Salmon street.

Less than three weeks now is left to carry out the plans of the intensive campaign outlined.

Yeggs' Attempt to Blow Safe Starts Blaze in Building

After an attempt to blow the safe had failed, the office of the Columbia Brock Works, at No. 302 East Main street, was set on fire late Wednesday night. The flames did little damage. The attempt at the safe was the work of amateurs. Police Inspectors Tackaberry and Phillips reported. The combination had been jammed in an effort to break it, and a soapy substance was found pushed into the narrow crevice around the door. Irons from the office fireplace had been used, some of which were broken when the burglar tried to pry off the combination knob.

The office files were littered in one corner and a match touched to them. Several matches were dropped in a drawer of a desk, but they burned out. Fire Marshal Grenville said. The police say the whole job may be one of spite, and investigations will be carried along that line.

S. P. MECHANIC INJURED
Glean E. Lee, a Southern Pacific mechanic, was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital late Wednesday in a serious condition resulting from injuries received when he was struck in the abdomen with a plank. He lives at 1212 Brooklyn street.
