BOMB IN CANTON NEWSPAPER ROW KILLS 2 PERSONS

By Junius B. Wood
(Special Cable to The Journal and Chicago Daily News)
(Copyright 1922.)

Canton, China, Oct. 21.—A bomb hidden on the premises of Sun Chung Bo, a Chinese vernacular newspaper, the name of which means "The Sunrise Bell," demolished two buildings, killed one girl and one man and wounded seven others who are now being cared for at a local hospital. "The Sunrise Bell" is located in the heart of Canton's 'newspaper row" in the center of the old city where the streets, only 12 feet wide, are faced by solid rows of brick and stone buildings.

The two hotels," which were bombed in the explosions of Thursday night, were the Asia and Great Western, largest establishments of their kind in China, and both located on the Broadbund or thoroughfare which faces the Pearl river.

The Victory restaurant, where four persons were wounded, and the East Gate theatre, where two girls were wounded, also are located on the same bund.

The Asia hotel, where one of the explosions occurred, is owned by the Dai Sun company, a corporation which is operating a department store, restaurant, theatres and roof garden, all in the same building as the hotel.

The explosion in the hotel was of such terrific force that the reinforced concrete building of the Dai Sun company, which is the tallest in China, vibrated from top to bottom. Hundreds of customers who were in the place at the time of the bombing, together with diners in a restaurant on the sixth floor and patrons of a theatre on the tenth floors, were overcome with panic and rushed for the stairs and elevators in a mad effort to escape from the building. They were stopped in their flight by iron gratings at the entrance to the building, which were slammed shut in their faces. Two splnlily dressed women, one of them carrying a rattan suitcase, registered at the hotel Thursday afternoon, and after paying in advance were assigned to an expensive room on the fourth floor, near suites occupied by a Chinese general and a colonel. After ordering tea, the women left the hotel, leaving behind them the suitcase containing the bomb.

The explosions increased the unrest which has developed in Canton as a result of the recent capture of Fouchow, capital of Fukien province, by forces of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen.

At the close of the first day's work he started for camp but missed the trail. Although weak from lack of food and badly scratched by underbrush, Glasety will suffer no injury from his experience.
