BORAH PREDICTS RESTORATION OF IDAHO PRIMARY

(Copyright, 1922, by United Press) Washington, Oct. 23.—Victory for the direct primary over the organized opposition of Republican party "regulars" was predicted today by Senator Borah, Idaho, who is in his home state fighting for restoration of the primary. knocked out by the G. O. P. organization after Borah's last election to the

Instead of being forced out of the Republican party by the hostility of the regular organization in Idaho. Borah declared in a telegram to the United Press, sent from his home in Boise, that "the forcing out will be the other way." That is, if any one is ousted from Republican ranks it will be the state committee who are fighting Borah

The direct primary fight looks fine, Borah wired. "I have no doubt the next legislature will pass a direct primary law and the governor, whoever he is, will sign it. The action of the state organization is not affecting my party relationship in any way. The forcing out will be the other way.

'I think you can depend on it that concerned we will attain our object in this state. The Republican national committeeman came out in a declaranion for it yesterday and dally condi-

Noted Ghost Girl Of Nova Scotia Is Confined in Asylum

Special Dispatch to The Journal (Copyright, 1922.)

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 23.—Little Mary llen MacDonald, who a few short months ago set two continents to discussing the "ghost of Antigonish," say today in solitary confinement at the Nova Scotia hospital for the insane at Dartmouth, looking out over the blue waters of the ocean. She has been spending all her days thus since her confinement to the institution, where the physicians sa she should have been committed fully two years ago. Mary Ellen shows no desire to be in the company of other persons, and seems perfectly satisfied with life as she finds it.

There is a chance, the physicians say, that the ghost girl may develop into a normal woman, but the proba-bilities are against it. It is more than likely, they contend, that she will spend the remainder of her days in the asyof contract. The suit grew out of a transaction in which Page Brothers chartered the steamer Floridan for two round trips form San Francisco to the Orient in 1916. After the original contract had been signed, a dispute arose over guarantees to be given the owner of the vessel. This resulted in a can-cellation by Page Brothers and the charge that the shipping concern did not fulfill its bargain.
