The Magic of Halloween

is much more easily captured when one is prepared for all eventualities. Such things as yellow pumpkins often filled with delicious candy, Halloween snappers and fun makers, yellow and black paper hats, masks, decorative witches, table favors and decorations are a necessity—and in three different departments they are displayed here. Visit the Ninth Floor for Halloween candies, the Main Floor for table favors and the Fifth Floor for novelties.

To Dress and Enter Dolls in Meier & Frank's Big

DOLL SHOW

This Doll Show of 1922—the 20th annual event of its kind—will be held November 2, 3 and 4. From the interest being shown we should say that it will be one of the best shows.

$275.00 in Prizes

33 Distinct Classes

There will be cash prizes and merchandise orders for toys distributed among the winners and, in addition, every child contestant will receive a present—prize winner or not.

You Should Begin at Once to dress your doll. There is the greatest possible latitude to show one's skill. Single dolls or groups of any style, size, complexion or costume are eligible. Ask for a free Doll Show folder.

—Meier & Frank's: Fifth Floor.

Values Are Most Exceptional!

Worthy of the immediate attention of every woman who desires the choicest apparel for her wardrobe.

$65

Coats and capes of normandie, bolivia and fashiona. Trimmed with large collars of Caracul Wolf Beaver Squirrel

The capes are unusually long and full. The coats show a diversity of types, from straight hanging to bloused models. Linings, finishings, workmanship, style—all are far above the qualities usually found in wraps so moderately priced.

Sizes for women and misses.
