

FISH ARE MORE ABUNDANT HERE

Fresh fish are becoming more abundant than ever on the local market. Prices are about the same. Halibut is still priced at 25¢ per pound. Silver-side salmon, which is more palatable than fresh chinook, is 10¢ per pound, while the chinook is bringing 20¢ per pound. Black cod is 12¢ per pound. Sturgeon remains at 30¢.

The demand for poultry is keeping up well at this time. Prices remain the same. Light hens are 22¢ per pound, while heavies (over 4 pounds) are 28¢. Fryers are still 30¢ per pound and broilers 32¢. Most fruits are becoming scarcer, but the prices remain about the same. Peaches are bringing 20¢ per dozen but they are almost worthless. There is almost no taste in the late peaches. Apple prices vary greatly. Fancy apples are bringing all the way from 10¢ to 40¢ per dozen. Jonathans are generally priced at 20¢ per dozen, while the Chinoque is bringing 40¢. Other cheaper grades can be obtained at 10¢ to 15¢ for a dozen. Lady fingers are 12¢ per dozen.

and a good part of them will be spoiled. Tokays and Malagas are around 30¢ in most places.
