

HOUSE IS READY,
FURNITURE NEED;
VETS MAKE PLEA

The house is all ready. But it lacks the furniture. So the American Legion friends of Mrs. Glenn H. Price are pleading today with generous Portland people for the wherewithal to warm the hearth and the heart of the little widow.

Glenn H. Price was the prohibition enforcement officer shot and killed at Grand Ronde by an Indian bootlegger. He left a wife and two children destitute.

His buddies of World war service and members of the federal prohibition enforcement office organized a campaign for the aid of the trio left defenseless by the tragedy. Generosity put up the new little house where they will live. But they need:

Combination range, heating stove, linoleum for bathroom and kitchen, dishes, two kitchen chairs, two bedroom sets—full size beds, two bedroom rugs 8 by 10; one living room rug 9 by 12, living room furniture and all other necessities for four-room house.

Do you want to help make the widow and her fatherless children happy? Take your contribution to the Wilhelm Transfer company, 40 First street. Rudie Wilhelm, president of the transfer company, has promised to give free storage to the articles and to haul them free of charge to the new Price home.

And by the way—now is the accepted time. Mrs. Price and her babies are waiting to move in.

Mrs. Christler Stays by Body on Long Trip to East

(By Universal Service.)
Waterloo, N. Y.—Accompanied by the widow dressed in deep mourning and showing the effects of the suffering she has undergone in the last week, the body of the Rev. Leonard J. Christler arrived here from Havre, Mont., yesterday.

The station was crowded and state troopers were assigned to handle the crowds.

Mrs. Christler, her face haggard, drawn and pallid, alighted from the train, together with her sister, Mrs. W. D. Pomeroy, of Buffalo. The widow spent the greater part of the long trip from the West in the baggage car beside the body.

(At the station to receive the body was Henry Christler, father of the slain pastor, and a delegation from the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of St. Pauls Episcopal church, where funeral services will be held Friday by the Rev. John Beach Arthur.

Hibernian Carnival Opened; 500 Attend

The fair and carnival under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and ladies auxiliary opened Wednesday night in Hibernia hall with an address of welcome by the Rev. Eugene F. Burke of Columbia university. About 500 were in attendance. Irish music and old Gaelic dancing by a group of children formed the principal entertainment. The purpose of the bazaar is to raise funds to liquidate the debt of Hibernia building. The bazaar will continue until Saturday evening. A special program has been arranged for each evening.

LAYMEN MEET CLERGY
A large delegation of laymen and clergymen from the Evangelical and United Evangelical churches of the city met Wednesday night at the East Market Street, Evangelical church to hear reports of the delegates to the denominational conferences recently held in the East. At these conferences the denominations reunited and formed the Evangelical church. The only action taken at the session was the adoption of a resolution of sympathy for the death of Bishop G. Heinmiller last Friday at Cleveland, Ohio. Portland clergymen of both denominations will meet in joint session next Monday at the Y. M. C. A. to form a ministerial union.

A MANUFACTURER'S GREAT SALE

of
Men's and Boys' Clothing
by the
Brownsville Woolen Mills Stores

Which makes sweeping reductions to dispose of surplus stock and to keep our clothing factory running and our tailors from leaving Portland.

Reasons for This Clothing Sale:

We believe that when such a cut in price is made that an open and frank reason should be given to our customers and public in general. All of us know that business, at least in a great many lines, is not as good as it should be, and ours is no exception. In fact, we had planned on doing at least forty per cent more business in all our stores than we are now doing. We have kept our clothing factory running on full time throughout the past summer, thinking that business would pick up and get better, but it seems we are to be disappointed. It has now come to a time when we will either have to close part of our factory and lose our skilled tailors or get a much larger outlet for our pure Virgin Wool Suits and Overcoats. After carefully considering how best to keep things running and at the same time dispose of hundreds of surplus garments that have accumulated in our factory, we have decided to reduce the selling price to so low a figure that it will be an inducement for everyone to come to the Brownsville Woolen Mill Store and supply their wants. We invite the public to come and share in these big Price Reductions, and assure them of only the highest-class merchandise.
