The slogan of the Marshfield legionnaires, as given by Commander Hugins of the Marshfield post, is "Let's take a day off and invade North Bend for a good time."

John E. Flurry, commander of the Roseburg post, has announced that the Armistice day committee for the Roseburg Legion post has been hard at work for over a month and intends to make this year's celebration one long to be remembered in Douglas county. He states that the whole county has been cordially invited to participate in the festivities. Many good attractions and unique features in the program have been promised by the legion-

The celebration at Dallas, in which the Independence Legion post and community will assist, will include a mammoth parade, football game, banquet and dance, and numerous speakers on the program, including orators from distant parts of Oregon. The moving picture "Cardigan," taken from the novel by Robert W. Chambers, and heralded as one of the greatest patriotic pictures ever filmed, will be shown under auspices of the post at the Majestic theatre.

The Frank Burns post, American Legion, together with its ladies' auxil-lary, has made arrangements so that the Armistice day program will be a complete success.

The program at Condon will commerce Friday evening with a band concert and an oid-fashioned dance. Saturday at 5 a. m. will be the firing of the national salute; 10 a. m., guard mount, bringing back the old army days; 11 a. m., speaking program. HUNDREDS of boys, sons of Master Masons and their chums, all between the ages of 16 and 21 years, are finding an interesting and profitable association in the Order of De Molay, which began in Portland under the sponsorship of the Sunnyside lodge No. 42. Royal Arch Masons, last year. The Sunnyside chapter now has 650 mem-bers, other chapters in the city including the Oregon chapter, the Washing-ton chapter, Peninsula chapter and a recently organized branch in Corvallis and a group of 40 members organized in August in Vancouver, Wash.

The Order of De Molay came into being five years ago in Kansas City, and is the outgrowth of a boys' club formed by a group of Scottish Rite Masons under the leadership of Frank S. Land, grand councillor, and its purpose then, as it is now, was to form an organization that would appeal to the boy who is going through the restless age, to inspire patriotism, to mingle all nationalities and walks of life in a friendly brotherhood of young men and to maintain respect for parents, which at this period in the lives of many boys seems of little import-

The order carries two degrees, initiatory and De Molay, and boys are not permitted to discuss Masonry in their assemblies and are not considered an actual Masonic lodge. There are five obligatory days observed by the order, including January 3, which is known as De Molay day of comfort, when the boys visit hos-pitals and orphanages and needy families and carry words of comfort and cheer to the lonely folk, who are found in every community. The Sunday nearest March 18 of each year is set aside as Devotional day and the members of the order with their advisory council and other sponsors attend some church in a body, where a special sermon is given for them. Patriot's day is May 1, when a special patriotic and musical program is given by the members of the order, who generally entertain some prominent speakers at the same time. The second regular meeting of the order in September is designated as Educational day, when a general discussion of educational problems is made and an emphasis is placed upon the public schools as the bulwark of American liberty and the foundation of universal education. Parents' day is the Sunday preceding December 21. This year it will be Deember 17, and on this day the members of the order are expected to re-member their parents by some token
