Mr. McCormick is trying to suggest a graceful way of choosing a new leader in the senate. He asks that all committee chairmanships be revised and subject to election by members...

The Illinois senator campaigned most of the time in the West. He is not up for reelection until two years hence, but the Republican politics in his home state is in such shape that his election seems assured...

Mr. McCormick works in close harmony with Senator Chamberlain of Kansas, Senator Hiram Johnson of California and maintains intimate relations with all the radicals and progressives...

Official returns from the 21st representative district have determined the closest contest of the recent election in favor of Representative James Overturf of 27 votes over R. E. Bradbury.

Official returns for some days gave Bradbury the lead, but the last few precincts run Overturf's total up to 3675 votes as against 3648 for Bradbury. Overturf was a candidate for reelection and is a Republican.

Overturf's election makes the political complexion of the house 51 Republicans and nine Democrats. The election of George Dunn of Jackson county over Dunn of Washington county, who was first reported to have won, gives 28 Republicans and four Democrats in the senate.

Washington, Nov. 15.—(I. N. S.)—It cost "Aunt Alice" Robertson, the only woman member of congress, $3950 to make her unsuccessful race for reelection in Oklahoma, according to her campaign statement filed here today.

While officials of the state are working on plans for the immediate and probably more prolonged future of Ernest Crabtree and Wayne Dimmick, these two disillusioned descendants of well established old Oregon families are resting in the county jail in solemn contemplation of the utter futility of life and futility of iniquity.

Both confessed to deputy sheriffs, the deputies report. GALT DIDN'T PAY. "This racket pretty tough," commented one at the conclusion of the confession. "We were through with the game; it didn't pay. An average of $15 or $20 a job wasn't worth the trouble."

Booze Case Bares Bribe Accusation

Efforts to influence the United States attorney's office and bribe government witnesses in the liquor prosecution of Louis Johnson, negro, were charged Monday afternoon in Federal Judge Bean's court.

As a result of the testimony, which brought lawyers on both sides to their feet and created a tense situation in the courtroom for several minutes, a complete and thorough federal grand jury investigation was promised by Allan Byron, assistant United States attorney.

The hearing the jury returned a verdict convicting Johnson of possession and transporting of liquor and acquitting him of the sale charge. The jury also recommended leniency on account of Johnson's family. Judge Bean fixed November 25 as the time for sentence.

Dr. R. Jepson of Fairview, Or., principal government witness against Johnson, told the court that a man, who identified himself as being from the law office of L. H. Morgan, approached him to the extent that over 100 clearances of McCormick steamers will be made monthly.

Triumphant Demonstration in Rome by Fascisti

A VIEW of the great army of Fascisti marching through the streets of Rome as they paraded to the royal palace in a great demonstration that resulted in the reestablishment of a government favorable to their cause which provides the substantial middle class of Italy a rallying point against Bolshevism and Communism. The rise and triumph of the movement that has made Benito Mussolini premier was a most dramatic episode.

Washington, Nov. 15.—(I. N. S.)—Fascist Commissioner Roy Haynes was severely grilled today by the members of the house appropriations committee who are preparing the treasury supply bill.

Refusal of the United Socialists to join a coalition which included the German Peoples party, which is backed by Hugo Stinnes and other conservative elements, was the immediate cause of Wirth's downfall. Without the Socialists he had not a sufficient majority to lead upon in the face of the financial conditions and the reparations tangle.

Reorganization of the Wirth government has been going on over a period of several months, during which the chancellor has been hard pressed by external difficulties involved in the reparations disagreement. Time after time Wirth has succeeded in holding together dispiritedly with Germany's inner political ring by sheer force of his own personality.

Eight persons were killed and many seriously injured in food riots which broke out in various parts of the country yesterday. The rioting, where four were killed, the police were called upon to break up an alleged Communist demonstration in the market place. Besides the four dead, four were injured.

INDICTMENTS OF EMRICK SUSTAINED

W. H. Emrick, chairman of election board No. 201 at the primary election, must stand trial on five indictments returned against him by the Multnomah county grand jury, charging fraud in the count at the primary election.

Demurrers to the indictments, that if granted would have thrown the cases out of court, were denied this morning by Presiding Circuit Judge Stapleton.

Governor Olcott got 40 votes less in precinct No. 201 than he would have got if the ballots had been correctly counted. John B. Coffey and other candidates had the same ill luck.

Investigation led to Emrick's indictment, that each indictment is rampant in language and full of repetitions. I can see no legal justification in these charges for dismissing the indictments.

The district attorney's office announced after the decision that Emrick's case would be tried without further delay. The demurrers have been holding up the trial.

Who Will Aid Injured Boy? Babe Auto Tragedy Victim

James Phillips, whose fair young wife was killed by an automobile at 16th and Kearney streets Saturday afternoon, is about to leave with his two little sons and his wife's body for Des Moines, Iowa, from which town he and his bride ventured hopefully west a few years ago.

It is of the younger son, Kenneth, 11 months old, that fears are now felt. Mrs. Phillips has Kenneth out for an airing and was pushing the baby carriage in which he was riding, across Kearney street, at the time of the accident. Mrs. Phillips has a strange hope to demand such a living wage to allow them to marry and support families. Instead if such workers wanted to marry, Dr. Garfield holds that it is up to the wife to work and help to support the family.
