

WORK OF GETTING JURORS IN HERRIN CASE SLOWS DOWN

(By United News)
Marion, Ill., Nov. 21.—The Herrin massacre trial is in the doldrums. With eight jurors still to be finally accepted for service, prospects of filling the jury box this week from the new panel of 100 veniremen recruited during the week-end dwindled when only five men were examined Monday and all were dismissed.

Something like six out of seven men in the new panel, half of which was in court Monday, are farmers, and their lack of familiarity with court procedure and legal questioning will slow up selection of the jury considerably, judging by the halting progress made Monday.

After attorneys had quibbled and jugged over four candidates for the jury, all four were finally excused. The climax was finally capped by Herbert Hale, a middle-aged farmer, who was so anxious to oblige everyone that he first agreed with Defense Attorney White that he could not possibly try the case fairly, and then agreed just as strongly with District Attorney Dwyer that he would make a perfect juror.

White, Dwyer and Judge Hartwell all went after poor Hale at once, and Hale at first appeared scared half to death. Then he became balky and finally broke down and wept copiously. Judge Hartwell dismissed him. Nine men were excused, when the morning session opened on a note of illness and of unattended children, present or expected.

The special ballots, it was evident, had floundered afar for the prospective jurors. Hunting jackets, corduroy overalls, both new and patched, sweaters, muddy boots and heavy grizzled beards, doomed to grow until spring, brought the healthy odor of the barn yards of the western and northern sections of "bloody Williamson" county into the courtroom.

'Windmill' Dance Craze Hits Paris; Time Slow Shimmy

By Basil D. Woon
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.
Paris, Nov. 21.—The "Windmill Dance" is the latest thing to take Paris by storm. It was today advocated by Dr. Paul Lenard as the "best exercise ever invented for the development of the female figure."

The new creation is danced to slow shimmy time. The partners clutch hands and advance with a variation of the fox trot step, at the same time working the arms forward and back alternately, so as to give a circular motion to the shoulders.

The dance is very graceful when properly executed and the experts who have seen it claim that it is the first really new thing in dancing since the invention of the one-step.

Dr. Lenard asks "Windmilling" for a half hour twice daily in preference to any other exercise.

CAR SHORTAGE CONDITIONS ARE MORE ALARMING

Car shortage conditions continued to grow more serious in Oregon with the opening of another week, despite the reported increase in the movement of empty cars from Eastern railroads to the Western trans-continental lines. Railroad officials reported today that less than 20 per cent of orders received for cars were being filled.

The only optimistic report from the railroads came from the Pacific Fruit Express, which reported 150 refrigerator cars delivered to the O-W R. & N. at Huntington Sunday and that the perishable crop had been cleaned up in Southern Oregon on the S. P. lines.

Although the car service bureau of the O-W refused to give data on car supply conditions, the office of the general manager reported that there was a very slight improvement, mainly in the refrigerator supply. It is believed that the Union Pacific is filling about 50 per cent of its orders.

The Southern Pacific reported that it was filling approximately 30 per cent of its orders. The S. P. & S. reported that it was filling 25 per cent of its box car orders and less than 20 per cent of its refrigerator orders.
