

Social Calendar

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22

Arts and Crafts tea honoring Anthony Euwer. North Dakota State society meeting at Laurelhurst clubhouse.

Miss Metschan To Be Guest Of Honor

By Hazel Hender. The pleasure of Miss Dorothy Metschan, whose marriage to Mr. Willard P. Hawley Jr. will be a brilliant event of Saturday evening, the Misses Edna Pullman and Louise Pullman will entertain with a luncheon at the Hotel Benson Friday. Covers will be placed for 14 intimate friends of the bride-elect. The Misses Pullman are in town from their home in Baker, to attend the wedding.

Miss Benson will entertain Friday afternoon as a compliment to Miss Adele Jones, who has just returned from Kentucky, where she spent the summer. Bridge will be the diversion, guests being invited to make up four tables, and additional ones will call for the tea hour.

Mrs. Charles T. Chamberlain, one of the enthusiastic workers on behalf of the endowment fund for women's colleges in the Orient, Father Wallace will be giving Saturday at the Hotel Multnomah, when subscription reports will be given. Seated at Mrs. Chamberlain's table will be Mrs. C. T. Price, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Mrs. Andrew Porter, Mrs. Sam P. Lockwood, Mrs. Hugh Henry, Mrs. George Black and Miss Grace Phelps. At the second table Mrs. J. C. Mann will be hostess, other guests being Mrs. George Fletcher, Mrs. J. L. Bowman, Mrs. J. W. Goetz, Mrs. E. Doyle, Mrs. Abner Lewis, Mrs. Ernest M. Welch and Mrs. Walter H. Evans. Mrs. Neale Crounse will be hostess at the third table, the guests including Mrs. H. H. Sproule, Mrs. George Hamilton, Mrs. A. J. Bale, Mrs. Sidney Smythe, Mrs. G. P. Price, Mrs. A. F. Bittner, Mrs. W. B. Babson, Mrs. Anderson Cannon will be hostess at a table at which the additional guests will be Mrs. Charles E. Wolverton, Mrs. Frank N. Gilbert, Mrs. Ernest Meyer, Mrs. Leroy Fields, Mrs. Percy Blanchard, Mrs. George F. Nevins, Mrs. Merrill Moore. Seated at Mrs. John G. Wilson's table will be Mrs. Morton Taubman, Mrs. Georgi Gelsler, Miss Helma Fox, Miss Marie Williams, Miss Carrin Degermark, Mrs. David Mason and Mrs. C. C. Patrick.

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends was the wedding of Miss Ethel Marie Bolger to Mr. Thomas V. Hughes, which was solemnized at St. Charles church this morning at 8 o'clock. Father Wallace officiated, and only immediate relatives were present. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Duffy, sister and brother-in-law of the bride. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left immediately for the honeymoon in the cities of British Columbia. Upon their return they will reside in Portland.

As a compliment to Mrs. Wesley Ladd Kendall of Worcester, Mass., and Mrs. G. A. Batchelor of San Francisco, Mrs. Jay Smith will entertain with a bridge luncheon in their honor. Mrs. Kendall is the mother of the Mr. Robert Kendall, the betrothed of Miss Nancy Holt, and the guest list for the luncheon will include intimate friends of the Holt family.

A number of dinner parties will be given preceding the dancing party at which Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Jackson will entertain Thanksgiving eve. Mrs. Josephine Andrews has asked a number of friends to dine, Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Koehler will entertain with a large affair and Mrs. Angela Murphy will also be a hostess at dinner.

Mrs. Paul Emmett Terry and her sister-in-law, Miss Adelaide Terry, left last week for their home in San Francisco. While here they were the house guests of Mrs. Terry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Plummer, and Mrs. Earl Latourette. They were extensively entertained.

For the benefit of the Alpha Phi chapter house at Eugene, the Portland alumni association of that sorority are planning a large bridge tea to be given at the Hotel Portland on Wednesday, December 1. Mrs. H. H. O'Reilly, Mrs. J. O. Elrod and Mrs. H. G. Colton are in charge of arrangements.

The many Portland friends of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Denby Mackie (Nona Lawler), will be interested to know that a son, their third child, was born in Seattle, Sunday, November 12. The baby will be called Paul Denby Mackie Jr.

Mrs. T. Whitcomb entertained with a delightful dancing and card party.

Restores Original Color to Gray Hair

Co-Lo restores the natural color, life and luster to gray and faded hair in a manner nature approves—a scientific process perfected by Prof. John H. Austin of Chicago, over 40 years a hair and scalp specialist.

Secrets of Co-Lo Success

Co-Lo is a wonderful liquid. Clear, odorless, graceless. Without lead or sulphur. Without sediment. Will not wash or rub out. Will not injure hair or scalp. Pleasant and simple to apply. Cannot be detected like ordinary hair tints and dyes. Will not cause the hair to split or break off. Co-Lo Hair Restorer for every natural shade of hair—A8, for black and dark shades of brown; A7, for jet black hair; A6, for medium brown shades; A5, for light brown and ash and auburn shades.

At All Drug & Dept. Stores

Trial Bottle of Co-Lo

Prof. John H. Austin

MRS. HOWARDE. WEED, president of the Women of Rotary, who are giving a tea Thursday afternoon at the Patton Home for Old People.

By Hazel Hender. The pleasure of Miss Dorothy Metschan, whose marriage to Mr. Willard P. Hawley Jr. will be a brilliant event of Saturday evening, the Misses Edna Pullman and Louise Pullman will entertain with a luncheon at the Hotel Benson Friday. Covers will be placed for 14 intimate friends of the bride-elect. The Misses Pullman are in town from their home in Baker, to attend the wedding.

Miss Benson will entertain Friday afternoon as a compliment to Miss Adele Jones, who has just returned from Kentucky, where she spent the summer. Bridge will be the diversion, guests being invited to make up four tables, and additional ones will call for the tea hour.

Mrs. Charles T. Chamberlain, one of the enthusiastic workers on behalf of the endowment fund for women's colleges in the Orient, Father Wallace will be giving Saturday at the Hotel Multnomah, when subscription reports will be given. Seated at Mrs. Chamberlain's table will be Mrs. C. T. Price, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Mrs. Andrew Porter, Mrs. Sam P. Lockwood, Mrs. Hugh Henry, Mrs. George Black and Miss Grace Phelps. At the second table Mrs. J. C. Mann will be hostess, other guests being Mrs. George Fletcher, Mrs. J. L. Bowman, Mrs. J. W. Goetz, Mrs. E. Doyle, Mrs. Abner Lewis, Mrs. Ernest M. Welch and Mrs. Walter H. Evans. Mrs. Neale Crounse will be hostess at the third table, the guests including Mrs. H. H. Sproule, Mrs. George Hamilton, Mrs. A. J. Bale, Mrs. Sidney Smythe, Mrs. G. P. Price, Mrs. A. F. Bittner, Mrs. W. B. Babson, Mrs. Anderson Cannon will be hostess at a table at which the additional guests will be Mrs. Charles E. Wolverton, Mrs. Frank N. Gilbert, Mrs. Ernest Meyer, Mrs. Leroy Fields, Mrs. Percy Blanchard, Mrs. George F. Nevins, Mrs. Merrill Moore. Seated at Mrs. John G. Wilson's table will be Mrs. Morton Taubman, Mrs. Georgi Gelsler, Miss Helma Fox, Miss Marie Williams, Miss Carrin Degermark, Mrs. David Mason and Mrs. C. C. Patrick.

FASHION'S REALM

Paris, Nov. 21.—Paris is confronted by a serious problem today. How to maintain the straight, slim lines which Parisiennes so ardently desire and at the same time bulge out into the fullness which the couturiers have decreed. Yet the impossible has been accomplished through the front godet. This allows width while not interfering with the clinging, slender effect.

London, Nov. 21.—Arms are "out" once more, which means that they are in as sleeves are concerned. It is no longer fashionable to show the arms too much in evening dress. The removable flounce sleeve is a quaint device looking toward concealment. Gathered into an elastic top, the sleeve of lace or embroidered net starts just above the elbow, leaving the arm bare only around the shoulder.

New York, Nov. 21.—One thing the opera season has proved even so early is the extraordinary vogue of the coronet. Disks that no queen need be ashamed to wear sparkle and glow in the boxes these nights. The usual shape is the Russian, which rises a bit in front. The coronets are invariably fastened to the back of the hair by means of several strands of pearls.

followed by a midnight supper Saturday evening in honor of the birthday of Edith Dill. About 25 guests were present.

Mrs. A. D. Willoughby of Tacoma is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Stater at the Brown apartments. Mrs. Willoughby is a former Portland resident.

The Kenton club will hold a dance at the clubhouse Wednesday evening.

BURGESS' BEDTIME STORIES

By Thornton W. Burgess. That friendship which is staunch and true. Naught better can life find than true friendship. —Old Mother Nature.

THE young Fox did not struggle when he was picked up by Farmer Brown's Boy. To be sure he cast longing glances through the Green Forest and over the Green Meadows as he was carried back to Farmer Brown's barnyard, but not once did he try to escape. All the way there Farmer Brown's Boy talked to him in gentle tones. As soon as they reached the barnyard Farmer Brown's Boy made the chain fast to the wall where it had been fastened before. Then he left the young Fox and went into the house. When he came out again he had a plate piled high with food. My, how the eyes of that young Fox glistened! He could hardly wait for Farmer Brown's Boy to set the plate down. You see, he had had nothing to eat for a day and a half save a few beetles and insects. He fairly gobbled it down as greedily as any pig. Farmer Brown's Boy smiled as he watched. "It was just as I thought," said he. "You couldn't catch any food with that chain, and you must have gotten that chain fast. I found you. If I hadn't, you would have starved to death, and that would have been dreadful. Now I am going to leave you for a good rest, and then I'll have supper for you."

The young Fox licked the plate clean, and then curled up for a nap. It was a terrible disappointment to be back there a prisoner again, but it was better than being helpless over in the Green Forest. He knew that it wasn't likely he would be able to get that chain fast again, and so as he dropped off to sleep it was with the feeling that he would probably always be a prisoner. Early the next morning Farmer Brown's Boy brought him food as usual, and stood by and watched him eat it. Then for a few moments he petted that young Fox, patted him, tickled him behind the ears, and all the time talked to him. Finally he picked the young Fox up in his arms and unfastened the chain from the collar.

Then Farmer Brown's Boy started off with the young Fox in his arms. What could be going to happen? Where was he being taken? What did it mean? The young Fox couldn't even guess. Somehow he couldn't believe

Program Given By Rotary Women

By Yella Wisner. MUSIC and recitations headed the program of the regular monthly gathering of the Women of Rotary Monday noon in the Tyrolean room of the Benson hotel. Mrs. Winthrop Hammond, chairman for November, presided. Final plans for the tea, which is being sponsored by the club members, at Patton Home, Thursday afternoon, were discussed. The affair is not to be a benefit entertainment, but a reception for the men and women of the home.

The luncheon room yesterday was made gay with sprays of brilliant Indian currant. Miss Alice Moore sang several pleasing and appropriate numbers. A violin was played by Miss Hawkes, accompanied by Miss Florence Snyder, was very pleasing. Three entertaining and clever recitations were given by Mrs. W. H. Warren. Thursday at Patton Home Jeanette Boyer Xanten will sing, accompanied by Paul Petr. There will be moving pictures by W. H. Chatlen and Pearl Staples will play some of the violin numbers. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Isaac E. Staples. The tea hours will be from 2 to 5. Mrs. Elbert E. Peets is in charge of the program.

Elma, Wash.—At the last meeting of the Elma Parent-Teacher association an address was given by Mr. George B. Miller, superintendent of the Aberdeen schools, choosing as his subject, "That Boy of Yours."

An address was given by Miss Vera Moffitt on "Community Service." Miss Moffitt lately has been employed by the community, as teacher in this service and is meeting with willing support. The nutrition committee was authorized to provide milk for undernourished scholars whose parents are financially unable to purchase it.

The Elma high school orchestra of 10 instruments, under the leadership of Miss Margaret Adams, provided music during the meeting. Under the leadership of Miss Adams the high school chorus gave two selections, and Miss Arvilla Miller rendered a charming vocal solo.

The Elma Parent-Teacher association is decidedly different from others, in that its officers are fathers, with the exception of a woman teacher secretary. The meetings of the Elma Parent-Teacher association are held in the evenings, which accounts for the large attendance of fathers.

A distinctive and colorful feature of the big luncheon to be given Saturday at the Hotel Multnomah on behalf of an endowment for women's colleges in China, Japan and India, will be the presence of official representatives of China, Japan and Great Britain. John P. Trant, British consul, will have as his guests a company of young Hindu students. Y. Takeda, the Japanese consul, Mrs. Takeda and other prominent Japanese, will occupy another table and China will be represented by Seid Back, a prominent American born Chinese resident of Portland. Flags of the United States and of the three countries represented will be in evidence. This foreign feature of the luncheon has been arranged by Mrs. Lee Davenport, chairman of the Americanization committee of the division of American Citizenship of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs.

Helix.—At a meeting of the patrons in the school house Friday afternoon, Mrs. T. W. Wyrick of Pendleton, gave an address and organized a Parent-Teacher circle for the Helix district with 30 charter members. Mrs. Wyrick is vice president and official organizer of the State Parent-Teacher association. The newly elected officers are: President, Mrs. A. C. Voelker; vice president, Mrs. Beattie Reese; secretary, Mrs. Letha Kendall; treasurer, Chester Gennell. The following chairmen of committees were appointed: Membership, Carl McConnell; program, Mrs. A. C. McIntyre; entertainment, Mrs. Dan McIntyre. The circle will hold monthly meetings and its first official act will be to serve the Father

Society and Women's Clubs

And Son banquet which the Commercial club is giving next Friday evening. Imbler.—A Parent-Teacher organization was perfected here Thursday evening which marks the beginning of anything of that nature ever undertaken here. The grade school furnished a short program in connection with the evening performance. Almost 100 members enrolled for service in the new organization. The officers are: President, Mr. Frank McKenney; first vice president, Mrs. L. A. Stringham; second vice president, Mrs. Conklin; secretary, Mrs. Lyle Stringham; treasurer, Miss L. Agos. The association voted to meet on the evening of the last Friday in each month.

The Woman's Psychic club will meet in the church parlor at East Seventh and Hassalo streets Wednesday for an all-day meeting. All members are requested to be present as there is sewing to be done in preparation for the bazaar, which will be held the first week in December. The public is invited to attend the business at 2:30 o'clock, when spiritual messages will be given.

The tea and stocking shower given Saturday afternoon at the Albertine Kerr Nursery by the Progressive Woman's League was a signal success, more than 200 tiny pairs of socks being contributed, as well as many other garments and a goodly sum of money. Great credit for the success of the affair is due Mrs. W. M. Coplan, who headed the committee.

DRESS

Appropriate dressing for formal dinners

Plain Materials Are Successfully Combined With Brocade. In this charming afternoon gown, black crepe de chine is combined with silk brocade. The immense pelerine collar makes a wide band which falls in Capuchin lines in the back. Directly from the front the full apron is slit to the waist, disclosing the tight underskirt. A double buckle of black jet clasps and fastens the bodice on the left side.

(Copyright, 1932, by Vogue, New York.)

Give by the Month

Breakfast, lunch or dinner—Golden West coffee brings a cheery, stimulating touch that only a fine coffee possesses.

FRATERNAL

The South Parkway club will give a benefit minstrel and vaudeville show to raise funds for scholarships, at the Portland Social Turn Verein hall, Sunday evening, December 3, at 8:15 o'clock. The affair is arranged under the personal supervision of George Natanson and Steven Juhaas. Those who will take part in the program include Morris Perkel, and man; "Pac-Man" Funder, Morris All, who will take leading parts, and other members of the club who will take chorus roles. Three vaudeville stunts will be furnished by the Red Lantern players. It is hoped that proceeds from this affair may be sufficient to send at least half a dozen boys to college.

Centralia, Wash.—At a banquet November 17 Mrs. Mildred Love of Everett, department president of W. R. C., and Mrs. Clara W. Eison, department inspector, were guests of the T. P. Price W. R. C. No. 16 at the Community house. Following the banquet Mrs. Love and Mrs. Eison inspected the work of the Red Lantern players. They made their annual inspection of C. D. Spencer W. R. C. of this city.

With the hall filled with members and their friends, Ben Hur court No. 3, Tribe of Ben Hur, gave another of their series of social functions at Archer Place Friday night. Five hundred followed by dancing was enjoyed. Grocery prizes were given as card honors. The successful contestants were Herman Rohrer, J. Walker, Mrs. Anna Bausch and Mrs. M. K. Spencer.

Betsy Ross No. 1, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, will meet in room 525 courthouse, Thursday at 8 p. m. Department President Mrs. Josephine Caggett has returned from the East and will make a report on the national convention. The daughters were represented in the Armistice day exercises at the unveiling of the Theodore Roosevelt statue. The cadet team of Fram assembly, United Artists, will give a dance Tuesday evening in Macabees hall, No. 286 1/2 Washington street. One of the features of the evening will be a prize walk. Proceeds are to be used for new uniforms for the cadets. An invitation is extended to all Artisans and friends.

A masquerade party will be given by Liberty assembly, United Artisans, Wednesday evening, in the East Side Woodman hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. There will be eight costume prizes and a turkey as a door prize. All Artisans and their friends are invited to attend and are assured a good time by the committee. Francis Carothers is chairman of the committee.

Molalla—Officers of Oak Rabekah lodge No. 150 were elected Friday night as follows: Noble grand, Mary T. Ridings; vice grand, Birdie Dickerson; secretary, Fay Teller; recording secretary, Gertrude Everhart; treasurer, Hattie Cole. The degree staff of 20 members will go to Canby tonight to initiate a class.

KGG-KGN Oregon Journal

Hallok & Watson Radio Service Northwestern Radio Mfg. Co. Broadcasting. OREGON JOURNAL NEWS United States Health Bulletin. Radio Advice and Instruction. Agriculture Dept. Agrigrams. Official Police Theft Report. Daily Market Reports.

The Journal and its allied broadcast are the leaders in Oregon in news and radio broadcasting.

DAILY PROGRAM (Of all stations) EVERY AFTERNOON 1:00-2:00—KGY. Instrumental and vocal selections. 2:00-3:00—KFG. Musical and feature program. 3:00-4:00—KGG. Instrumental and vocal program. 4:00-5:00—KGG. Mrs. Victor Brandt. Community Chat. 5:00-6:00—KGG. The Journal chimes will sound the evening time. 6:00-7:00—KGY. Instrumental and vocal selections. 7:00-7:30—KGG. The Journal news bulletin. 7:30-8:00—KGG. Quiet hour. 8:00-9:00—Quiet hour.

Baritone to Sing for Radio

Wednesday night radio listeners of the Northwest will have the privilege of again hearing Paul Hutchinson, baritone, when Hallock & Watson broadcast their program from the studio in the Journal building. Hutchinson's former appearances on the radio were commented on by radio fans from all parts of the Pacific coast and from several stations in Canada, the Rocky Mountain states and the Middle West. He is conceded to be one of Portland's best baritones. Russell Webb, conductor, will also be on the program, as will two acts from the Pantages. These numbers were arranged by W. A. McDougall of the McDougall-Conn Music company especially for the Hallock & Watson broadcast. The Pantages acts will be Farrell & Hatch, blackface singers, who, according to the bill, "will sing their own songs in their own way," and the Burton Sisters, another musical act. Both acts are spoken of highly by vaudeville reviews. Sunday night the program will be put on by Billy Webb's orchestra.

WIDOWS PLAN TO MOVE

Sandy, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Ethel Townsend, widow of Ennis Townsend, and Mrs. McKee, widow of Fred McKee, plan to move from Bull Run to Portland. Their husbands were victims of an explosion at the P. R. & P. company's power plant.

Corbett Street To Be Improved

Assurance has been given by Commissioner Barbur to members of the Oregon State Motor association and other organizations directly interested in traffic over the Pacific highway, that improvement of Corbett street, between Julia and Seymour avenues, as a part of the Pacific highway, will be one of the first jobs on the 1933 improvement program. This stretch of the highway is particularly objectionable to motorists, and is about the only unimproved section of the highway from Oregon City to the center of Portland.

What a Wise Woman Knows

The woman who takes pride in her baking and is watchful of the family health is never won away from ROYAL Baking Powder. She knows that it is absolutely pure and dependable—that for over 50 years it has been used in the best homes in the country. It Contains No Alum Leaves No Bitter Taste

$29.00

Special Purchase and Sale

Beautiful New Coats With Beaverette Collars

At a Price That Should Make Tomorrow the Biggest Coat Day of the Season!

$29.00

a remarkable event for women who want to buy smart, new and distinctive coats from a high class maker at a very low price!

Suedine velours—American bolivias—navy and brown—beaverette collared—silk lined—bloused backs—belted models—pearl stitching—gold thread and self-embroidering—odd belt effects—buttons

—these are some of the things of interest about this unusual grouping of coats! You must see them for yourself in order to fully appreciate them, and the extraordinariness of their values.

Buy tomorrow morning, while selection is biggest and best

Twenty-nine dollars is a mighty low price for coats like these!

Thousands of Oregonians share in the splendid conveniences of our Credit Gladly Plan! Ask about it!

Tenth and Washington

"A Good Place to Buy" for a Third of a Century