

Multnomah Cub Eleven Strengthened for Thanksgiving Day Battle Against Olympics

Take Risley and Howard And Howard Join M'Team

FOR the first time this season, the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club football players are covoring around with the same college spirit. They're really excited about it all for next Thursday afternoon, on Multnomah field, the 'Winged' 'M' wearers will engage with the Olympic club, representatives of San Francisco.

Word has been drifting in from the city that the Olympics have taken on three of the University of California stars who finished their college careers last Saturday afternoon.

The local clubmen held a workout on Multnomah field Sunday morning and Coach Ted Faulk, who is so well pleased with the turnout that he had them going through all kinds of strenuous plays. Finally after about two hours he simply had to drive them into the clubhouse.

Take Risley and Mart Howard are new additions to the club. They put in an appearance Sunday and immediately got busy learning the signals. Both are in good condition and are going to work out two times a week when they feel that they will be able to take their places in the lineup and make it tough on the opposition.

They will be at center and Howard, who was selected all-Pacific coast end last fall, will be able to take his place on one of the extremities.

The game will start promptly at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon and the turkey day game is attracting considerable attention. The advance and each day on Monday morning and it wasn't long before more than 1000 of the grandstand seats had been disposed of. Multnomah was defeated by the Olympic club Armistice day and the Portlanders are going to wind up the campaign with a victory, they claim.

The Olympic club is going to bring 18 players, according to the latest information received here, and all of them are so good that it is a difficult matter to select the first 11.

Barrett has every reason in the world to try his darndest to beat Fal, because if he does the freckled boy will get another bout with Lew Tender. And the lightweight who can beat Lew is the lightweight who is going to wear the kingly crown in the class. Just now Lew is no the sidelines with a badly damaged hand. Otherwise he is feeling fit.

That smoke cloud you see on the horizon is not a bad one, it is the smoke of a storm, cyclone or other elemental disturbance. It is merely Harry Willis and Jack Johnson trying to arrange a bout. It will never be held in New York, that's a cinch. But while there will be some delay about obtaining permission in New Jersey, there is every likelihood the fight will be held in Newark or Jersey City soon after the first of 1923.

Business Men Will Take Up Athletics

Freewater, Nov. 27.—Twenty-five business men of Milton and Freewater have formed an organization known as the Business Men's Athletic Association, which will be open to all business men and their employes. They will meet every Wednesday evening. The officers are C. H. Hood, president; C. L. Hood, secretary, and E. E. (Spika) Leslie of the McLaughlin high school, instructor.

Visiting Golfers Defeat Locals on Municipal Links

DEFEATING Rudolph Wilhelm of the Portland Golf club and Howard Beal, professional at 2 and 2 Sunday on the Ammorland municipal course, Walter Hagen, British open champion, and Joe Kirkwood, Australian title holder, made a clean sweep of the two matches played here. Hagen and Kirkwood each turned in medal scores of 69, while Wilhelm and Beal finished with a card of 77. The visiting professionals had a best ball of 66, while the local winners had 76. The locals were one down at the turn. The match ended on the 16th green, when Hagen sank a putt for a birdie.

A large gallery followed the match, and were given a treat in driving. Wilhelm drove on a par with Hagen, and Kirkwood a clean birdie in the holes. He registered an eagle on the 463 yard ninth hole. The cards:

Out—

Hagen	454	355	454-37
Kirkwood	462	335	524-35
Wilhelm	486	443	544-34
Beal	454	354	545-39

Arleta 'Pros' Win From Mill City Quintet, 72 to 17

The Arleta professional basketball club easily overpowered the Mill City team Saturday night and won 72 to 17. The Mill City boys were unable to fathom the fast-passing and shooting game of the Arleta club. Craig, center of the Arleta club, was all over the floor and most of the team play revolved around him. Dave Evans was high point man for Arleta, with 24 points to his credit, while Craig of the same club shot nine baskets. N. Morgan, center of Mill City, was high point man with seven to his credit. The Mill City club was so far outclassed that none of them were given an opportunity to star. However, they were full of fight and did not give Arleta a chance to ease up at any period during the game.

In the preliminary game, the Arleta Juniors easily defeated the Sheridan team coached by Chapple King, ex-Franklin high school star. Babe Thomas and Scion were the stars for the Arleta Juniors, with King making most of the points for Sheridan.

A good sized crowd witnessed the games. The Arleta Professionals, making its first appearance, fully justified the advance notices of Manager Ray Brooks. With a little more practice, the Arleta club should be able to step out and show the basketball fans of the city better basketball than has ever been seen around here. Leon Favara refereed both games.

BENEFIT SOCCER GAME SET
The "Old Nationals" and Peninsula will start a benefit soccer game on Thanksgiving day, starting at 12 o'clock noon. The "Old Nationals" will have in the lineup some of the old timers who made soccer history in Oregon, and the benefit will be for Archibald "Scotty" Duncan, a former member as well as coach of the Jefferson high and Portland Academy eleven several years ago, who is seriously ill in St. Vincent hospital.

New York to Shower Of Ring Rows

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—It never rains but it pours down boxing gloves. There will be four battle shovels in New York on Monday night, another on Tuesday, a big row in the Garden on Wednesday, the O'Dowd-Cameron rumour on Thanksgiving day, an open date Friday and a resumption of the whacking on Saturday and Monday week.

Taking them as they come, as Bob Fitzsimmons used to do, the cards for Monday night are topped by the heavyweight diving causal at the Garden in which 20 dock ornaments will fight 10 four-round events. This is the elimination tournament promoted by Jimmy Johnston, the rising beef baron. Nobody that anybody ever heard of is on the program.

Johnny Dundee, boxes Phil Delmont, a 12-rounder at the Broadway club of Brooklyn. Spencer Gardner, a kid now recently whaled Charlie Beecher, meets Red Monroe at the Fairmont. The Fresno Art A. provides a 13-round bantam bout between Johnny Gray and Vincent Salvatori.

Babe Herman, late protege of Jack Dempsey, grown to a lightweight, boxes Jack Bernstein Tuesday at the Phoenix.

The big fight of the week is the 15-rounder at the Garden between Gene Tunney, late American light heavyweight champion, and Charlie Weisner, Tunney, to fight Harry Greb, the man who took his title away, in a return bout on December 23. Mickey Finn, O'Dowd, former middleweight champion, will try to win the title back from Dave Rossberg, the New York commission champion, who has since fallen to O'Dowd originally won the crown from Al McCoy.

Frankie Jerome and Bat Leonard, bantamweights, are the Saturday night attraction at the Commonwealth.

A week from Monday, Irish Johnny Carter boxes Mickey Smith, the ex-soldier, at Jersey City.

Cameron's Defeat Macleays; Have Big Lead in Title Race

By John B. Foster
NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Miller Huggins is strictly up against it today in the matter of his outfield. He knows it and he is making strenuous efforts to strengthen his outer garden.

Should Ruth fall next season to play up to what is presumed to be his normal speed, the Yankees will be in a terrible fix, unless Huggins can get a little assistance from the other seven clubs of his league through a neighborly swap of players. He may get this help but his chances are slight.

Ruth fell off last year and when the official averages are out they will bear out the unofficial averages that Ruth's fall was no small drop. Of course, every player must start some time to drop back and the faster the top speed the sooner and the harder they drop. The question worrying Huggins today is whether Ruth's inability to hold onto the lead and apparently had the game well in hand.

The Navy was far from licked, however, and scored a second touchdown on the 45 yard line. This encouraged the West Pointers and they put across a touchdown and goal in the third period, went into the lead and apparently had the game well in hand.

Railroad Hauls Record Crowd to Yale-Harvard Mix

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 27.—With football crowds growing larger every year, railroads have found it necessary to keep a score card of their own. Thus, while Harvard won Saturday's game against Yale the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad is claiming a victory also.

Fifty-nine trains were employed to bring the crowd into New Haven for the game, and 42 carried the spectators home. During hours at a time trains were unloaded at the rate of one every 2 1/2 minutes and loaded every 2 1/2 minutes for the third score, 478 during the day, mostly from Boston and New York.

Harrisburg, Or., Nov. 27.—The Harrisburg high school football team still keeps its goose-egg record for the season as a result of the grid contest played Friday afternoon with the St. Mary's eleven of Eugene. The final score was 36 to 0. The winners were outweighted 19 pounds to the player, but the loss has not created an opponent's goal so far this year.

Vancouver, Wash., Nov. 27.—The Vancouver Community club football team defeated the Woodstock team of Portland Sunday, 1 to 0.

Huggins' Outfield Needs Big Bracer; Babe Has Decline

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Dissection of the cold facts of some of Saturday's football games after the excitement and heat of contest was over showed that some remarkable contests were played and a number of stand-outs finally settled.

The defeat Washington and Jefferson suffered at the hands of Detroit makes it look as if the W. & J. team had paid dearly for that win over La Fayette. La Fayette caught a Tartar, too, in their old rival Leigh, and were very lucky to come through with a win by the margin of 3 to 0.

Iowa and Michigan were left at the mercy of the Western conference, as Chicago would do better than play a tie with Wisconsin.

St. Louis Mo., Nov. 27.—(U. S. S.)—Austin McHenry, star left fielder of the Cardinals, died at his home in Mount Grib, Ohio, this morning, according to a message received by Clarence Lloyd, treasurer of the club.

McHenry's death followed an operation three weeks ago, in Cincinnati, for brain tumor.

McHenry had been with the Cardinals four years, and was one of the leading batmen.

Washington, Pa., Nov. 23.—(U. P.)—Although not announced officially, it is known that Earl Neale will not return to W. & J. next year as head football coach. The position has been offered to Knute Rockne, Notre Dame coach, at a salary said to be in excess of $7500. Rockne is said to have answered that his contract has two years to run at Notre Dame and he would not ask to be relieved.

TURKEY SHOOT BILLED
Harrisburg, Or., Nov. 27.—The second annual turkey shoot to be given by the Harrisburg Rod and Gun club will be held on Maxon field here, Tuesday, November 28. The shoot, for which the club has made extensive preparations, and has provided turkeys enough to feed a good portion of the Harrisburg people Thanksgiving, is to be an all-day affair.

California Team Second in Scoring; Dobie's Men Leaders

By Henry L. Farrell
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WEST POINT, Nov. 27.—(U. P.)—Princeton's place at the top of eastern football is firmly established. Princeton, Cornell, the Army and West Virginia remain undefeated so far. The claim of the Tigers to the eastern championship can be disputed. None can deny, however, that the Tigers have the best record.

The Army proved itself to be one of the most powerful teams in the East by winning from the Navy but as long as West Point goes on to victories with players who have been playing for five, six, seven and as many as eight years, it is not fair to consider the cadets for championships.

One of the surprises was the defeat administered to the Washington and Jefferson eleven by Detroit. The narrow escape Lafayette had in beating Lehigh only 3 to 0, was another jolt.

Because most of the experts figured Yale to be the favorite the victory of Harvard over the Michigan eleven is a game might be considered a surprise. Yale's only hope for victory rested in playing a different game than the Ill's had played all season and they didn't do it. Yale had the material and perhaps the coaching but Yale didn't have football brains.

In beating Stanford, 25 to 0, the great California eleven was able to retain its position as the best scoring machine among the major teams. The Bears have piled up a total of 336 points. Leading the East and second on the national list is Cornell with 330 points. Auburn has the lead in the south, with 277 and Iowa was the best in the Midwest with 208.

Michigan and Notre Dame had the best defense in the country. Each had only 13 points scored against them. Notre Dame, however, had four goals line crossed once while the Michigan line was twice crossed. Depauw scored one touchdown on Notre Dame while Georgia Tech scored three touchdowns and goal each. Both Wisconsin and Minnesota scored touchdowns on Michigan and Minnesota added the point after touchdown.

Seven Bouts On Milwaukie Bill Tuesday

WITTI the signing of Broken Blossoms, an Oregon City battler, the Milwaukie boxing commission has completed the card for its carnival of four-round contests Tuesday night.

Broken Blossoms has been endeavoring to get on one of the local cards for several months and Tuesday night he will get a chance to show whether he has the goods.

Danny Nunes, the hard hitting and clever featherweight from Sacramento, Cal., and Mike De Pinto will tangle in the main bout. This ought to have a fast bout.

Billy Gardeau and Ritchie Davis, who hail from Walla Walla, will tangle in the semi-main event. The other bouts scheduled are: Frank Webb vs. Tim Callahan, Frankie Critlow vs. Jack Dillon and Tex Covey vs. Kilo Burke.

This is the first four-round card that has been offered to the fans of Portland in many months. It should provide a lot of action for the followers of the fight game.

Seats can be purchased at Rich and Stillers.

The Portland boxing commission at a meeting Sunday set the following dates for smokers to be staged during December. The first card will be staged Monday night, December 4, and will feature King Leopold of Oakland and Joe Gorman and Tom King and "Battling" Ortega. Danny Kramer, Los Angeles featherweight, will be matched in his bout with Nunes and staged December 13 and on the 13th, the semi-finals of the featherweight tournament will be held. It is planned to stage the finale of the tourney January 1.

Ad Mackie, who lost to Danny Nunes, has been re-labeled as a featherweight. Mackie claims that he was matched in his bout with Nunes and it was on that grounds that the commission decided to give him another chance.

Ad Mackie has been signed to appear in the main event of the boxing smoker to be staged by the Salem boxing commission, December 6.
