Liquor Brings $300 Fine-Jacob Sterker was fined $300 by District Judge Deich Wednesday afternoon on a charge of possessing liquor. Sterker pleaded guilty, but told the court 60 gallons of mash found in his house also was the property of a friend. Judge Deich accepted this explanation and made an exception to his present policy of imposing the maximum of $500 such cases. Sterker was arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Beeman, Schirmer

Sellwood Bridge Boosted-The Sellwood Community club proposes to keep alive the agitation for replacement of the Sellwood ferry by a bridge, and this will be one of the subjects for discussion at its meeting at the community house next Tuesday evening. A special committee will be named at that time to outline future course of action. The club plans for a campaign to increase its membership, which campaign will run to the time of the annual election of officers in February.
