FEATURE SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICES FALL FROM

Three dedications featured church services in Portland Sunday. New buildings were dedicated by the Pioneer Methodist and Moreland Presbyterian congregations and a baptismal font at the First Methodist church. The Pieneer church in St. Johns was dedicated Sunday morning by Bishop William O. Shepard, the impressive Methodist Episcopal ceremony being used. The bishop took his text from Luke 10, "Thy neighbors as thyself." "We are coming to see that the world is only a whole neighborhood, and that. regardless of religion, politics, nationality or color, we must do unto others was secretary of the Oregon Life Inas we would that they would do unto us, and thy neighbor as thyself," he

"This beautiful church," he continued, "must not be filled with beautiful music alone, with silver-tongued erators, nor with mighty preachers, but with just neighborliness born of the love of God, with just kindliness by everyone that enters, and with

FREE FROM DEBT

The audience gave $500 more than was needed to dedicate the building free from debt, $3500 being offered. The building cost $30,000. Preceding the sermon, the program included a prelude, "Romance," by Mrs. B. A. Olson; invocation by Dr. Frank N. Sandifur, a former pastor "Prayer Perfect," by Miss Lola Murphy, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Bernice McCall; violin solo, by plano by Mrs. Olson; solo, "Seek Ye the Lord," by J. Grant McGinnis, with Assisting in the dedication were H. F. Clark, who presented the key: D. Talman, E. E. Brimner, Thomas Skelis, William Galloway, C. W. Mason, E. C. Thurston, J. H. Brown and Otis Learned, trustees of the church. Prededicatory services were held on Friday evening. On this program were solos by Mrs. Eva L. Abbott and an address by the Rev. Charles W. Mac-Caughy. On Saturday evening former pastors, the Rev. J. J. Patten, the Rev. I. H. Irvine and the Rev. F. N. Sandifer, conducted an echo service. Sunday evening Dr. W. W. Young-son, district superintendent, preached the sermon. The musical program included numbers by the junior and adult choirs and a solo by Mr. McGinnis. The pastor, the Rev. W. E. Kloster, presided at all services.

ANOTHER FREE FROM DEBT

The Moreland Presbyterian church at East 18th street and Bybee avenue, erected at a cost of $25,000, was also dedicated free from debt, the audience giving the $4500 necessary to wipe out all incumbrances. The new church was used for the morning service, the Rev. R. S. Donaldson, educational secretary of the Presbyterian church with headquarters at San Francisco, preaching, but the formal dedication was not held until 3 e'clock. At the afternoon service the pastor, the Rev. W. S. McCullagh, presided and the following had some part in the service: Dr. H. L. Bowman, pastor of First Presbyterian church; Dr. Ed-ward H. Pence, pastor of Westmin-ster Presbyterian church, and representative of Presbyterian church extension work; Dr. Richard F. Scholz, idson, representative of the Presbyterian church extension club; the Rev. Boudinot Seeley, superintendent of home missions for the Portland Presbytery; and Dr. Henry White, pastor of Millard Avenue Presbyterian church.

The new Dickson memorial font at the First Methodist church was dedicated by the pastor, Dr. B. E. Parker. Sunday morning. The font was a gift in honor of Mrs. J. K. Dickson and was given by her children, Mrs. W. C. Bristol and Mrs. G. P. Larson of Portland, and Dr. J. H. Dickson, a mission-

After 'Wet' Party Man Is Assaulted And Loses Money

An admission that he was badly intoxicated and did not know what hap-pened to him Saturday night, was made to Police Detectives Celeman and Col-lins Sunday by H. H. Viert, manager of the Columbia Discount company... Falling building, who earlier had re-ported that he had been beaten and ported that he had been beaten and robbed of $63 by a gang of men at Union avenue and Burnside street. In proof of his original story of the robbery Viert displayed a broken jaw and many bruises, which he received in the scuffle, he said. The detectives scouted his story and questioned him closely. He finally admitted that he had been out on a "party" and did not know whether anyone had picked his pockets. He said when he left his home he had $87 in his pocket. He could not explain how he was in-jured.
