Overheard in the Boys' and Girls' Own Bookshop

"It came out this year in this beautiful edition to celebrate its twenty-fifth birthday." "Twenty-fifty? No! y-e-s, but is that too long? It seems just yesterday mother gave me mine for Christmas. I remember nothing else I've ever finished than I began all over again. All the kids in our neighborhood borrowed and read it. I've got it yet—battered and broken, but I would not trade it—because it's the best of the best of the old and beautiful as it is. Caroline is entitled to a fresh copy, though, and 'Master Skylark' is one I'd like her to have in a fine edition."

In our stock you will find the books that stirred you, some of them as in the case of "Master Skylark" in artistic new dress. We can say that with all modesty because they have been recommended by some of the finest men and women in the country, men and women trained in the observation of children, educators, librarians.
