But Music! What of that?

HAVE YOU remembered music this Christmas? Have you remembered the joy throughout the year that music will give to all?

Have you thought of the Duo-Art piano, that marvelous instrument that gives the masters your own household as a breathless audience?

Have you thought of the Pianola? The many noble instruments that give complete command of music to hearts that yearn, to fingers that never learned to play?

Have you thought of the Victrola? Of the dancing, the laughing, the listening to melody that it will bring to your fireside? Have you thought what a perfect small gift even a Victor record or a good player roll has become?

Have you thought of a musical merchandise order, in gay holiday attire, obtainable and redeemable at this House up and down the coast?

Convenient terms cordially extended.
