the joint traffic bureau of the Port of an additional number of vessels, which have been delayed at lower river points.

Rain was reported today at North Head and river points and it was expected that the fogs would be sufficiently dispelled to permit usual movements in the daytime.

The conditions in the Columbia river are reported to be improved, although up-river boat traffic will remain tied up until next week, even under favorable conditions. Lower river traffic continues as usual, with delays in schedules due as much to fog as to ice, while log towing, which was resumed by the Shaver Transportation remains with respect to the standard of the Port of Astoria, Dec. 22.—Arrived at 1 a. m., steamer Rentuckian, from New York and way ports.
