

Miss McLean's Wedding Is Charming

By Hazel Handy
THE home of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore was the scene Wednesday evening of a charming wedding, when Miss Myrtle MacLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wood MacLean, became the bride of Mr. Walter S. Garrett Jr. Rev. Oswald W. Taylor officiated and Miss Nina Dressel accompanied by Mrs. Katherine Chapman MacDonald, sang "Because." Miss Floz Rosman played the wedding march. The ceremony took place before an improvised altar banked with holly and Christmas greenery and red roses. Myriads of red candles in silver sconces gave a charm to the Yuletide setting. The bride was lovely in a gown of ivory-toned Roumanian crepe. Her court train of satin was trimmed with touches of rare old lace. A cauchou of silver grapes was the only ornament. Her veil was arranged from a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried orchids and Ophelia roses en shower. The matron of honor, Mrs. Earl Zimmerman, wore a stunning French model of tiger lily gold brocade and carried a shower bouquet of orchid sweet peas. Four bridesmaids carried gold shepherd crooks crowned with red tapers and holly forming an aisle for the bridal party. They were: Miss El Vera Anderson in watermelon pink georgette, Miss Mildred Pezz wearing tangerine georgette, Mrs. Arthur Rudeen in apricot and Mrs. Edgar Garbade in twilight blue georgette crepe. Mr. Wilson E. Schiffer attended the bridegroom as best man and the ushers were Messrs. Clarke Webster, Edgar Garbade, Bari Zimmerman, LaNou Matta, Frank Streibig and Dr. Arthur Rosman. In the dining room where the same Christmas scheme of decoration prevailed, Mesdames M. L. Kline, E. E. Larimore, D. M. Sticum and J. C. Boyer presided at the supper table. Mrs. C. O. Richards cut the wedding cake and Mesdames LaNou Matta, Frank Streibig, Lawrence Cunningham, Esper Hansen, Al Lattimer, C. V. Luther and the Misses Grace Phillips and Dorothy and Lillian Anderson served. Mesdames J. H. Joyce and Fred Speer assisted in receiving the guests. Mrs. Walter S. Garrett, mother of the bridegroom, came up from California to attend the wedding which was witnessed by about 200 friends of the young couple. After an extended wedding tour through the East Mr. and Mrs. Garrett will reside in Los Angeles, Cal. Dr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Kiehle will receive their friends at their home, No. 1137 Cumberland road, New Year's day from 7 to 10 p. m. For the special benefit of the little folk a matinee performance will be given of the three Christmas plays to be staged by the Arts and Crafts society Friday afternoon in the New

League Opposes Reappearance Of Arbuckle

By Yella Winner
THE Progressive Woman's League, of which Mrs. Ernest Crosby is president, went on record at its luncheon meeting Wednesday as opposing the showing of films featuring "Fatty" Arbuckle, the resolution voicing the opposition being introduced by Mrs. M. W. Wyville, chairman of the motion picture committee of the division of American citizenship of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Alexander Thompson, chairman of the motion picture censor board of Portland and also a member of the club, spoke to the resolution, saying that she considered the showing of Arbuckle films would be a violation of the city ordinance, which says that films detrimental to public morals may not be shown. Mrs. Louise Palmer Webber spoke against the resolution. The program of the day was one of unusual interest and brought out some of the excellent talent within the club membership. Mrs. M. A. Howard, made a plea for a greater interest on the part of women in political matters especially to legislation affecting women and children. Mrs. F. M. Groshog pointed out to the women their opportunity for becoming an even greater force in civic affairs. Mrs. George W. McMath, member of the State Board for Vocational Education, called attention to the small amount of money expended by the state in training its home makers as against the sums spent in training boys for their life work, and urged the women to at all times lend their influence in any effort which has for its objective the training of girls to become capable and efficient wives, mothers and home makers. Mrs. June Jones, discussing "Women in the Realm of Recreation," set forth some startling facts concerning the influence of immoral motion pictures on the lives of both old and young. She pointed out the dangers of girls going to and from dances, unchaperoned, declaring that the joy rides after the dances constitute one of the greatest menaces to the young people today. Mrs. W. L. Frantiss bespoke the purchasing power of the women of the state as a means of increasing the pay rolls and thus bringing about expansion and prosperity for the state. The pleasure of the meeting was heightened by the singing of Mrs. Barnett Goldstein. Mrs. Rhode B. Hayes was in charge of the program. The study department of the club will meet with Mrs. Crosby January 3. The club will give a card party February 12 at the home of Mrs. J. Coulsen Lane for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund and to raise its pledge to the Oriental college fund. An entertainment was given at the Albina Homestead school Friday evening, December 15, by the Parent-Teacher association of that school. The children of the school participated, and it was a delightful success, both as an entertainment, and financially, netting close to $40, which will be used by the association for the benefit of the school. A candy sale followed the entertainment, and the only objection to this was that there wasn't enough candy for the number of customers. The president, Mrs. Wentz, and the girls of the domestic department made the candy. The Blue Triangle club of the Y. W. C. A. met for a club supper, social hour and lecture on Thursday night. Stunts were the feature of the social hour. Any member who failed to do a stunt was fined 25 cents. Thirty girls attended the lecture by Mrs. A. Stephens on "Life Adjustment." The next meeting of the Blue Triangle club will be January 4. The girls will meet for a club supper at 6 o'clock, followed by a business meeting and Mrs. Stephens' third lecture. All club girls are asked to register for the supper. A white elephant party and registration for the new term of classes will be held at the regular Tuesday night supper, January 2. Classes in millinery, sewing, English, hair dressing, gymnasium and swimming will be held for a period of 10 weeks. Removal Sale Nearing End. IN THE SHORT time that now remains to us in our old quarters, we will offer special prices that we have never offered before on certain goods we do not care to move. These days will be days of opportunity for those who visit our store. A few of the many suggestions follow: BOOKS: Nearly all lines of books are represented in this sale—fiction, history, travel, adventure, poetry, classics, biography, children's books, illustrated books. Books for every age and taste—libraries, book-lovers, casual readers—all will find in this sale something of interest. Mail orders will be filled where possible, but in a general sale like this, of limited quantities of a title, it is not always possible, so in ordering by mail, it would be well to specify a second and third choice. The sale prices are astonishingly low—for instance: The 19c Table: Contains books in value up to 75c. Among other titles: Sartor Resartus, Julius and Ethel, Dream Life, Pericles, The Merchant of Venice, Measure for Measure. The Oz Books: A remainder from our Christmas selling, $1.75 per copy regularly. While they last, $1.00. Picture Books, Paint Books: "Make and Do" books at 1/2 their usual prices. STATIONERY SUGGESTIONS: Ladies' Leather Novelties, Manicure Sets, Sewing Sets, Vanity Cases, Ladies' Handbags and Purses, Book Ends, Narcissus Bulbs in Bowls, Candlesticks, Hispian Moresque Luster Pottery, All Gift Novelties, High School Belts, Ivory Toiletware (Pyralin), Some Worth-While Specials in Stationery, High-Grade Fabric Finish Stationery, Hurd's Damask Linen, Special Linen Finish Paper, Hurd's Gift Box Stationery, Leather Goods for Men, Dressing Cases, Collar Boxes, Letter Cases and Fital Cases, Bill Folds and Purses.

Marion Grand Jury Has Heavy Docket. Salem, Dec. 28.—No less than 18 criminal cases are to be investigated by the Marion county grand jury which went into session Wednesday morning. Prominent among the charges to be placed before the grand jury will be the counts against Wayne Dimick and Ernest Crabtree, sons of pioneer Oregon families, who are said to have conspired to numerous robberies, including that of a conductor on the Salem street railway system.

America by Hendrik Van Loon

STORY NO. 94. THE early financial and political history of the United States is so intertwined with the name of Alexander Hamilton, that I must tell you something about this remarkable young man, before taking up the terrible problems which faced the American people after their successful rebellion against their English masters. Hamilton was born in the British West Indies in 1757. He was the son of a Scotch merchant who belonged to a good family. His mother was of French descent. Hamilton seems to have been a very precocious child. We read of his being employed in a "counting house" at the tender age of 11. The next year he took full charge, while his employer, Mr. Nicholas Cruger, went to Europe on a business trip. When he was 15, some friends helped the young man to go to America. Two years later, he entered Columbia university, which was then called "King's college." When the war broke out he entered the American army, and organized an artillery company, of which he was made captain. At this time, remember, he was only 19. He showed such ability that he was put on Washington's staff, as private secretary to the general. This post he held until 1781. Then, being very anxious to do some more fighting instead of so much writing, he managed to be transferred to a field command and distinguished himself at Yorktown, where he led the Americans in their final assault on the British redoubt. The year before he had married the daughter of that General Philip Schuyler, who had done so much to prevent
