Bridge Committee

Location of the new Ross Island bridge on the lines proposed to the people during the recent bridge bond ampaign is desired by the joint bridge committee, representing seven improvement and community clubs. This was put into a statement adopted by the committee Wednesday night to be forwarded to the county commissioners in response to a formal letter from them asking for an expression on the subject. The plan proposed would make the west approach at Kelley on Grover street, and the east approach on a route directly opening the Powell Valley road.
