SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1922.

TOWN TOPICS

COMING EVENTS January 18 to 20. April 19 to 23: m. June 18 to ally

WEATHER FORECAST

WEATHEE CONDITIONS High pressure prevails east of the Missis-pi river and in most of the states west of Rocky Mountains. A large area of low essure overlies the Middle West and another apparently central off the coast of Southern ska. Precipitation has occurred on the die and north Pacific slope and in the ribern Plains region, and at a few places, other sections. The temperature is con-erably higher in Nebraka and the Missis-pi vallor, and is much lower in New Eng-d and in parts of Montana and Utah. It is serably below normal cast of the Mississippi er and in the extreme southwest, and above rinal in other sections. Belative humidity at Portland: Noon yes-day, 94 per cent; 5 p. m. yesterday, 95 r cent; 5 a. m. today, 86 per cent. Precipitation since January 1: Total. 39 inches; sormal, 46.90 inches; defi-mor, 7.51 inches. EDWARD V. WELLS. WEATHER CONDITIONS

EDWARD L. WELLS.

OBSERVATIONS

| STATIONS                                                                                                            | Temp                 |                      | 177          |  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|----------------------|--------------|--|
|                                                                                                                     | HighestYesterday | LowestLast night | at 24 Hours. |  |
| Baker, Or.Boston, Mass.Buffalo, N. Y.                                                                       | 8424             | 2612             | .01          |  |
| Buffalo, N. Y                                                                                                       | 1832             | 10                   | .01          |  |
| Chicago, Ill.Denver, Colo.                                                                                      | 82                   | 28                   | 0            |  |
| Des Moines, Iowa                                                                                                    | 50                   | 40                   | .0           |  |
| Edmonton, Alberta                                                                                                   | 22                   |                      | 00           |  |
| Galveston, Texas                                                                                                    | 70                   | 4664             | 0            |  |
| Helena, Mont.Honolulu, T. H.Juneau, AlaskaKanzas City, Mo.                                            | 84                   | 20                   | 0            |  |
| Juneau, Alaska*                                                                                                     | 82                   | 48                   | ,00          |  |
| LOS ADDING CAL                                                                                                      | 1 62                 | 50                   | 0.5          |  |
| Marshfield, Or                                                                                                      | 1 6.0                | 46                   | -24          |  |
| New Orleans, La.New York, N. Y.Nome, Alaska                                                                 | 64                   | . 50                 | 0            |  |
| New Jors, N. L.                                                                                                     | - 8                  | 12                   | Ō            |  |
| North Platte, Neb.                                                                                                  | 44                   | 46                   | .2:          |  |
| Oklaboma City, Okla                                                                                                 | 64                   | 50                   | 0            |  |
| Pittsburg, Pa.                                                                                                      | 28                   | 24                   | 00           |  |
| Protaborg, Pa.Prestello, IdahoPortland, Or.Prince Rupert, B. CRoseburg, Or.Rosewell, New Maxico | 44                   | 44                   | .8           |  |
| Roseburg, Or.                                                                                                       | 46                   | 44                   | .2           |  |
| Roswell, New MaricoSacramento, Cal.                                                                             | 64                   | 86                   | .0           |  |
| St. Louis, Mo.                                                                                                      | 42                   | 84                   | 0            |  |
| St. Paul. Minn.Salt Lake City. UtahSan Diego, Cal.San Francisco, Cal.                                   | 84                   | 20                   | 0            |  |
| San Francisco, Cal                                                                                                  | 52                   | 45                   | .11          |  |
| Seattle, Wash.Sheridan, Wyo.                                                                                    | 86                   | 40 28                | 1.5          |  |
| Seattle, Waah.Sheridan, Wyo.Sitka, Alaska ®Spokane, Waah.Tanana, Alaska ®     | 38                   | 28                   | .0           |  |
| Tanana, AlaskaTatoosh Island, Wash,Tonopah, Nev.Yaldez, Alaska                                          | -16                  | 88                   | .0           |  |
| Tonopah, Nev.                                                                                                       | 32                   | 26                   | .0           |  |
| Valdes, Alaska"Varcouver, B. C.Walla Walla, Wash.Washington, D. C.Williaton, N. D.                  | 42                   | 88                   | .1           |  |
| Washington, D. C.                                                                                                   | 46                   | 38                   | .1           |  |
| Williston, N. D                                                                                                     | 2342ng day   | 16 28                | :0           |  |

To Panish Cyclists Without Lights-As a result of a number of accidents that have occurred in the past few months and numerous complaints re-ceived by the police, a war has been started by the department on boys and others who result is adding blowing at started by the department on boys and others who persist in riding bloycles at night without lights. A score of off-fenders have been arrested and turned loose, but another 18 were arrested the forepart of the week and will not fare so well, police say. A number of the boys will be tried in juvenile court, and those over 18 will be tried in police court. Messenger boys are said to be the most flagrant violators.

Evening School to, Begin-The Jefferson high evening school begins

gregonialourna KGG-KGN

Hallock & Watson Radio Service Northwestern Radio Mfg. Co. Broadcasting

OREGON JOURNAL NEWS United States Health Bulletins Radio Advice and Instruction Agriculture Dept. Agrigrams Official Police Theft Report.

The Journal and its allied broadcasters are ploneers in Oregon in news and detern did not find any better weather in the southern state than Portland has been Baises Tobacco in Valley-Tobacco raising could be made a profitable industry in the Willamette valley, according to a report made to the State Chamber of Commerce by E. A. Beck-er of Woodburn. Becker reported that he has raised tobacco for 14 years on his farm and that this year he obtained 4000 pounds of the product from two acres, obtaining 50 cents per pound for the leaf. Opera Impresario Promises Season

To Hold No Inquesting and we have a second and the second seco "We are going to give Portland the greatest season of comic and light opera it has ever had," said Rex Rey-nolds, impresario of the American-Light Opera company, who arrived in the city yesterday to make final ar-

Tomorrow" and Think Ye of the Dr. Tully's last as he is leaving

Jr. arn to the p

In Advise and Instruction, for advised and status and sta

BY J SPIETCHER

CHAPTER 11 SECRETLY " exclaimed Fullaway." Dr. Grwin gave the American a sharp glance which indicated that he realized Fullaway's understanding of what he had just said. CHAPTER 11 England at once and should trave atraight via Berlin and Calais to mee London. The soliciter agreed

"Precisely," he answered. "There are polsons-known to experts-which will destroy life almost to a given minute, and of which the most skill-ful pathologist and expert will not be able to find a single trace. Now, please, understand my position--I say it is quite possible, quite likely, quite in accordance with what I, have seen, that this unfortunate gentleman, died of beart failurs brought about fix even such an ordinary exertion as his stoop-ing forward to unite his shoelace, but I also think it likely that his drath resulted from poison subtly and cun-ningly administered, probably not very long before his death took place. And if I only knew"--"Precisely," he answered. that this unfortunate gentleman, didd of heart failurs brought about by even such an ordinary exertion as his stoop-ing forward to untie his shoelace, but I also think it likely that his drath resulted from poison subtly and cur-ningly administered, probably not very long before his death took place. And if I only knew"--He paused at that and looked search-ingly and meaningly at Marshall Aller-dyke before he continued. And Aller-dyke boked back with the same intent-ness and nodded. "Yes-yes!" he said. "If you only knew--? Say it, doctor!" "If I only knew if there was any reason why any person wisbed to take the anars life," responded Dr. Ogwin, knew-? Say it, doctor !" "If I only knew if there was any reason why any person wished to take the man's life," responded Dr. Orwin, slowly and deliberately. "If I knew that somebody wanted to get him out of the way, for instance"--Allerdyke jumped to his feet and tapped Fullaway on the shoulder. "Come in here a minute," he said, motioning toward the door of his bed-room. "Ercurse us doctor-I want to

The why any person wieded to take the provided to take the provided to take the the provided to take the provided the take the provided to take the provided the take the provided the take the provided the take the provided to take the provided the take the provided to take the provided the take the take the provided t

"Unless the thieves-and murderers -were waiting there in Hull for his arrival," said Fullaway, quietly. "That's possible !" quick questions. "The value of these things great?" Was "Relatively, very great," answered Allerdyke. Enough to engage the attention of clever gang of thieves?"

"Quite !" "Then," said the doctor, "I am quite of opinion that my ideas are correct. These people probably tracked my cousin to this place, contrived to ad-"Quite !"

Smart Simplicity Shown Two Ways

The blouse on the first figure fits enugly at the hips and may of matelasse or a decorative brocade, and the skirt with its attra-bades at the side might well be of Kasha in a shade harmonizing blouse. As for the figure on the right, it illustrates the smart which the mode cometimes allows itself. The embroidery is the only and if the frock were in brown, a touch of dull gold would be chart

(Copyright, 1922, by Vogue, New York.)

sharp exclamation and selzed the American by the elbow, twisting him around in front of a big poster which displayed the portrait of a very beautiful woman. "Good Lord!" he exclaimed. "There she is! See? That's the woman! Man alve, we've hit is at once-Look!" Fullaway turned and stared, not so much at the portrait as at the big jet-

H. Kyne's "The Pride of Palomas." m. to 11 p. m. Opinion later.
MAJESTICE--Washington at Park. Logd in "Dr. Jack." 11 a. m. to 13 Uproariously famny.
RIYOLI---Washington at West Park. Girn's "The World's a Stage." 11 to 11 p. m. Opinion later.
PEOPLES--West Fark near Wash Bebe Daniels in "Singed Wings." ( later.
CIROLE-Fourth near Washington. Duncan in "The Fighting Guide." 9 to 4 s'clock the next morning.

LIGHT OPERA CO.

BIL

TOMORROW

ROOT GIBSON "Riding Wild"

P. m., to which the Hunderup is quaint stories

Evangelical

The young peop

of O. Yat

the East Market Stree pastor will speak both evening. The women's r the direction of O. 1

will sing. " ing at 6:45

THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, OR

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> Shaving Soap

mote of $796.65 for the nation-wide in mised. This averages over $14 per St. Marta. Medicord, advises. "Mod-as never failed; we shall mise our quota "Other pariabes are working hasd to is the annual every member ourvess, bestils should soon be available. The annust ground of Binhop Walter Burners and the Astoris relisf com-the American church building fund ands an immediate loss of $3000 to church, Astoria, in order to complete story. The church plant, which is intact, advant $40,008...

of revival messings to commence on Jennary, T. Hallt.-The women of the Christian church here held & successful Curistimas banar and chicken supper at the L O. O. F. hall on December 21. A program followed, consist-ing, of musical numbers and a cost act play entitled, "Packing the Missionary Barrel." The women in the play were: Mrs. A. C. Meintgre, Mrs. Homas Zasake, Mrs. Harry Cole, Mrs. George Piper, Mrs. Charles Alsmeth, Mrs. J. H. Tilsworth, Mrs. Bay Wilcor, Mrs. Jack Trousa dist. W. Partis and Mrs. Vennan Kerlay. Madford.-Bay, Miss of Ireland, Joseph O'Doherty and Mrs. Boland, who are touring the country on behalf of the mersusers for an Hah regulic, were guesn this past week of Rev. Mr. Forware.

to him last night, and entered his room after the time at which they knew it would take effect. Have you any clue —even a slight one?"

"Only this," answered Allerdyke, and roceeded to narrate the story of the hoe buckle, adding Fullaway's theory to it. "That's not much, eh?" "You must find that woman and produce her at the inquest," said the doctor. "I take it that Mr. Fullaway's idea is a correct one. Your cousin probably did invite Miss Lennard into his room to show her these jewels-that, of course, would prove that he had them in his possession at some certain hour last night. Now, about that inquest. It is fixed for 10 o'clock that inquest. It is fixed for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Let me advise you as to your course of procedure, having an eye on what you have told me. Your object should be to make the proceedings tomorrow merely infor-mal, so that the coroner can issue his order for interment, and then adjourn for further evidence. It will be suffi-clent if you give evidence identifying the body, if evidence is given of the autopsy, and an adjournment asked for until a further examination of the reserved organs and viscera can be reserved organs and viscera can be made. For the present I should keep back the matter of the supposed rob-bery until you can find this Miss Lenin?" asked Peter Rabbit. Welcome looked sadly out over the cedar swamp in which Peter Rabbit had found him and shook his head. "Of course not," said he. "I have told you why I am staying this year. nard. At the adjourned inquest-say in a week or 10 days hence-every-thing pertinent can be brought out. But you will need legal help—I am rather trespassing on legal preserves in telling you so much." "Deeply obliged to you, doctor—and you can add to our obligations by giv-Had it not been for that accident I wouldn't have thought of such

"Did-did Mrs. Robin stay with

"Did-did Mrs. Robin stay with you?" ventured Peter. "I should hope not!" replied Wel-come. "Do you suppose I would allow her to stay up here in the cold just because I must? She did stay until I made her go. She was with the last of our relatives to start for the Sunny South." Peter because very thoughtful He ing us the name of a good man to go to," said Allerdyke. "We'll see him at once and fix things up for tomorrow norning." Dr. Orwin wrote down the name and odress of a well-known solicitor, and presently went away. When he ha gone, Allerdyke turned to Fulhaway. had Sunny South." Peter became very thoughtful. He sat scratching a long ear with a long hindfoot. He scratched and scratched "Now, then," he said, "you and I'll do one or two things. We'll call on this lawyer. Then we'll cable to the princess. But how shall we get her address?" and scratched and scratched.

"There's sure to be a Russian conasked. Peter chuckled. "No, Welcome, sul in the town," suggested Fullaway. "Good idea! And I'm going to tele-phone to this Miss Lennard's address "That ear is quite all right. I in London," continued Allerdyks. "She evidently set off from here to Edin-burgh; but, anyway, the address she gave in that wire to the manager is a London one, and I'm going to try it.

svidently set off from here to Edim a London one, and I'm going to try it. Now, let's get out and be at work." The ensuing conversation between these two and a deepty interested and much impressed solicitor resulted in the dispatch of a lengthy inderested and much impressed solicitor resulted in the dispatch of a lengthy inderested and much impressed solicitor resulted in the interviewing of the captain and the search of the maximum and the pro-terviewing the station house to the solice the captain and the base and the pro-terviewing the station house to the solice the pro-terviewing and the station house tor the solice the pro-te

Men 65c Ladies 35c ten Year's Eve. 5

Peter Gives Some Good Advice By Thornton W. Burgess Good advice is always needed But, alasi is seldom heeded. —Peter Rabbit.

"HAVE you ever spent a winter in the North before, Welcome Rob-