

Who's Who in Fire Insurance

The Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, Oregon

Leads all fire insurance companies in business in Oregon. It has Fifty Thousand policy holders representing Seventy Million insurance. The association was organized in 1894 as a mutual fire insurance company, without capital stock, and has accumulated assets of

ONE HALF MILLION DOLLARS

It has paid policy holders nearly Two Million Dollars for fire losses. Its management is conservative and economical—risks carefully considered and widely distributed. Its rates are based on actual cost plus a reasonable amount necessary to establish a reserve or surplus fund to care for extraordinary losses and safeguard all policy holders.

It was organized and is operated for the protection and benefit of its policy holders and not for profit—losses have always been fairly adjusted and promptly paid.

In the ASTORIA FIRE, December 8, 1922, losses were sustained on twenty-nine policies, adjusted and paid in less than one week from time of disaster.

It Leads in Oregon Business Every Fire Insurance Company—Domestic or Foreign

In 1922, more than THIRTY-ONE MILLION DOLLARS of insurance was written and renewed, with premium income more than THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS—a gain of TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT over previous year's business.

Numbered among its members are governors, judges, lawyers, doctors, bankers, business men, farmers, laborers—all appreciative of the strength and stability of
