Press the Button and Get Mustard.

Everybody, no doubt, has long thought that there was still a great deal to be desired in the matter of cruetstands—pepper bottles with brassy tops that come off when you turn them upside down, and shower pepper in shoals upon your underdone mutton; vinegar bottles minus the vinegar; another bottle with a thick sedimenty something inside which you are informed is "Worst sauce," and a mustard pot.

Names with No Meaning.

"Brussels carpet is not made in Brussels at all," said J. M. de la Rive, of Brussels. "Nor is French glass made in France. French plate glass, or what is known to the American trade as French glass, is all of German make. In Canada they call it German glass. I suppose those names are given because the carpets were handled by dealers in Brussels, and the glass was first introduced in this country by French houses and in Canada by Germans."

Something Queer About a Richmond Street

A Grace street correspondent lodges a novel complaint. He says: "It has gotten to be the habit of people, whenever they see a young lady and gentleman promenading Grace street, to allege that they are engaged. This is very embarrassing to young ladies who reside upon that street, as they have a delicacy in allowing gentlemen to escort them home."

The whale did not move, and the water soon became stained with blood.—Baltimore American.

One of the shortest names in the country is possessed by Mr. Ye, who is secretary of the Korean legation at Washington. Mr. Ye has just been made happy by the arrival at his home of a little daughter, and the child has been christened "Washou Ye," which in English means "Washington." This child is the first born of the Korean nationality in this country. The surname man is always able to make both ends meet.

More Paupers Dumped on Us.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—Four hundred and six Italians who arrived to-day in the steamship Hindostan were evidently the output of some poorhouse officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot that ever arrived in this port. They carried no baggage, and had barely sufficient clothing to cover themselves.
