NO BATTLE YET.

All are Anxious to Attack the Hostiles-Gen. Brooke Establishes Headquarters at Wounded Knee.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 7 .- A News corres condent at the camp on White Clay creek wires: "No new developments occurred at this point. All are anxiously waiting for the word to attack the hostiles."

General Brooke and staff are encamped at Wounded Knee where they have established the headquarters of the department of the Platte.

Last night a picket rode into camp and said that a band of Indians had tried to surprise the pickets by firing upon them from behind a pile of rocks. As the night was dark the number of Indians was not known, but judging from the number of shots fired there must have been at least twenty. Two troops of cavalry hurried to the scene but on their arrival they could find no Indians. During the firing one of the pickets was slightly wounded.

GIVEN TO THE MILITARY.

The President Turns the Reservations Over to the Care of the Army.

Washington, Jan. 7 .- The president has approved General Miles' suggestion that the Standing Rock, Rosebud, Pine Ridge, Cheyenne River and Tongue River Indian reservations be temporarily placed under military control. Telegram sent him last night by Gen. Schofield giving him full authority to act.
