The Indians See their Game is Up and Begin Surrendering to General Miles.

INDIANS SURRENDERING.

Seventy Hostiles Came in to General Miles—More to Follow.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—10:30 A. M.—General Schofield this morning received the following telegram from Gen. Miles, dated Pine Ridge agency, Jan. 8th: "70 Indians came in from hostile camp today. Reports from there are Red Cloud, Little Wound, Two Strike, Big Road and others will come in to-morrow."

HOW HE WAS KILLED.

General Miles Details How Lieutenant Casey met His Death.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—General Schofield has received another telegram from General Miles detailing the circumstances of the killing of Lieutenant Casey by the Indians, as follows: The Lieutenant with some of his scouts were watching the hostile camp, and with one Cheyenne met two Indians, Ogallala and Brule. The Ogallala warned Lieutenant Casey that the Brules were bad and would shoot. As Lieutenant Casey turned to go away, the Brule fired, striking him in the back of the head and killing him instantly.

There is a report of heavy firing in or near the hostile camp that may be war between two elements of the Indian camps.

WARM TIMES IN NEBRASKA.

A Big Row in the Nebraska Legislature.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 8.—The alliance members took possession of the house this morning. They placed the speaker in the chair and put a cordon of assistant sergeants at arms around him. When Lieut Governor Mickeljohn appeared, he was not allowed to take his seat, but stood in front of the speaker, ready to call the joint session to order. The speaker issued an order for the arrest of the Lieut Governor on the charge of misconduct in office and breach of the peace. The lieutenant-governor defied the officers and was not taken into custody. A committee from each party was sent with a statement of the case to the supreme court to assert which officer has the constitutional right to preside.

Governor Thayer has ordered out a company of national guards, and at 11 o'clock they have stacked arms in the corridors of the capitol. The militia is called out only as a precautionary measure, there is little danger of an out break.

It is understood the supreme court has issued a writ of mandamus directing the speaker of the house to canvass the returns.

The Sheriff of Lancaster county with his deputies and the bailiff of the supreme court has just burst in the doors of the house and fought their way through the crowd of Alliance men all guarding the entrance. A writ has been served on the speaker, and a motion to take a recess until 3 o'clock was declared carried by the lieutenant governor, and the democrats and republicans have left the hall.

The speaker of the house declared that no recess had been taken, and all alliance members will remain and the roll is being called. They will attempt to proceed to business in joint session.

The Railroad Presidents.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—A meeting of railroad president assembled here this morning. President Miller of the St. Paul road presided. At noon President Cable came from the conference room. He said only the routine business had been transacted so far and that a friendly feeling had been manifested by all those present.

George W. Hunt Attached.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The property in this state of Geo. W. Hunt of Walla Walla has been attached by the supreme court in a suit by L. M. Potter & Co. to recover $80,000.

A Swede Killed.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 8.—Peter Peterson a young Swede employed at the Willamette Iron Works, was struck on the head to-day by a large shaft and instantly killed.

Terrible Gas Explosion.

NEW BERRY, Mich., Jan. 8.—A terrific explosion of gas occurred at the New Berry furnace to-day. One man was killed outright and several others hurt.

Big Trees in Utica, N. Y.

UTICA, N. A. Jan. 8.—The village of Springfield Centre, at head of Otsego Lake, is in flames, help has been sent from Richfield Springs.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Ill. Jan. 8.—Wheat steady. cash 90% @ 90%, May 97%.

Fond of Other Men.

Actress Lizzie Durose Killed by her Enraged Husband.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—Lizzie Durose, a young actress who appeared recently at the Bijou and Powell street theaters, was shot to-night and almost instantly killed by Robert Durose, her husband, who was employed as a guard at the San Quentin prison. Mrs. Durose has been more partial to the society of other men than she was to her husband, and recently she has been very much attached to A. E. Mitchell, an English actor. She was in his room last night in a house at 118 Ellis street, when her husband entered and shot her. After the shooting the husband and wife were reconciled and kissed one another. He was taken from the room, while the doctors dressed the wound, but begged pitifully to be taken back. His wife also called for him, and just as he entered the room, she died. As she breathed her last Durose gave one shriek and fell fainting to the floor. He attempted to kill her before, about three years ago, while she was in company with an actor named Charlie Brush, Durose achieved considerable notoriety about two years ago. While employed as a lineman by the California Electric Light Company he received a shock and was paralyzed, remaining in the hospital for three months.

CURIOUS SUIT.

Blaine Sued for Losses From Buying Confederate Bonds Prior to 1863.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 6.—Juan Roalte, the Dutch consul at Glasgow, has brought suit against James G. Blaine, as secretary of the United States. Prior to July 28, 1868, plaintiff bought $125,000 of negotiable coupon bonds, issued by the southern states, as state and confederate state bonds jointly. On the date named above, Secretary of State Seward issued a proclamation that all such obligations were void. Plaintiff contends that this was an implied admission that without such prohibition the debt or obligation would be good and valid. He alleges that Seward's proclamation was an illegal interference with the rights of plaintiff as a citizen of Great Britain and Holland. The case presents many curious points. The principal contention will be that as the United States always held that none of the southern states were out of the union, the secretary of state had no authority to issue the proclamation.

Bridge Trouble Will Not Interfere.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—A dispatch received here from New York to-day quotes President Cable of the Rock Island, as saying that the trouble over the Union Pacific bridge contract was not of sufficient importance as to be allowed to interfere with the proposed presidents' agreement. This indicates to railroad men here that the agreement will be put into effect whether the Rock Island and St. Paul succeed in fixing up their difficulty with the Union Pacific or not.

Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 6.—In the Minnesota legislature to-day the alliance-democrat combination elected their caucus nominees. In spite of numerous conferences, however, the three parties in the lower house are yet far from a compromise. The democrats claim the alliance got the best of it in the senate, and they want the best of the offices in the house. The republicans hope through this failure to elect their man.

Gang of Boy Burglars.

AKRON, O., Jan. 6.—A gang of boy burglars has been run down at Kent. Twelve of them are from here. They range in age from 9 to 12 years and have been carrying on a systematic course of thievery for the past three months. They possessed duplicate keys of business houses in the town and an old glass works, now deserted, served as a hiding place for them and their spoils.

Should be Treated Civilly.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The Daily News says that in this immediate crisis the wounded feelings of the Newfoundlanders ought in every practicable manner to be consulted. Diplomatic propriety would be observed if the views and wishes of the Newfoundland ministers were conveyed through the foreign office of the French cabinet.

America's Champion Skater Doing Nobly.

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 6.—Joe Donoghue, amateur champion of the United States and Canada, won the half mile international skating race to-day in 1 minute 25 seconds.

Donoghue also won the two mile race in 6 minutes 10.4-5 seconds.

Agent Royer Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Secretary Noble this morning sent a dispatch to Agent Royer at Pine Ridge dismissing him from service.

WILL BUILD HIS ROAD.

Hunt Floats his Bonds for £2,000,000 in London and Means the Building of his Entire Line.

THE BONDS FLOATED.

Information That Hunt Has at Last Obtained Funds.

TACOMA, Jan. 6.—It was remarked on the streets last evening and to-day that George W. Hunt, the railroad magnate of the Walla Walla valley, has at last floated $2,000,000 of Oregon & Washington railroad bonds in London, the money realized from the bonds to be used in extending the Hunt system of railroads. John B. Patton, president of the Tacoma Passenger and Baggage Transfer Company, an old acquaintance of Mr. Hunt's to-day confirmed it, stating that he had information direct from New York, where Mr. Hunt now is, to the effect that bonds to the amount named had been sold in London. Mr. Patton regards his information as conclusive, but expects to hear from Mr. Hunt again about the 15th, when further details will be given him. "The placing of these bonds," Mr. Patton said, "means the extension of the Oregon & Washington railroad from Wallula Junction to Portland, as Mr. Hunt has for a long time desired to do." Several weeks ago it was reported that a coalition had been formed between Hunt and President Jim Hill, of the Great Northern. It is regarded as likely that Hill assisted Hunt in floating his bonds in London.

POSSIBLE TROUBLE IN IDAHO.

Boise City and Pocatello Much Excited Over the Indians.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, Jan. 8.—There is no truth in the report of the burning of Pocatello. Considerable excitement prevails both there and at Blackfoot over the hostile attitude of the Bannocks on Fort Hall reservation.

Governor Wiley to-day received a telegram from Blackfoot requesting him to forward fifty guns and ammunition. The telegram further stated that danger is possible, and no arms are available, and that a permanent militia organization is being perfected. In response to the telegram the Governor has just shipped fifty guns, and three thousand rounds of ammunition.

General Manager Ressignie and Superintendent Ryder, U. P. R. R., have telegraphed from Pocatello to Governor Wiley stating there is danger of an Indian outbreak, and requesting troops to be sent to that place: they are ready to furnish transportation.

BY CABLE.

Revolution in Buenos Ayres—Cold Weather in England—The Strike.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—A cable from Buenos Ayres announces that a revolution has broken out in Chili.

There has been severe weather throughout England for some time, causing the deepest distress among the poorer classes in this city.

GLASGOW, Jan. 8.—The railroad strike shows no sign of a definite improvement.

Oregon Tax Levy.

SALEM, Jan. 8.—The State executive board yesterday made a levy of taxes for 1891 as follows: For general expense fund, four mills; university tax, one-seventh of a mill; military tax, one-fifth of a mill. Total taxable property of the State is $114,077,788. The tax levied will raise a total of $495,423.52.

San Francisco Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. Jan. 8.—Wheat buyer 90, season $1.49 1/2.

A prominent physician and old army surgeon in eastern Iowa, was called away from home for a few days; during his absence one of the children contracted a severe cold and his wife bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for it. They were so much pleased with the remedy that they afterwards used several bottles at various times. He said, from his experience with it, he regarded it as the most reliable preparation in use for colds and that it came the nearest being a specific of any medicine he had ever seen. For sale by Snipes & Kinsersly.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

The firm existing under the firm name of Brooks & Beers is this day dissolved by mutual consent by the retiring of Mr. S. L. Brooks. The business will be carried on by Messrs. G. F. Beers, and R. E.
