THEY WILL NOT FIGHT.

The Hostiles are Surrendering in Numbers to General Miles who is Confident of Success.
The Rumors in Regard to the Pocatello Indian Outbreak Prone to be False.

INDIANS COMING IN.

General Miles Telegraphs that a Large Number of Indians are Surrendering.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—General Schofield has received the following telegram from General Miles dated Pine Ridge: "Yesterday quite a number of Indians came in today in small parties, and I have assurance of a large move in this direction tomorrow, for the purpose of surrendering and troops are directed to follow. Prospects at present look favorable as far as I can judge from indications."

GOVERNOR BOYD STILL SITS.

The Proceedings of the Nebraska Legislature.
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 10.—The gubernatorial situation remains unchanged. Governor Boyd is recognized by all the state officers, while Governor Thayer still insists that he is at the head of the state government.
It is evident Governor Boyd's warrants will be honored by auditor and treasurer, while Governor Thayer will not be able to have supplies for his military men pending the settlement of the controversy by supreme court. In the senate this morning but little business was transacted, and an adjournment was taken till Monday afternoon.
Several important bills were introduced but the proceedings were the same throughout.

A FALSE ALARM.

The Trouble With the Idaho Indians Grossly Exaggerated.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—A telegram from Gen. Gibbon, dated yesterday says the following was just received from the officers at Boise barracks: "The state Adjutant-General Curtis wires the governor from Pocatello as follows: The fears over the Indian outbreak are greatly exaggerated and without just foundation. The first reports were sent by irresponsible parties."

Will Investigate the Railroad Presidents' Agreement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Representative Anderson, (Kansas) will introduce in the house a resolution calling on the interstate commerce commission to investigate the western railroad agreement which is now being formulated in New York.
Has Appointed an Indian Commissioner.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Secretary Proctor to-day received a telegram from General Miles as follows: Commission appointed to consider the condition of the Cheyenne Indians at this place and Montana unanimously recommend removal of Indians to Fort Keogh.

For a Wonder.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The Indian Bureau has received a telegram to-day from Agent McLaughlin at Standing Rock denying rumors of trouble at that agency. He says the Indians are to be depended upon for their loyalty to the government.
Protesting Against DuBois.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—In the senate the vice-president laid before the senate a protest to 23 members Idaho legislature against allowing DuBois to keep his seat. Referred to committee on privileges and elections.

That Settles It.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 10.—A special Post dispatch from its staff correspondent at Rushville Neb., says: "Buffalo Bill" reported to have made a statement today "ball will open tomorrow."
No Indian Outbreak in Manitoba.
OTTAWA, Ont. Jan. 10.—Frederic White comptroller of the Northwest Mounted Police states that reports of Indian outbreaks near Deleraine, Manitoba are unfounded.

Sugar Trust Will Reorganize.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Judge Pratt has vacated an order appointing a receiver for the Sugar Trust and directed that the affairs of the Trust be handed over to the reorganization committee.
Still Coming In.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Gen. Schofield received a telegram from Gen. Miles this morning saying that the Indians were still coming in.
Chicago Wheat Market.
CHICAGO, Ill. Jan. 10.—Wheat steady. cash 90@90½, May 96½@96¾, July 93.

HOW THEY WERE FIXED.

The Condition of the Hostiles at Pine Ridge.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The situation as summed up at the interior department to-day is about as follows: There are in all about 20,000 Sioux Indians, men, women and children on the northern reservation. Of this number 16,500 are accounted for, as they are living on reservations in peace and not taking any part in the present disturbances. This leaves about 3,500 men, women and children to face 8,000 men now under command of General Miles. The hostile camp is located seventeen miles north of the agency and a cordon of troops surround it, with the exception of the south side, the object being to drive them into the reservation. There is constant communication between the hostile camp and the agency. The hostiles are well supplied with beef, but they have no sugar or coffee, except as they are supplied by friendlies. While the situation is regarded as hopeless for the Indians, yet it is believed they have no intention of surrendering. It is predicted by some who are on the ground that there will be a battle on Sunday or Monday. When the hopelessness of fighting against such odds is pointed out. The only explanation given is, "The Indians are crazy." From reports received at the interior department, the situation is believed to be intense and people at the agencies are very much disturbed.

A SUSPICIOUS JOURNAL.

The St. James Gazette Thinks Booth Should Not Have Control of Funds.
LONDON, Jan. 8.—The St. James Gazette, which is publishing the results of an inquiry into the history and methods of the Salvation Army, with a view to discouraging public subscriptions to the "Darkest England" fund has unearthed two deeds dated in 1878, which give General Booth complete control of the organization and make it practically his private property. They endow Booth with autocratic power over the order and all its branches, and give him authority to appoint his own successor; also to give away, lease or sell any or all of the army property without accounting to anyone. The Gazette points out the danger of entrusting large sums to any man, however honest in his views, who is a fanatic, with absolute power to dispose of money without regard to judgment of donors.

POWDER MILLS BLOWN UP.

A Chinaman Blown to Atoms and others Severely Injured.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—An explosion occurred at Powning station this afternoon, in the mills of the California Powder Works. Half a dozen white men and two Chinese were working in the mills at the time. Of these one Chinaman was literally blown to pieces, only his skull being found. Of the whites, Fred Larsen was terribly burned about the arms and body and may die. C. J. Campbell was burned and mutilated about the head and body. His injuries are considered certainly fatal. The wounded men were brought to Oakland. The cause of the explosion is unknown. Loss, $3500.

Southern Oregon Knights Templars.

ASHLAND, Or., Jan. 8.—Malta commandery, Knights Templar, the first commandery of this rank of Masons in the southern half of Oregon and the fourth organized in the state, was instituted with appropriate ceremonies in Ashland last night. Knights were in attendance from all parts of Southern Oregon. T. G. Reames, of Jacksonville, was elected eminent commander and W. H. Atkinson, of Ashland, generalissimo.

G. F. BEERS.
January 1, 1891.
Having retired from the above firm, I desire to return my thanks to the public for generous and friendly patronage and to ask for the new firm a continuance of the same. SAM'L L. BROOKS.

HOPE HE IS IN EARNEST.

General Miles Has Got Ready to Close on the Hostiles and a Bloody Battle is Momentarily Expected.
THE TOM-FOOLERY TO END.
General Miles has at Last Got Ready to Move.

RUSHVILLE, Neb., Jan. 10, 10:30 P. M.—A general battle is looked for to-morrow. Circumstances are forcing conclusions to the hostiles, and parleying is not to be longer continued by either side. The Indians said yesterday that General Miles was prepared to fight or get off the reservation. General Miles, it is said, has given the Indians until to-night to surrender, and if they do not come in by that time he will close on them.
The Same Old Chestnut.
All last night signal lights were flashing between Pine Ridge and Rosebud hostiles. Preparations are being made for a fight and everyone here anticipates the bloodiest battle ever fought in this country. Officers who are at Pine Ridge agency were sent east last night.

LIVELY TIMES AT NORTH DALLES.

The Early Spring Promises Big Improvements—Railroads to Come in and Center at North Dalles.

It is now an assured fact that the Hunt system of railroads will be built from Wallula Junction to Portland early this spring, the bonds having been taken in Europe. The road will be built on the north side of the river, and will pass near the present site of the shoe factory. The Farmer's and Goldendale road will also be pushed to completion early this year and North Dalles will be its terminal point.
Mr. O. D. Taylor and S. L. Skeels leave for the east Monday night on an extended trip, the purpose being the manufacturing interests at North Dalles. Parties who have been contemplating purchasing lots should do so immediately, for with the completion of certain contracts prices would be advanced rapidly. If you want to make a few hundred dollars get your lots at first price.

The county jail contains but two prisoners, one a Charles Johnson charged with larceny from a dwelling, the other a United States prisoner charged with selling liquor to Indians.

We understand plans are being talked of for the building of an elevator and warehouse at the Rockfield cannery for the accommodation of the farmers in the northern portion of the country, and that a road is projected to open down Five-Mile, from the Canyon City road to the station. The condition of the present road from the R. D. Thompson place to this city is certain to change the travel from the present route to the one in contemplation.

Mr. J. H. McDonough leaves for San Francisco to-morrow. His eyes have been troubling him for some time and he goes for the purpose of having them treated.
A carload of sheep will be shipped from here to-morrow which constitutes all the business at the yards. It is the dullest day, then, of the year.
