AUSTRALIAN BALLOT SYSTEM.

A system of voting by which the voter is protected from outside influence, where he can alone prepare his ballot, and cast it without fear, is a necessity of the times.

Chili is having another revolution, it is not likely that any one except the leaders of it know what it is for. South American politics seem to recognize but two parties the one in power, the other out.

Dr. Darrin advertises to the effect that some wretch has been defrauding the people out through Powell's valley and other sections by passing himself off as Dr. Darrin.

The rapidity with which the silver legislation is being pushed indicates that the friends of the bill, having been sent to the field are playing hard to again get hold of the bat.

Eight democrats happened to meet in the county clerk's office yesterday morning when the question was asked, "what is the relative strength of Cleveland and Hill?"

Professor Virchow in a recent lecture before the Berlin Medical Society stated that the post mortem examination on twenty-one patients who had died after being injected with lymph showed that the bacilli were driven to other parts of the body and a new disease created.

The fight between the Calkins and Squire factions is exceedingly better. Calkins seems to have developed unexpected strength, and it is barely possible that he may down the Seattle senator.

Senator Vest was nominated by the democratic caucus in Missouri to succeed himself in the United States senate, Wednesday. He is one Vest that cannot be "pulled down."

A London gentleman recounts a somewhat surprising experience while endeavoring to engage a coachman. Three applicants were found suitable, but refused the place because the family did not use livery. Two suits of clothes a year were furnished but it was livery or nothing.

ALLIANCE MEN EXPELLED.

Full Proceedings of the Disgraceful Row in the Nebraska Legislature.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 8.—The Alliance members took possession of the house at 5 o'clock this morning. They placed their speaker in the chair and put a cordon of assistant sergeant-at-arms around him.

Governor Thayer ordered out a company of the national guards; at 11 o'clock they stacked arms in the corridors of the capitol. Crowds arrived on every train to attend the inauguration of Governor-elect Boyd, and considerable impatience was shown over the delay in counting the vote.

At 12:15 p. m. the supreme court issued a writ of mandamus directing the speaker of the house to canvass the returns.

Sheriff McLeary served the writ on the speaker only after a pitched battle. He was guarded by a squad of police and Captain Carder's clothes were torn off, but, after smashing hats and heads with their clubs, they secured entrance and the writ was served.

Mr. Micklejohn went out in the corridor at 2 o'clock and the doorkeeper refused to readmit him. Governor Thayer then ordered the militia to escort Micklejohn back if necessary.

Governor-elect Boyd called on Gov. Thayer and the latter informed him he (Thayer) would not give up the office on the ground that Boyd was not a citizen of the United States.

Dr. Amelia B. Edwards, the novelist and Egyptologist, after traveling all over the world and encountering all sorts of dangers, fell down stairs in Columbus, Ohio, and broke her arm.

The Dalles Daily Chronicle is springing up into a very nice evening paper.—Salem Capitol Journal.

THE DALLES.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city. ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

THE LARGEST WOOL MARKET. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped this year.

THE VINEYARD OF OREGON. The country near The Dalles produces splendid crops of cereals, and its fruits cannot be excelled. It is the vineyard of Oregon, its grapes equalling California's best, and its other fruits, apples, pears, prunes, cherries etc., are unsurpassed.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of $1,500,000 which can and will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickital valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast, and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed! Its climate delightful! Its possibilities incalculable! Its resources unlimited! And on these corner stones she stands.
