In Congress.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Senator Quay to-day introduced a bill entitled, an act to prevent force and fraud in federal elections, and to insure lawful and peaceful conduct thereof. The principal point of difference between his bill and Hoar's bill is in the last section which is as follows: "When it shall appear to the satisfaction of the president of the United States that in any locality provisions of this law cannot otherwise be executed it shall be his duty to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to employ armed forces of the United States naval and military for its enforcement. In the house a resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of a special committee of five members to investigate the alleged connection of members of congress in the silver pool and to inquire into the ownership of twelve million ounces of silver bullion which the United States was asked to purchase.

Living Upon Turnips. Cork, Jan. 10 .- The state of destitution into which the poor people of some portions of Ireland are plunged, can be judged by the fact that to-day representatives of over 100 families living in the Cloyne district waited upon the board of guardians and earnestly begged for assistance. They stated that for some time they had been living almost entirely upon turnips. Heavy Losses by the Natives.

Paris, Jan. 10 .- Advices from St. Louis, the chief town of Senegal, bring the news that the French troops under command of Archinard, carried by assault the fortress of Niora, belonging to the Sultan of Anemdos.
