THE PORTAGE ROAD.

Senator Watkins Introduces a Bill for an Appropriation for a Portage Railroad at the Cascades.

The New State of Wyoming is the First to Make an Appropriation for the World's Fair.

Leland Stanford Elected United States Senator from California to Succeed Himself.

All the Hostile Indians Have Encamped within a Mile of Pine Ridge Agency.

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Senator Watkins Introduces a Bill for the Equipment of a Portage Railroad.

SALEM, Jan. 13.—[Special to The Dalles Chronicle]—Senator Watkins today introduced a bill for the building and equipment of a portage railroad at the cascades of the Columbia.

The senate to-day adopted a resolution introduced by Senator Watkins, appointing a committee of both houses to confer with a committee of the Washington legislature now in session looking to joint efforts of the two states in the matter of opening the Columbia river to navigation.

In the senate to-day, Raley of Umatilla introduced a joint memorial praying congress to grant the right of way to construct a canal for irrigation in Umatilla county.

MILES OUGHT TO BE HAPPY.

All the Hostiles Have Come in and Camped Under his Eye.

PINE RIDGE, Jan. 13.—The Indians are in camp within full view of the north fortifications, one mile from the agency. Behind them is a natural amphitheatre. On the plain are tepees by hundreds, pitched irregularly. All is activity at headquarters. The Friendlies say if even a solitary hostile comes among them and causes trouble they will kill him. They have dug rifle pits. If the hostiles could be sure of dragging in 2500 friendlies they will be sure to fight.

APPROPRIATES THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The Young State of Wyoming is First in the Exposition.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—The World's Fair Commissioner Hay, of Wyoming, telegraphs Secretary Dickinson that the governor has signed the bill appropriating $30,000 for Wyoming's exhibits at the exposition.

The legislature of the young state of Wyoming is first in the union to make appropriation for this purpose.

AN EMBEZLER RETURNS.

The Former President of a Hartford Fire Company Gives Himself up.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 13.—George M. Bartholomew formerly president of the Charter Oak Life Insurance Co. who fled to Canada some years ago, returned voluntarily this morning and appeared before Judge Fenn of the Superior Court and pleaded guilty to the charge of embezzlement of $10,000. The Judge sentenced him to one year in state prison. Bartholomew is over 70 years old, and in feeble health.

STANFORD ELECTED.

The California Legislature Chooses Stanford U. S. Senator.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—The senate and assembly to-day balloted for a United States senator to succeed Leland Stanford. In the senate the ballot resulted—Stanford (Rep) 27; Stephen White, of Los Angeles (Dem) 12. In the assembly the vote was, Stanford 59; White 18; Ben Morgan 1.

The Birmingham Strike a Failure.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 13.—The coal miners strike which has been on since the first of December is breaking up. It is believed that in a few days all will be at work again.

Skaters Drowned.

PARIS, France, Jan. 13.—A crowd of skaters tried to cross the Seine to-day but when near the middle of the river the ice gave way and nine were drowned.

Served Him Right.

PORTLAND, Jan. 13.—Harry Carson, of Astoria, was convicted to-day in the U. S. court of the charge of sending an obscene letter through the mails.

Flack Given a New Trial.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 13.—The court of appeals has granted a new trial to ex-Sheriff Flack and son, and Wm. Flack convicted of a conspiracy to secure a divorce for the former.

WHO WILL BE WINNER.

Great Interest Shown in the Prize Fight of Tomorrow.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11.—The crowd coming to see the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons fight is beginning to pour in, but most of the excursion parties will not reach the city until Monday. Dave Wright, of Kansas City, has telegraphed for ten rooms for himself and party, who will arrive on Monday night. Tommy Stevenson, a well-known sporting man of Philadelphia, telegraphs that the Quaker City delegation will reach here on Monday, and wants rooms reserved for them. Malachi Hogan, of Chicago, has had several boxes reserved for the Lake City party; it will also reach here on Monday. Edward Kearney, of New York, and a number of Manhattanites got in tonight, and will remain until after the fight. Robert Allen, a prominent Australian bookmaker, telegraphs that he will be here tomorrow, and that he has money to put on Dempsey. This is a surprise, as the New Zealander was supposed to be thought very highly of in the antipodes. Phil Dwyer and other New Yorkers, who have plenty of money with which to back Dempsey, are expected to-morrow, and will give some sport to the betting, which has somewhat languished. The San Francisco party will not reach here till the morning of the fight, but there are some few Californians already in town, and they are betting on Dempsey and giving small odds on him. It now seems probable that Fitzsimmons will reach here ahead of Dempsey, as he wishes to back the Doc O'Connell fight on Monday night, whereas the Dempsey crowd is talking of not coming here till Tuesday, when a reception will be tendered to Jack McAuliffe and Dempsey. Dempsey now weighs 152, and will enter the ring at 150, rather more than his usual weight on such occasions. Fitzsimmons weighs 152, and will remain at that weight. It is said Jack McAuliffe and Tutthill will second Dempsey, with Mike Connelly as bottle-holder, and Costigan and Maher on hand in case they are needed.

Arming the Settler.

NORTH YAKIMA, Jan. 11.—On telegraphic orders from General O'Brien, fifty stand of arms were expressed from here to-day, consigned to General Curry, at Spokane Falls, for use in case of trouble, with the Mose Indians on the Colville reservation. No trouble is anticipated from the Yakima Indians, although it is reported that the sale of arms and ammunition to them has been unusually large. Reservation Clerk John G. Boyles, brings news that the renegade Indians, who live along the line of the railroad, are now dancing, but it is believed to be nothing more than the usual tomanimus dances for a short winter and a good run of salmon.

Perished in the Flames.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Fire broke out at an early hour this morning in the house of J. K. Lynch in Alameda. Smoke was discovered by a Swiss servant, Anna Kunfermann, who aroused Lynch and his wife and notified the policeman, who turned in the alarm. Lynch and his wife left the house at once, thinking the girl did the same. It seems, however, that she returned to her room in the attic, presumably to rescue some of her belongings, and was overcome by the smoke. When the roof and attic fell in spectators were horrified to see the girl's body, burned to a crisp, resting on the second-story joists. The body was taken to the morgue. The house is almost a total wreck.

Ingalls Will Reast Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Senator Ingalls has announced his intention of talking next Tuesday. His remarks will presumably be directed toward free coinage. Incidentally he will support that measure, but in the main he will probably devote his speech to a systematic roasting of Grover Cleveland. It is said that he has been saving up extracts and preparing himself to deliver a veritable philippic upon the subject of the ex-president.

Ghostly Accident to a Funeral.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—A horrible accident occurred this morning in the southern part of the city. A funeral cortege was on its way to the cemetery and was struck by a swiftly moving cable train and completely wrecked. The driver was probably fatally injured.

WHI Investigate the Alleged Bribery.

DENVER, Jan. 13.—In the lower house to-day a committee was appointed to investigate the charges of bribery. The charges grew out of a quarrel between the factions of the Republicans over the control of the house.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 13.—Wheat steady. cash 90½, May 90½@90¾, July 91¾@91½.

THE LATEST.

General Miles Telegraphs Particulars of the Situation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—11:30 P. M.—General Schofield this morning received the following telegram from Gen. Miles at Pine Ridge dated January 12: "General Brookes' command is now in camp five miles distant at White Clay creek, and has the entire body of Indians between two commands. The greatest difficulty now is to restore confidence. The Indians have great fear that their arms will be taken away from them and all treated like those on Weounded Knee."

The Indians have a large number of wounded women and children, which creates a most depressing feeling among the families, and desperate disposition among them.

Military measures and movements have so far been successful. Their control now becomes a problem. As yet, no serious embarrassment is apprehended.

Indians Break Away From the Agency.

RUSHVILLE, Neb., Jan. 13. 2:30 P. M.—Between 400 and 500 Indians broke away from the hostiles and have started for the Bad Lands via Wounded Knee. They are crazy and frantic, committing depredations wherever they go. General Carr, with the Sixth Cavalry and one company of the Infantry and Colonel Wheaton with four companies of Infantry are after them.

THAT INTERMINABLE ROW.

Governor Thayer of Nebraska Still Trying to Remain In.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 13.—The supreme court allowed ex-Governor Thayer to file a quo warranto petition this morning asking Governor Boyd to show cause why he should not vacate his office. "However" said the court, "we recognize Boyd as the eligible governor of Nebraska. We would advise the ex-governor to submit to quietly and peacefully submit."

"In spite of this Thayer refuses to vacate his office."

The board of public lands and buildings say that they will remove Thayer from the Governor's room this afternoon by force.

LOUISIANA'S SHAME.

The Officials Who Let the Prize Fight Go on.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—Major Shakespear said to-day he would not interfere with the coming Dempsey-Fitzsimmons prize fight, and it is understood the governor will let the matter rest with municipal authorities. Kilrain and Muldoon are in town, and all the notable pugilists of the country have arrived or are on the way. Among the latter is Peter Jackson. Sullivan it is said will be here.

A Salt Ship Goes Ashore.

FIRE ISLAND, Jan. 13.—The schooner Otter from St. Kitts with a cargo of salt, went ashore at Bell port L. I. this morning. Two men were drowned coming ashore.

A Serious Blaze.

BOMBAY, Jan. 13.—Over 200 houses here were burned and hundreds of families were rendered homeless, and much suffering is thereby caused.

Dillon to be Chosen Leader.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—The Siecle to-day announces that John Dillon upon his arrival in France will be chosen leader of the Irish parliamentary party.
